

Canton Lions Sponsor Clinic 69 Examined

Sixty-nine children from twelve elementary schools in the Canton area of Haywood county were examined at the two day eye clinic held at Pennsylvania Avenue school Monday and Tuesday of this week. The clinic was sponsored jointly by the Canton Lions club and the N. C. State Commission for the Blind.

Seventeen children were fitted with glasses and eye surgery was recommended for eight others. W. J. "Bill" Stone, president of the Lions, stated that many of the real needy children were not reached, and due to this fact the club has already made plans to repeat the clinic next year.

Dr. Fleming, from Duke hospital, conducted the clinic with assistance of Miss Kaye Reid Johnson, N. C. medical social worker of Charlotte, Mrs. Fannie Sell, Haywood county health worker, and Mrs. Penny of the N. C. Commission for the Blind. Plans for the clinic were arranged by Floyd Robinson, chairman of the Canton Lions' committee on sight conservation and blind work.

Four Canton high students, Judy Patton, Vera Carter, Dorothy Helen Worley and Doris Leflar, did the clerical work and typing for the clinic.

Mr. Stone announced that when the prescribed glasses arrive the parents will have the privilege of paying for them, but if they are not able to do so the Lions club will. Mrs. Sell, with the aid of the Lions, will follow up all surgical cases and make recommendations to parents. The Lions also plan to give financial aid in these cases where needed.

Several cases of "squinny eyes" were called to the attention of parents, which could be corrected if they would see to it that the children wear their glasses at all times.

It is the purpose of all Lions clubs in this state to cooperate with the N. C. Commission for the Blind to the end that all children who need eye care will receive it, thereby improving their school work, saving their eyes and making happier children.
