A Friend Who Learned to Believe

HIGHLIGHTS ON THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL (The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for May 19 in John 11 7-16; 20:19-29, the Memory Verse being Mark 5:36, "Fear nut, only believe.")

WE KNOW very little about the disciple Thomas Except for these three episodes told us by John, we would hardly have heard of him, except that he was one of the

New Lazarus, and his sisters Mary and Martha, were warm friends of Jesus and their home was in Bethany Word was brought to Jesus from the sisters that Lazarus was sick. At the time He and His disciples were on the other side of Jordan, and He waited two days and then told His disciples. "Let us go into Judea

The disciples tried to dissuade Him, saying, "Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and Thou goest thither again?" His answer was rather puzzling, meaning probably, either that He would not die until His time came, or that He should take the opportunity when it came, by asking them if there were not 12 hours in the day "If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he secth the light of the world."

Then He said, "Our friend Lazaros sleepeth; but I go, that I may awake him from sleep." Not un-derstanding, the disciples answered. 'Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well." Jesus then told them plainly. "Lazarus is dead." He "And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe, nevertheless let us go unto him."

Thomas Would Go With Jesus

Then Thomas, who was called Didymus, a Greek name meaning a twin, said to the rest, "Let us also go, that we may die with Thomas may have accepted and become resigned to the fact that his Lord would probably die be with Him and die too. He was a legal and devoted friend.

tion of Jesus. The disciples were gathered together in a room with the door closed because they feared their Jewish enemies who had killed Jesus. All were present, that is, except Judas Iscariot, who had betrayed Him and later killed himself; and Thomas.

Suddenly Jesus appeared in their midst and said, "Peace be unto you." This, then, was confirmation of what had been told them, and which they wanted to believe, but hardly dared do so, that Jesus had risen from the

"And when He had so said. He shewed unto them His hands and His side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord," Glad seems an understatement, deesn't it, at such a time?

"Then said Jesus to them again Peace be unto you: as My Father hath sent Me, even so send I you. Then He breathed on them, and said, "Receive ye the Holy Ghost Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained."

Thomas Doubts

When the other disciples saw Themas and told him they had seen the Lord, he said. "Except l shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe." He probably wanted to believe, but his spirit doubted.

Eight days after this the disci ples were again behind closed doors, and Thomas was with them this time. "Then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto

"Then said He to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold My hands, and reach hither thy hand and thrust it into My side, and be not faithless, but believing.

"And Thomas answered, and said unto Him. My Lord and my God." How humble, yet how glad and grateful must be have been. And Jesus said unto him.

Thomas, because thou hast seen Me, thou hast believed blesse are they that have not seen, and vet have believed.

Blessed indeed are they who cannot see the wonders of the spirit, but have the faith and cour age to believe they really exist "Fear not, only believe," says our

Senate Group Plans Control For Radar

WASHINGTON-Senator James). Eastland (D.-Miss.), said here an effort may be made to broaden a pending atomic energy control bill to cover secrecy of other war weapons, such as radar,

Senator Eastland told reporters that a Senate Judiciary sub-committee which is studying proposed revisions in the Espionage Act will consider the question of trying to ombine secrecy controls in one measure. The pending atomic bill provides stiff penalties but its safeguards are directed entirely to atomic energy developments,

The group heard testimony behind closed doors May 6 from representatives of Westinghouse Electric, American Telephone and Telegraph and International Teleand Telegraph

Senator Eastland said the com mittee is studying the possibility that under present laws labora tory discoveries might be sold to foreign countries before they could be classified by the government as
