Federation Buys Waynesville Property

The Farmers Federation has acquired the buildings pictured above at Waynesville and plans are being made to install 400 freezer-lockers in the building, it has been announced by James G. K. McClure, president. The Federation warehouse already occupies one of the three buildings, which are situated at Depot and Commerce streets, and in the future will occupy portions of the other buildings. The freezer-locker plant will represent an investment of approximately $50,000 and work will be started as soon as War Production Board approval is received.

A/C James L. Milner At Independence Field

Aviation Cadet James L. Milner, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Milner of Waynesville, is enrolled in the class of cadets currently taking basic flight instruction at the Independence Army Air Field, Kan. The field is a basic pilot school of the AAF Central Flying Command which is a unit of the AAF Training Command.

A/C Milner has previously completed both the pre-flight and primary phases of the aviation cadet training program.

After a few weeks at his present post, he will move on to advanced training school. His record here will determine which of the two final stages of instruction, single engine, advanced for fighter pilots or twin engine advanced for bomber pilots, he is better adapted for training.

Rev. Joe Daniel To Preach In Haywood During Week-End. Rev. Joe Daniel, of East Marion, will preach at the Holy Church of Christ in Waynesville on Saturday night, Dec. 23. He will also preach at the Holiness Church at Cove Creek Sunday afternoon following Sunday school. The public is invited to attend all services.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENT. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Maynor of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 1, announce the birth of a daughter at their home on December 14th.

What the GI's In The Fourth Service Command Will Eat

From the headquarters of the Fourth Service Command the following Christmas menus have been released by the quartermaster:

Breakfast starts off with grapefruit, dry cereal, fresh milk, French toast, or plain toast, butter, sirup and coffee.

There'll be no need for supper, but the menu makers, it appears, figured the boys would be pretty well fed up by the time the evening meal rolls around, and they will get: vegetable soup, boiled frankfurters, boiled potatoes, left over vegetables, pickle relish, mustard, bread, butter and coffee.

But take a look at the Christmas dinner menu: roast turkey, sage dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, snowflake potatoes, candied sweet potatoes, green peas, asparagus, fresh fruit salad with mayonnaise, celery, pickles, olives, hot rolls, butter, hot mince pie, ice cream, candy, nuts, and coffee.

Sgt. Paul R. Shelton Serving Overseas

Sgt. Paul R. Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shelton, is now serving with the U. S. Armed forces in the Philippines. He has seen many months service in the South Pacific. Prior to entering the army two years ago he was engaged in farming in this county.

Sgt. Kendrick C. Caldwell In Training At Ardmore

Sgt. Kendrick C. Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis R. Caldwell of Waynesville, R.F.D. No. 2, has been assigned to the 2nd AAF flying field at Ardmore, Okla., where he is completing the final phase of training as gunner of a heavy bombardment unit, according to information received from headquarters of the field.

Sgt. Caldwell entered the service on November 7, 1940 and received army air gunnery training at Las Vegas Army Air Field, Las Vegas, Nev., and Tampa, Fla.

Before entering the service Sgt. Caldwell was a farmer in Haywood county.

How women and girls may get wanted relief from functional periodic pain

Cardui is a liquid medicine which many women say has brought relief from the cramp-like agony and nervous strain of functional periodic distress. Here's how it may help:

- 1 Taken like a tonic, it should stimulate appetite, aid digestion, thus help build resistance for the "time" to come.
2 Started 3 days before "your time", it should help relieve pain due to purely functional periodic causes.
Try Cardui. If it helps, you'll be glad you did.

Red Cross Surgical Dressings Rooms Closed Until 2nd

The surgical dressings rooms of the Haywood Chapter of the American Red Cross closed on Friday afternoon, December 15, and will remain closed until Tuesday, January 2nd, according to an announcement by Mrs. Ben Colkitt, chairman of this phase of the local Red Cross work.

When the rooms are reopened after the holidays, Mrs. Colkitt is urging the women to attend in larger numbers, due to the fact that there are still 6,000 four by four sponges of the October quota yet to be made.

Mrs. Colkitt stated that the work would have to be rushed since it was so far behind schedule. She is making a special appeal to the women of the community to answer this call for service.

BUT BONDS WILL HELP YOUR BOYS DO IT!

Your fighting men are paying back the Japs for Pearl Harbor, that "deed that will live in infamy." But it's a long way yet to Tokyo—where the final installment will be collected. We, at home, can't fight shoulder to shoulder with our boys. Yet we can help today by getting behind the 6th War Loan Drive with every dollar we can scrape together. This is every American's war. Buy an extra $100 Bond—and don't wait till you're asked. For we've a tough job ahead. Your Bonds prove that you haven't forgotten Pearl Harbor, Bataan and the thousands of other crimes against humanity by the Jap hordes. Your Bond is an installment on what it's going to cost us to crush the Japs in the long sea lanes of the Pacific—it's going to take more superfortresses at $600,000 each, more P-47 Thunderbolts at $50,000 each—more of every type of materiel. And remember, when you buy Bonds you are saving for your future and the future of your country. Don't put it off—buy that extra Bond today.
