

Funeral Services For Miss Herren Held Thursday

Funeral services were conducted Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church for Miss Jessie Herren, 72, who died suddenly from a heart attack at her home on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock. The Rev. H. G. Hammett, pastor, officiated. Burial was in Green Hill cemetery.

Serving as active pallbearers were: Theodore McCracken, Roy Martin, J. R. Morgan, Dr. John H. Smathers, J. C. Patrick, and Earl Messer.

Honorary pallbearers were: W. C. Allen, J. C. Brown, J. T. Bridges, R. B. Davenport, R. T. Messer, Hugh Massie, R. B. Pearce, Alden Howell, T. L. Green, W. C. Russ, W. H. Burgin, Emmett Balentine, Marion Bridges, Dr. Sam Stringfield, Zack Massey, and Ben Bridges.

Miss Herren was the daughter of the late James Pinkney and Mary Jane Smathers Herren and was born at Turnpike, the home of her grandparents, on August 17, 1872. She has a wide family connection in this section of the state.

Miss Herren was a devout member of the First Baptist church and had been active for years in the work of the Sunday school and the various organizations. She formerly taught in the Waynesville schools, and was known and loved by a large circle of friends.

Surviving are one sister, Mrs. Lucile Herren Foy, with whom she resided; one brother, Duncan Herren, of Washington, D. C., and three nephews and four nieces.

A number of out-of-town relatives and friends attended the funeral services held here.

The Garrett Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
