Pre-Yule Visitor

SANTA CLAUS made a pre-Yule visit to the Cheyenne, Wyoming, home of "Nubbins" Hoffman, who doctors say may die before Dec. 25. Looking out of window is Nubbins with his father, Marshall Hoffman, who is holding one of the many toys sent the stricken lad. Mrs. Hoffman can be seen standing in the background. (International)

Farm Questions and Answers

Question: Why is milk rated so high in our wartime diet?
Answer: Besides the good which milk supplies, there is also calcium, which is needed by both adults and children, says Mary E. Thomas, Extension nutritionist at State College. Calcium gives shape and firmness to bones and teeth. It helps muscles to contract and relax properly. It helps to keep the heart beat normal and the blood to coagulate. It acts as a body regulator.

Question: What are some of the questions the Census taker will ask us farmers in January?
Answer: For cattle, as an example, there are two questions. The first asks for "all cattle and calves"

Mountaineers To Meet Fines Creek Friday, There

The Waynesville Mountaineers finished their preparation for the opening cage game of the season and will meet Fines Creek in a twin engagement on the Fines Creek courts. The second game of the season will be on the local courts when they meet Sylva high in a double header.

The Mountaineers are expected to produce an average team this season, but with the limited number of letter men the team is practically new. The girls are more fortunate in that they have had the advantage of longer practice.

On Friday of next week the local cagers will tangle with St. John's Rangers and Rangerettes on the local court, two local teams.

on the farm as of January 1, 1945. This means cattle of all ages, including calves, bulls, steers, heifers, and cows. The second question asked for the number of cows and heifers, 2 years of age and older, that were reported in the total given in answer to the first question. There are also two questions on hogs. The first asks for "all hogs and pigs" of all kinds and ages on the farm on January 1. The second question asks for the number of sows and gilts for spring farrowing on the farm as of January 1.
