

Operators Pledge To Fight Black Market

The following pledge is being signed by all service station operators of North Carolina in an effort to break the gasoline black market.

At a recent meeting held here by OPA directors, this pledge was given to all operators to sign:

"No black market gasoline shall pass through my filling station; therefore, in handling gasoline rationing coupons, I pledge my government that I will:

1. Always ask for rationing book before delivering gasoline.
2. Always be sure correct Ration Sticker is properly displayed on the vehicle.
3. Always be sure the vehicle is the same as described on the ration book cover.
4. Always detach coupons from the book.
5. Always see that coupons are endorsed as follows: A, B, C, D, and T coupons (except those issued to fleets) must show on front of coupons: (1) Vehicle license number and state of registration, B, C, D and T coupons issued to fleets must show on front of coupons: (1) Name and address of fleet operator showing state and town (or) (2) Certificate of War Necessity number and state and town (or) (3) License number of vehicle and state. E and R Coupons must show on front: (1) Name and address of ration holder plainly written.
6. Always, as soon as possible, place coupons on gummed sheets and complete information requested on face of sheet; name and address. Date gummed sheet as of date transferred to distributor.

7. Always safeguard my coupons as I do my money.
8. Never deliver gasoline unless there are enough coupons for current period to cover purchase.
9. Never deliver gasoline unless the coupons are properly endorsed on the face by purchaser.
10. Never accept loose coupons.
11. Never remove coupons once they have been placed on a gummed sheet.
12. Never be a party to any black market transactions.

S/Sgt. Samuel J. Liner Back From New Guinea

Staff Sergeant Samuel J. Liner, who recently returned from New Guinea, where he had been stationed for the past 26 months, has been sent to St. Petersburg, Fla. He is now attending a training school.

Before going to Florida he spent a 23-day furlough here with his wife, the former Miss Helen Rushing, of Hazelwood, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam P. Liner, of Ratcliff Cove.

Hubert C. Pless Is Now At Maxwell Field

Hubert C. Pless, of Chestnut Park Drive, Waynesville, is now enrolled as an aviation cadet in the pre-flight school at Maxwell Field, Ala., an installation of the Army Air Forces Training Command. He is receiving nine weeks of intensive military, physical and academic training.

At Fort Bragg

PVT. CECIL V. BURNETT, son of Mrs. Undine Burnett, of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 2, is now stationed at Fort Bragg. He entered the service in February of this year and was inducted at Fort Bragg. From Bragg he was transferred to Camp Devens, Mass., and then back to Fort Bragg for his basic training.

Prior to entering the service he was employed in Gastonia. Pvt. Burnett is anxious to hear from his friends in Haywood county.

Pvt. James R. Roberson Trains For Invasion

Private James R. Roberson, of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 1 and S. Sgt. Ralph C. Hughes, of Clyde, R.F.D. No. 1, are among the thousands of American infantry troops, many of whom are veterans of the Mediterranean fighting, have been in England undergoing most rigorous training in army history getting ready for the Allied invasion of the continent, according to Headquarters of the European war theater.

It was of these men of whom Lt. Gen. Lesley J. McNair, commander U. S. Ground Forces, spoke when he said: "The foot soldier today must be far more than merely robust and durable. He must be keen and alert to master the intricacies of some 15 weapons. He must be inherently ingenious, resourceful and self reliant, for not since the Indian wars has the individual soldier been so much on his own. He must have intelligence, initiative and cunning, because he faces the craftiest of foes."

Haywood Brothers Meet In England

Private Herbert Tate and Private Wallace Tate, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Tate, of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 1, recently met in England. This was the first time they had seen each other in almost four years.

Pvt. Wallace Tate has been overseas for the past 13 months, having been stationed for the greater time in North Africa. Prior to being sent to England he also served in Italy and Sicily war theaters.

Pvt. Herbert Tate has been overseas for the past six months. Mr. and Mrs. Tate also have another son, Harley Tate, G/M

Lt. Hobart Hyatt Here On Short Leave

Lt. Hobart Hyatt, who is stationed at Fort Jackson, spent a short leave here during the week with his mother, Mrs. Marion Hyatt Worsham, of Chattanooga, who came here to meet her son.

Lt. Hyatt entered the service on Nov. 10, 1941 and was inducted at Fort Bragg. He has been stationed since then at camps in Maryland, Virginia, Massachusetts, Oklahoma, North Carolina, Texas and Missouri, and was on maneuvers in Louisiana.

He is serving in the artillery and attached to an observation battalion.

Just what is a Jeffersonian democrat? No one has ever seen two alike. Second class, who has recently recovered from an operation. He is now in North Africa and has been overseas for the past 14 months.
