Methodists Here Observing Week Of Dedication

The Methodist congregations of Hazelwood, Lake Junaluska and Waynesville are holding joint services Wednesday, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week in observance of the Week of Dedication which is a movement throughout the Methodist church. The services are being held each evening in the Waynesville church at 8:00 o'clock.

The speaker for the Wednesday evening service was Judge Felix Alley. He used as his subject, "The Church at its Best in a World at its Worst." Rev. Miles McLean, pastor at Lake Junaluska, will be the speaker for Thursday evening. His subject will be, "The Secret Weapons of a Christian." On Friday evening Rev. D. H. Dennis, pastor of the Hazelwood Methodist church, will speak on the subject, "The Church and Its Source of Power."

Features of special music will be provided each evening. The Young People's Choir of the Waynesville church will be used Thursday evening and the Junaluska choir will sing Friday evening. The Week of Dedication will be brought to a close on Sunday, March 5, with a dedication service in every local congregation.

Red Cross Contest Being Sponsored By St. John's School

A contest is being sponsored by St. John's school for pupils and staff members participating in the 1944 Red Cross War Fund Campaign. The contest opened February 29 and will end midnight, March 31.

A $25.00 war bond will be awarded as first prize by the school to the one making the largest contribution. The second and third prizes will be $10.00 and $5.00 in war stamps respectively.

Mrs. Marjorie Bumgarner of Bridgeton, N. J., has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bryson, of Waynesville. Upon her return this week she was accompanied by her sister-in-law, Paul Bryson, who plans to be in Bridgeton while her husband is serving overseas.

PATIENT CONFIDENCE

During his most trying and busiest days, Abraham Lincoln displayed the same qualities of patient confidence that are so necessary to the pharmacist today because accuracy is a prime factor, many prescriptions cannot be rushed. Special work is often involved in the preparation, and thus, if you are asked to wait you will do so willingly, rather than sacrifice the patient's safety for undue haste.

TOSS THEM OUT—the colds, fls, chills and discomforts brought about by inclement weather. Lick them before they have the chance to lay you low.
