

Capacity Number Attend Fellowship Dinner At First Methodist Church

Program Varied With Reports, gifts, Election of Officers and Tribute to the Armed Forces.

Presiding

BISHOP CLARK PURCELL of the Methodist church, who is presiding over the annual conference of the Western North Carolina Methodists which is in session in Charlotte this week.

The members of the First Methodist church held their annual church conference Fellowship Dinner last Wednesday evening, with the pastor, the Rev. J. Clay Madison, presiding. The invocation was given by Rev. R. B. Templeton, retired Methodist minister, now residing at Lake Junaluska.

Following the dinner the election of officers for the coming year and annual reports were presented. Group singing was led by Mrs. Fred Martin, with Mrs. W. L. Matney serving as accompanist. Special numbers were given by the children of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Calhoun.

The new members of the church, joining during the past year, were recognized and introduced by the pastor. Hugh Massie, chairman of the board of stewards, gave the annual report, in which he stated that there was a substantial balance left over in the treasury to start the coming year, and that all obligations had been met in full.

A highlight of the evening was the announcement of the presentation of carillon bells jointly by S. C. Satterthwaite, Jr., in memory of his father, and to honor his mother, and by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Massie, in memory of their son, the late Frank Massie. Mrs. Satterthwaite, of Waynesville and Atlanta, was present and introduced to the gathering. The bells will be installed during the next few weeks. Appreciation was expressed by the pastor for the gift which will add to the ministry of the church.

J. H. Woody spoke on "Our Financial Goals for the Coming Year." During the evening a special part of the program was dedicated to the men and women from the church who are serving in the armed forces, with special tribute paid to those who had made the supreme sacrifice.

The following were elected to serve the church during the coming year: Trustees, for one year, Hugh Sloan, Dr. Tom Stringfield, and J. M. Long; two years, Grover Davis, E. J. Hyatt, and J. R. Boyd; three years, J. E. Massie, Dr. S. L. Stringfield, and E. B. McClure.

Board of Stewards: J. E. Barr, R. H. Blackwell, M. H. Bowles, J. R. Boyd, T. O. Chafin, Henry Gaddy, J. H. Howell, E. J. Hyatt, Hugh Massie, T. G. Massie, E. B. McClure, Roy Parkman, W. R. Ratcliff, Claude Rogers, C. N. Sisk, Ben Sloan, G. D. Stovall, Dr. S. L. Stringfield, Dr. Thomas Stringfield, Jr., R. C. Tuttle, A. T. Ward, C. E. Weatherby, E. L. Withers, J. H. Woody.

Hugh Massie was elected district steward; Ben Sloan, alternate district steward; Mrs. J. K. Boone and Mrs. M. H. Bowles, communion stewards; Alvin Ward, treasurer.

M. H. Bowles was elected superintendent of the Sunday school. Others to serve with him are: Roy Parkman, assistant superintendent;

Methodists Hold Annual Conference In Charlotte Today

Rev. W. L. Hutchins, Rev. Madison and J. R. Boyd From Here Attending.

Rev. W. L. Hutchins and Rev. J. Clay Madison are attending the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist church which is in session in Charlotte this week. Bishop Clark Purcell is presiding over the conference.

J. R. Boyd is also attending as a delegate from the First Methodist church here.

Rev. Hutchins, who has served the time limit as superintendent of the Waynesville district, will be sent to some other post, but it was expected that Rev. Madison who has served the local church for the past two years would be returned.

The appointments of the changes of the pastors for the coming year will be announced on Friday. Rev. Madison is expected to be back here in time for the morning service in his church.

heart who is in the service to be in the picture are asked to leave the photograph or snap shot at the box office of the theatre or the office of Mr. Massie on the second floor of the theatre. The dates for leaving the pictures are from Saturday, October 21st, through November 4th.

In leaving the pictures, which are to be incorporated into a patriotic theme, the name and rank of the person in service is wanted by Mr. Massie.

The pictures will be sent to the laboratories to be reproduced on film with music and sound and then starting on November 22-23-24th the first group of the pictures will be shown at the Park Theatre, and the program will be followed through thereafter every Wednesday, Thursday and Friday until all the pictures have been shown.

The pictures are not an advertising medium and there is no commercial connection to the program as far as the public is concerned, it was pointed out by Mr. Massie.

Every one who has relatives in the service are asked to submit a photograph so that when the parade of Haywood county men and women in the service is shown on patriotic occasions in the future years, there will be no one left out, it was explained by Mr. Massie.

The photographs will be returned after the film has been made.
