Joseph Howell Society CAR Holds March Meet At "Windover"

The Joseph Howell Society of Children of the American Revolution met on Friday afternoon with the senior president, Mrs. J. Harden Howell at "Windover." The St. Patrick's motif was noted in the appointments.

The program was given on the Magazine of the CAR with the following taking part: Marguerite Way read "Notes from the editor's Desk"; Ida Lou Gibson, "The national president's message"; Betsy Siler, "What the CAR are doing in the Red Cross"; Jane Wyche, "The CAR Jeep"; Lucile Brown, "Greetings from Aunt Helen."

The registrar, Marguerite Way, stated that the papers of three new members had been accepted, Ida Lou Gibson, Nancy Prevost and Virginia Fairfax Smathers.

A letter was read from the State Orthopedic hospital thanking the chapter for the Dutch doll donated to the institution.

It was decided to make scrapbooks containing jokes and humorous selections for the patients at Moore General Hospital.

Announcement was made that an Easter Egg hunt would be enjoyed at Windover for both the junior and senior groups at the next meeting.

The members were glad to welcome Miss Sara Louise Leatherwood, a member of the chapter, to her first meeting with the group. Special guests were Norma Jean and Peggy Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Roush, of Dayton, Ohio, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roush at their home in Hazelwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Curtis Russ and daughter, Marguerite Russ, spent the week-end in Hendersonville with relatives.
