

Miss Ellen Frances Campbell Becomes Bride of W. F. Freeman

Miss Ellen Frances Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Harriet Cogdell and the late David Crockett Campbell, of Waynesville, and William Franklin Freeman, of Wilkesboro, were married at 5:30 p.m. Friday afternoon, September 15, in the Fifth Avenue Methodist church in Wilmington.

The Rev. D. Barelliff, pastor, officiated at the ceremony. During the ceremony tall palms, vases of white gladioli and floor candles bearing countless lighted tapers made an effective background for the taking of the vows.

At the entrance of the bride party, Mrs. J. J. Fowler, organist, and Mrs. O. C. Durant, pianist, gave a program of wedding music. Mrs. Fowler played "Ave Maria" and Schubert's "Serenade," and Mrs. Durant sang "The March from Wagner's 'Lohengrin'" by Wagner was used for the processional and "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn for the recessional. During the ceremony "The Star" by Liszt was softly played.

The bride, who was given in marriage by C. F. Gaddy, superintendent of Rex Hospital, Raleigh, wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, with long sleeves ending in points at the hand, with the full skirt falling in a long train. Her hair was styled in a coronet modeled with soft curls and seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book to which was attached an orchid corsage with tuberoses and ferns, and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Margaret Greene, of Raleigh, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of blue with full skirt, modeled with a V-neckline and fitted bodice. She carried an orchid corsage of red roses and white orchids, and in her hair she wore a white-colored plume to which was attached a shoulder length veil.

The bridegroom had as his best man Edwin N. Snipes, of Wilmington. Serving as ushers were R. L. Hinkle and James Butler, of Wilmington.

Mrs. Freeman is a graduate of Waynesville Township high school and Rex Hospital School of Nursing, Raleigh. At the time of her marriage she held the position of superintendent of the James Walker Memorial Hospital, Wilmington.

The bridegroom is the son of

Mrs. Quinlan and Miss Lois Harrold Hostess To DAR

The October meeting of the Dorcas Bell Love Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held on Friday afternoon at Oak Park, with Mrs. Chas. E. Quinlan and Miss Lois Harrold as joint hostesses. Mrs. W. F. Swift, regent, presided.

Mrs. T. Lenoir Gwyn had the paper of the afternoon, the subject "Postwar Planning." Mrs. Gwyn referred to the necessity of centralization of government in times of emergency in the opening of her paper and then outlined the various problems that face both the nation and the community in the readjustment period which will follow peace.

Mrs. Bonner Ray, Haywood county chairman of the women's division of the war finance committee, spoke to the chapter, setting forth the idea of the pin money bond. She asked that the regent name a chairman to be in charge of the distribution of stamp books which would later be converted into bonds.

Mrs. W. A. Hyatt asked that the chapter call the attention of the county officials to the need of having the county flags in the courthouse dry cleaned. Mrs. Jimmy Boyd, chapter Red Cross chairman, urged the members to keep account of their hours and attend the Monday afternoon period in the surgical dressings rooms.

Plans were discussed and it was decided to send a box to the sailor on the ship sponsored by the National DAR Society, which has been assigned to the chapter.

A rising vote of recognition was given to Mrs. S. H. Bushnell, former regent, who was named district director at the recent meeting held in Hendersonville. Mrs. Jimmy Boyd, district secretary, was also recognized.

Mrs. Bushnell gave an interesting report of the district meeting, stating that the local chapter was well represented with 11 members and two pages from the CAR. She told of the various officials present and the reports. Mrs. Swift asked that the various chairmen and officers of the chapter give their reports.

A social hour followed adjournment. Special guests were Miss Margaret Johnston, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. F. H. Marley and Mrs. Bonner Ray.

Lumber Jacket Line

Two-tone wool dress. By VERA WINSTON

THERE'S A hint of the lumber jacket line in the silhouette of this two-tone wool dress. The top which is of dusty pink is collarless, and the sleeves have turned-back cuffs of black. The skirt is slim and closes in back, but suggests a front placket by the three-button panel trim. Shaped tucks mold the waistline of this pretty and useful little frock.

Now women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic pains. Here's how it may help:

1. Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2. Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.

By Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.
