

Mildred McDonald Becomes Bride of Lt. Douthit Lawrence Furches

Miss Mildred Martha McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe McDonald of Forest City, was married to Lt. Douthit Lawrence Furches, United States Army, son of Lake Marshall Furches and the late Mrs. Furches of Winston-Salem, in a ceremony November 18 at 6 o'clock at the Pleasant Grove Methodist church, Forest City.

The Rev. James Ray, pastor of the First Baptist church of Spinale, officiated. The altar of the church was decorated with arrangements of white chrysanthemums and white snapdragons interspersed with candles holding white tapers. A program of wedding music was presented on the church chimes. The traditional wedding marches were played as the processional and recessional, and prior to the ceremony "Largo" and "Traumerer" were played. "O Promise Me" was played during the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, William Howard McDonald, of Tryon, wore a gown of white satin made with sweetheart neckline, bracelet length sleeves and full skirt of net. She wore a string of pearls, a family heirloom, and carried a white prayer book topped with an orchid. Her finger-tip veil was attached to a coronet of net caught at either side with seed pearls.

Sisters Are Attendants
Mrs. Loy Arthur Nash of Durham was her sister's matron of honor, and Mrs. Charles Douglas Crawford, of Forest City, also a sister of the bride, was junior matron of honor. They were identical dresses of royal blue brocaded taffeta made with basque waists, full skirts, short sleeves and sweetheart necklines. They carried arm bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums tied with yellow satin ribbons and wore yellow chrysanthemums in their hair.

Sybil McDonald, of Forest City, bridesmaid. She wore a yellow taffeta gown made like the dresses worn by the other attendants and carried blue forget-me-nots tied with blue ribbon. She wore a bow of matching ribbon in her hair.

Frank Furches of Winston-Salem, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Billy Andrew McDonald, of Forest City, brother of the bride, served as usher.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the Rutherfordton Country club. The bride table was centered with an arrangement of white snapdragons flanked by white tapers in silver holders. A three-tiered wedding cake was cut by the bride and bridegroom.

Mrs. McDonald, mother of the bride, wore blue crepe with matching hat and veil and a corsage of gardenias.

Take Wedding Trip
Following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans. For traveling the bride wore a black wool jersey two-piece dress with an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Furches is a graduate of Eastern Carolina Teachers College and since graduation has been home management supervisor for the Farm Security administration in Haywood county.

Lt. Furches was graduated from Mars Hill junior college and the University of North Carolina. He is now stationed at Pine Bluff Arsenal, Pine Bluff, Ark., where the couple will reside.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Furches, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mrs. Henry Furches, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Miss Martha Furches, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs.

Waynesville Girl Is Married At Berea College

The marriage of Miss Katherine Leatherwood, of Waynesville, and Delmas Bryson Pennington, of Ashland, Ky., took place Wednesday afternoon, November 22, at 4 o'clock in the Danforth Chapel at Berea College, Berea, Ky. The Rev. O. B. Mylum, pastor of the Berea Baptist church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Prior to the ceremony, a program of nuptial music was presented by Miss Carolyn Keener, organist, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, vocalists, who sang, "I Love You Truly" and "At Dawning." The organ numbers included, "Aria," by Handel, Schubert's "Ave Maria," and "Liebestraum," by Liszt. During the ceremony "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms" was played softly.

The bride was given in marriage by C. N. Shutt, member of the faculty and one of the deans of Berea College. She wore a gown of Duchess satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, full skirt and a sweetheart neckline. A string of pearls, a gift of the bride's mother, was the only ornament she wore. Her finger-tip veil of imported illusion was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of gardenias.

The bride was attended by a former college mate, Miss Jessie Bishop, of Berea College, who served as maid of honor. She wore an afternoon gown of lavender with full skirt and she carried an arm bouquet of chrysanthemums in mixed pastel shades.

The bridegroom had as his best man Leon Wesley, and serving as ushers were: Lewis McCord, and Oscar Davidson, all classmates at Berea College.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vance Leatherwood, of Waynesville. She is a graduate of the Waynesville Township high school and attended Berea College for two years.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Pennington, of Ashland, Ky. He was graduated from Berea College in October of this year, with a major in chemistry, and is now employed as junior chemist in the Ashland Oil Refinery in Ashland, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Pennington will make their home at 2578 Kirk Street, Ashland.

Immediately following the ceremony, Miss Grace Leatherwood, sister of the bride, Miss Imogene Thomas and Miss Beuna Bailey the latter two college mates of the bride, entertained the wedding guests with an informal reception in the Fireside room of Danforth chapel, Berea College.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Hazel Leatherwood and Miss Grace Leatherwood, sisters of the bride, from Waynesville, and Leon Rumley, niece of the bridegroom, all of Winston-Salem; Miss Elizabeth Copeland, of Edenton; Mrs. John R. Faison, Miss Rosa Low and Mrs. Alverta Bolick, all of Asheville; Mrs. J. C. Rose and Miss Frances Rose of Waynesville; Sgt. Dallas H. Robinson of Fort Jackson, S. C.; Miss Elizabeth Moore, of Greenville, S. C., cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nash of Durham, brother-in-law and sister of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald of Tryon, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.
