

Mountaineers End Season By Licking Canton, 33 to 0

The Waynesville Mountaineers completed a very successful football season Thanksgiving afternoon by defeating the Canton Black Bears on their own ground, 33 to 0. The usual large crowd was on hand for the annual grid classic. The Mountaineers had rolled over the Bears earlier in the season to the tune of 27 to 0 on the local field, and were favored to win the Turkey Day affair by both Waynesville and Cantonites. Waynesville scored early in the first quarter and almost at random thereafter, with the Black Bears never reaching anywhere near pay dirt. Coach Charlie Poindexter's squad were in there fighting the whole way but were not able to crack the defense of the locals. Despite prevailing conditions,

First, First, And Another First

Alvina Klemm of St. John's "Rangerettes", played first string basketball against Fines Creek Monday, November 21, in the first basketball game she ever saw, four weeks after she had first touched a basketball in her life. Alvina, 16, a junior at St. John's high school, played through the entire game against the Fines Creek high school.

The Mountaineers produced one of the best teams in a number of years under the direction of Coach Carlton Weatherby, and came through the season with only one defeat, and that the opening game with Asheville high. Local sports fans are well pleased with the results of the local eleven for the 1944 season, and their only regret is that the season ended only too soon.

7 Haywood Beer Dealers Have License Revoked

(Continued from page one)

selling wine and beer to minors, was fined $100 and the costs of the court, and his license taken away for two years. He was ordered to sell his stock within five days after the trial.

Felix Stovall, operator of the American Fruit Stand, whose place was charged with being a public nuisance and for selling wine and beer to minors was fined $400 and the costs of the action and license suspended for three years.

The Taxi Stand, charged with being a public nuisance, was ordered padlocked, and Pruet Williams, operator was ordered to pay costs, and not to work anywhere that beer and wine were sold for a period of twelve months. The building was ordered to be used for other purposes.

In the case of the state against Earl Scruggs, operator, Junior Scates and Clinton Truitt, Scruggs was ordered to pay the costs and a fine of $100 and his license suspended for two years. The Tap Room which he operated was charged with being a public nuisance. Stock was to be disposed of in five days.

Glenn Moore, operator of a wine and beer place in Canton, was fined $500 and costs, license suspended for 5 years, place of business to be closed and 18 months term suspended sentence during good behavior.

Leo Sansome, for operating a wine and beer establishment, charged with being a public nuisance and selling wine and beer to minors, was fined $50 and the costs and license suspended for two years.

Mrs. and Mrs. Clyde Green of Hazelwood, who sold wine and beer, their place being charged with being a public nuisance, were ordered to pay the costs of the court, $100, license suspended for three years, and stock ordered to be sold in five days.

Other judgments handed down were as follows:

Ralph Long, charged with non-support, was given two years on the roads.

In the case of the State against John Way McCracken, charged with non-support the defendant was given four months on the roads.

Howard Warren, for driving drunk, was given 90 days in jail.

Arley Lee Hopkins, charged with driving drunk, was fined $50 and the costs and his license revoked.

Cleveland Cosby, for driving drunk and assault with a deadly weapon, was fined $50 and given a suspended sentence of six months.

John M. Caldwell, charged with driving drunk, was fined $500 and the costs and given a three years suspended sentence.

Frank H. Williams, charged with driving drunk, was given six months in jail.

The $100 bond made by Wiley Burress, charged with driving drunk, who did not appear at the court, was confiscated and forfeited and ordered to be turned over to the school fund.

The bond totaling $100 made by Finton Bell, charged with driving while intoxicated, who did not appear in court, was also forfeited and confiscated, and ordered turned over to the school fund.

Glenn Trull, charged with assault with a deadly weapon was fined $100 and the costs of the action.

Raleigh Mills, charged with driving drunk, was fined $50 and the costs.

Ted Sutton, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was ordered to pay the costs.

David Cook, charged with forceful trespassing, was ordered to pay the costs and $10.00 to Floyd Caldwell.

Harley A. Williams, charged with driving drunk, was ordered to pay $50 and the costs.

Clinton B. Medford, charged with driving drunk, was ordered to pay $50 and the costs.

James Massie was given a suspended sentence of three years and ordered to support his wife and child and not to handle beer or wine, and to pay the costs of the action.

Harold F. Stamey, charged with driving drunk, was fined $50 and the costs.

Julia Trull, charged with violation of the prohibition law, was given a suspended sentence of three years, fined $50 and the costs.

Nell Coffey, for violation of the prohibition law, was given a three years suspended sentence, ordered to pay $50 and the costs.

Elwood Haney, who had been placed on probation in November, 1939 for a five year period was released and discharged from probation.

Ray Clontz, who had been placed on probation in 1939, was given final discharge.

John Gates Morgan, charged with driving drunk was given a four months jail sentence and ordered to be put to work under supervision of the State Highway and Public Works Commission.

Marion Decabe Henson, charged with forgery was ordered to be out of the state by 5 o'clock p. m. on November 22.

Fred Page, charged for forcible trespassing, given 12 months with four months to take effect immediately and a five years suspended

Death Claims Comdr. Haviland In Naval Hospital

Pioneer Flyer With Distinguished Military Record To Be Buried In Arlington

Commander Willis Bradley Haviland, 55, USNR, whose military record extended through both World War I and II, died Tuesday at the U. S. Naval Hospital at Corona, Calif., according to information received by relatives here.

His wife, the former Miss Lucille Satterthwaite, daughter of Mrs. S. C. Satterthwaite and the late Mr. Satterthwaite, of Waynesville and Atlanta, was with him at the time of his passing.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed but will be held sometime next week with full military honors in Arlington National cemetery.

Commander Haviland, a native of St. Paul, was recalled to active duty in May, 1942, and was sent to the Naval Air Station, Whidbey Island, Wash., where he served in the successive capacities of executive officer and commanding officer. He had been ordered to Pearl Harbor, at the time of his illness, where he was to be put in command of the naval air base.

Commander Haviland's distinguished record includes a tour of duty with the French Foreign Legion and the famed Escadrille Lafayette. His naval career with this country placed him at posts of commanding officer of a naval air station in Italy and as air officer aboard the U. S. S. Texas and the U. S. S. Oklahoma.

Survivor gave his widow, one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Seaman, of New York, and his mother, Mrs. Grace King Haviland, of St. Paul, Minn., and San Francisco, Calif.

Daily Reading Of Bible Being Carried Out Now

A national campaign is being sponsored by the American Bible Society, and promoted throughout every community by churches of all denominations, for daily reading of the Bible.

A special committee selected a special passage to be read daily throughout the world, with men in service participating in large numbers.

The passages for the week, starting today are:

Thursday	Psalm	91
Friday	Matthew	6
Saturday	John	3
Sunday, December 3	Isiah	40
Monday	Psalm	46
Tuesday	Romans	12
Wednesday	Hebrews	11
Thursday	Matthew	7

Wiley Burress charged with driving drunk, was fined $50 and the costs of action.

Bonnie Caldwell, charged with abandonment, was given a mistrial and her two children placed in the custody of juvenile court for such distribution as was necessary.

Low Lewis, for abandonment, was ordered to pay $20 per month to the court for use of minor children, the first payment to be made on or before Dec. 1, and hereafter on the first of each month, the amount to be raised or lowered for the benefit of the children.

Wade Palmer, charged with driving drunk, was ordered to pay costs of court and a $50 fine.

Douglas Rathbone, charged with driving drunk, was ordered to pay costs and a fine of $100.

David Morris, for operating a slot machine, was fined $100 and costs and ordered not to possess or operate a slot machine.

Floyd Fie, charged with resisting an officer, was given a suspended sentence of five years, provided he would follow steady employment and pay the costs of the court at $5.00 per month.

Duck Grasty, for violation of the prohibition law, was fined $100 and the costs and ordered to be out of the state by noon, Nov. 29.

In Memoriam

In memory of little Hail Sorrells, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. James Sorrells, who died November 23.

God took him away, little Hail is not dead, he is only sleeping, but oh how we will miss him. There is a vacant place in the home but Hail is watching for mother and dad to come and embrace him in their arms again one day.

A Friend,
Mrs. Rube Moody.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their kindness shown us at the time of the death of our small son, Harrell E. Sorrells, Mr. and Mrs. James Sorrells.

LOST—Having lost hub cap from 1942 Buick, between Haywood County Hospital and Canton, will pay retail price for return of same, or one like it. Dr. Robert H. Owen, Canton. Nov. 30

William R. McClure Cends 30-Days Leave

William Robert McClure, C.M. 3/c, left this week for San Francisco, Calif., for his new assignment, after spending a thirty-day leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McClure.

He entered the service as a volunteer in July, 1943 while a student at the Waynesville Township high school, receiving his diploma later. He was given his boot training at Great Lakes Naval Training Center and from there he was sent to California and assigned to sea duty. He has served 14 months in the South Pacific.

Why, certainly two can live on love—if love has a job.

WAYNESVILLE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Whitener Prevost, Superintendent of Sunday School.
Sunday School at 10:00 o'clock.
Morning Worship, 11:15 o'clock.
Sermon Subject: "GETTING READY FOR CHRISTMAS."
Pioneer boys and girls and Young People meet at 6:30 p. m.

IF YOU EXPECT BOY TROUBLES AT CHRISTMAS - - YOU CAN SOLVE THEM - -

Easily - - Practically At RAY'S

You can find here the merchandise illustrated here and hundreds of other items of the kind that boys need and want.

-Showing A Large-Selection-

Not just a few things — but a large assortment of good quality — smartly styled garments — the kind of things they would buy for themselves — and which they will wear with pleasure at school—college and anywhere else.

Boys' Sheepskin Lined Coat As Illustrated $11.50

Boys Wool MACKINAW

7.95 up $4.95 up

-Boys' Wool Dress Sport Coats-

Coats as illustrated to the left $14.95 up To wear with slack trousers which we also have.

Sweaters Galore We especially invite you to see our sweaters.

—All Sizes and Types—

—Let Us Help With Your Christmas Problems—

RAY'S Department Store

For Christmas Gifts THAT ENDURE and ENDEAR

BUY NOW ON OUR EASY PAYMENT PLAN

Fine jewelry is one of the most precious and long-lived products of the artist and craftsman. We have a plan that brings their beauty and durability within the reach of every one.

Newest Styles for Men & Women CHOICE 37.50

TERMS

$84.50 $110 $64.50

$29.50 $99 $24.50

UP TO A YEAR TO PAY - NO EXTRA COST

Again This Christmas

It's Easy To Pay the Reliable Way
Reliable Jewelers
"Credit With A Smile"
Expert Watch and Clock Repair
The Store of Service and Savings!