mittee had decided it would be best to have the bonds bought before that night. The picture will be "The Life of Jack London."

He stated that all the agencies selling bonds in the community would be supplied with coupons that would be stamped with the date and that these would be used at the ticket office, plus a three-cent federal tax, for entrance to the show. Tickets will also be sold at the ticket office for entrance at the show for the benefit of those who do not purchase bonds during the three-day period.

Mr. Massie called attention to the display of captured German equipment which will be shown on Main street on Thursday, February 10, from 1 to 3 o'clock. The caravan will be met by the high school band and the city officials at the city limits and brought to Main street. The caravan is being escorted over the state by special N. C. state highway patrol.

The equipment will consist of one tank destroyer with a 75 mm gun which was captured in North Africa in which all occupants were killed. The citizens of the state are indebted to Capt. John Edwardson, public relations director of the 4th service command, Atlanta, Ga., for the display.

There will also be shown a German half track field kitchen, a large piece of field equipment mounted on a half track truck which was used by the Germans to feed their units in Sicily and it was captured there.

Two lieutenants will bring the

Dr. Joe F. Baxter, Veterinarian, Is Opening Offices

Dr. Joe F. Baxter has opened offices on Depot Street, next door to the Haywood Print Shop, for the practice of medicine for large and small animals.

Dr. Baxter is a graduate of Auburn School of Veterinary Medicine of the class of 1938. He was associated with the State Department of Agriculture in Jacksonville, and practiced his profession in Kingston for two and one-half years.

Dr. Baxter and wife, with their two children, Jean and Elizabeth, have leased the Mary Medford house on East Street.

Cpl. James D. Ashe Of "First Call" Here

Corporal James D. Ashe, son of Mrs. Lois Ashe, who left here with the first call for men under the selective service system on July 18, 1941, is spending a 22-day furlough here with his mother.

Cpl. Ashe volunteered in the service, and it will be recalled that every member of that first group was a volunteer. The call was the 9th, under the selective service system, but the first time this area was given an order for men, due to the fact that such a large number had volunteered.

Cpl. Ashe was inducted at Fort McPherson, and from there sent to Fort Eustis, Va., and then to Porto Rico and later Cuba. He has been out of this country on duty in the latter areas for the past two years and this is his first furlough home. He is serving with the Coast Artillery. Prior to entering the service he was employed by the A. J. Downs Construction Company, of Asheville.

Cpl. Ashe has a half brother, Tech, Sgt. LeRoy Mathis, who is now serving in England, who has been overseas for the past 6 months. He was inducted at Camp Croft in Sept., 1942, and sent from there to Miami and then overseas.

display here, which is to be shown in 59 towns and will tour 1,342 miles in the interest of selling war bonds during the 4th War Loan Drive, according to Mr. Massie.

Quota Doubled In Paralysis Drive

was raised on Saturday when the committees in charge of the drive staged a Tag Day. Carroll McCracken and Mrs. Bill Palmer were in charge of the drive in the Canton area and Jonathan Woody and Mrs. S. P. Gay directed activities in Waynesville.

Especially active in the Waynesville section were the Girl Scouts under the supervision of the troop leader, Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, who served at various booths on Main Street.

Funds raised in the Waynesville area by different groups and communities are as follows, according to Mr. Woody: Park Theatre, $227.50; Rotary Club, $29.75; Wellco Shoe Corp., $74.55; Lake Junaluska school, $27.24; Central Elementary School, $17.78; Fines Creek community, $30.27; England-Walton Company, $35.00; First National Bank, Miss Josephine Cabe soliciting, $35.80.

From the court house, with Miss Louise Stringfield in charge, $50.55; Smith's Drug Store booth, with Mrs. E. C. Wagenfeld, chairman, $74.29; Ray's store booth, with Miss Margaret Perry, $30.32; Food Store booth, with Mrs. Charles E. Ray, Jr., in charge, $58.00; Hazelwood School, $37.33; Crabtree Iron Duff high school, $72.05; and the East Waynesville school, with contributions totaling $108, leading all school donations.

If he's too stupid to see the point he must eventually feel it.

Farm Ownership Group of FSA Hold Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of Farm Security Administration farm ownership borrowers of Haywood county was held at the chapter house of the Future Farmers of America in an all-day session on Friday at the township high school here. J. Yates Bailey, county supervisor, presided.

Mr. Bailey discussed the present farm situation and outlined the 1944 production goals for Haywood county and pointed out how the farm borrowers could aid in the program.

Miss Margaret Fuller, also account FSA supervisor, serving both Haywood and Buncombe counties, discussed the family living expenses for 1944 and showed how they might be cut. She also stressed the importance of keeping record books.

Paul Laughrun, associate district FSA supervisor, spoke on "As We Face 1944", showing some of the things that the farmers might expect in the year. Howard Clapp, Haywood county farm agent, discussed the proper use of fertilizers.

Miss Margaret Fuller, also associate district FSA supervisor, outlined the hospitalization plans now available to the families under the FSA programs.

Thurman Davis, F. O. committeeman, presented a service flag to the group containing the names of the sons of the family now serving in the armed forces which included: Sgt. Howard Griffin, Canal Zone; Cpl. Ray Griffin, North Af-

Deputy Collector To Assist Public Filing Income Tax

A deputy collector will be assigned to assist taxpayers in filing income tax returns on the following dates: February 24 to March 8 to 5.

Taxpayers wishing advance filing their income taxes are urged to have their figures up to date to total income for 1943; amounts paid on 1942 income; total amounts withheld; and amounts paid for victory and income during 1943.

Most taxpayers can file return form 1040A for incomes up to $1,000, it was pointed out by the collector. If the taxpayer's income is over $3,000 he must use form 1040 and must have amount of income, expenses, taxes, payments to collector, amounts withheld, victory and income tax due for 1943, as well as the amount of 1942 income tax.

Taxpayers are warned to read carefully all instructions before filing to the deputy collector's office to make sure that all information needed is entered on the return.

The deputy will be at the post office on February 21, 22, 23; March 6 and 7.
