February Call Report For Active Duty

Seventeen men left the Waynesville area during the past week in the February call under the selective service system. Sixteen of the men reported on Thursday, February 24, for the Navy recruiting station at Spartanburg, with William Sidney Prevost as leader.

Those entering the navy in addition to the leader were: Johnnie Thomas Messer, Ralph Lee Summerow, Wilson Rathbone, Edgar Joseph Walls, Benjamin Franklin Bridges, Julius Jackson Boyd, Herman Franklin Arrington, Julius Baxter Hoyle, John David Wyatt, Thomas Roger Walker, Alvin Justice, Samuel Stringfield Frady, Walter Carmel Hollingsworth, Earl Grady Russell and George Paul Cable, who was transferred from Bryson City.

William Lester Franklin left on Tuesday, February 22, for Fort Bragg where he entered the U. S. Army.

zation, both at home, on battlefields, and with war prisoners. He stressed the part which the Red Cross is playing in saving lives of men in service, and reported that already more than 800 Red Cross workers had been killed in the war, due to the fact that they worked so close to the front lines.

The meeting was in charge of M. R. Williamson, chapter chairman, who recognized other officers and chairmen of the various committees who made brief reports on the work during the past month.

Home On Furlough Local Draft Board Reclassifies 172 Men Past Week

SPURGEON C. SHELTON, seaman first class, is spending a 14-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Shelton, at their home on Waynesville, R. F. D. No. 2.

Seaman Shelton has recently completed his boot training at the Great Lakes Naval Training Center. Before entering the service he was employed as a truck driver.

Rosemary Herman Winner State DAR Pilgrimage Award

nesville high school student has won first place in addition to two other students who have been awarded second place, with honorable mention.

The selection for local winner is based on leadership, scholarship, character and contribution to community service. In the state contest the local winners submit a scrapbook of their four years in high school. Two sets of judges make the award, the first group selecting the 12 best and the second judges selecting the best and second best.

The local winners are selected by the faculty and students of their high school and sponsored by the local DAR Chapter. Miss Herman has made an outstanding record in high school. She has held several offices. She was a member of the Journalism Club, was feature writer and columnist for "Hi-Lif" for 1941-42 and is associate editor for the 1943-44 annual. She is a member of the Merrie Jesters Dramatic club and is either in the cast or on stage crew in such production.

Miss Herman was sent by the local American Legion Auxiliary to the 1943 Tar Heel Girls' State which was held in Greensboro. She was the winner of the 1943 reading contest held annually by the Woman's Club, and in the 1943 superlatives was rated the most dignified, most sincere and most studious. She has served as president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship and has been a delegate to the Senior Assemblies of the Young People's Leadership conferences at Lake Junaluska.

Miss Herman, along with the other chapter winners was a special guest last night at the Pages Ball given at the Sir Walter Raleigh Hotel.

Food Dealers Hear OPA Man Explain Price Regulations

went to 49 cents, and now ranges from 30 to 35 cents. At least half is being saved on flour," he continued.

Approximately $400 to $500 has already been saved for each family due to price control, he said.

The ceiling prices for the area are arrived at by OPA by taking the prices of wholesalers in the territory and allowing the fair mark-up to the retailer, it was explained.

The new price list, effective March 6th, has been mailed to all grocers, and these lists together with others must be posted in full view of the buying public, the OPA official reminded his audience.

In explaining prices on meats, Mr. Cutlip went into detail explaining the necessary procedure for handling all grades and types of meats in the price control setup.

The speaker was introduced by W. A. Bradley, member of the price control panel here.

Mrs. Liner Talks At Rotary Club

Mrs. Joe Liner, secretary of home service of the Red Cross here, was the speaker at the Rotary Club here Friday.

She told of the various phases of work which her post now requires, and of the hundreds of cases, especially service men that are being helped.

She was presented to the club by M. R. Williamson, chairman of the local Red Cross Chapter.
