

Mildred McDonald Is Engaged To Lt. A. L. Purches

Mr. and Mrs. Monroe McDonald of Forest City, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Mildred Martha McDonald to Lt. Douthit Lawrence Purches, U. S. Army, of Winston-Salem. The marriage will take place on November 18 at the Pleasant Grove Methodist Church in Forest City.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the Rutherfordton-Spindale high school and East Carolina Teachers College. At present she is the associate F.S.A. supervisor for Buncombe and Haywood counties. Miss McDonald spends one week in Waynesville and the next week in Asheville, dividing her time with the F.S.A. offices in the counties.

Lt. Purches is the son of Luke Marshall Purches and the late Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Douthit Purches, of Winston-Salem. He is a graduate of the Farmington high school, Mars Hill Junior College and the University of North Carolina. He entered the service in May, 1942 and took his basic training at Camp Wheeler, Ga. He attended officers candidate school at Edgewood Arsenal, Md., and received his commission there in April, 1943. He is attached to the chemical warfare service of the U. S. Army and is now stationed at Pine Bluff Arsenal, Ark. At the time he entered the service he was manager of the Retail Credit Unit in Wilmington.

Mrs. R. L. Turpin left Thursday for Newport News, Va., where she will join her husband, R. L. Turpin, seaman second class, U. S. Navy, stationed at Camp Peary, Va., for a visit. She will also be the guest of friends while in Virginia.

A hypocrite will fawn on you while an honest old friend will yawn on you.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.
