Carolyn Curtis Given Bridge Party Wednesday

Muted colors seem to lead the fashion parade this season for suits and frocks. The vivid flashes of color are reserved for accessories or by the use of costume jewelry.

Greys, beiges, soft shades of tan and frozen ice can be used as a perfect background for any number of costume changes by merely using different hats, blouses, shoes, gloves or scarfs.

close of the business session. Following adjournment a social hour will be observed.

J. M. Palmer is spending this week in Raleigh, where he is visiting his daughter and attending the North Carolina State Fair.

Miss Dorothy Richeson and Miss Betty Gene Alley were joint hostesses on Wednesday evening of a bridge party honoring Miss Carolyn Curtis, bride-elect whose marriage to Porter Frady will take place next Saturday afternoon. The affair was given at The Lodge. Fall flowers in a variety of shades were used to decorate the lounge. When the scores were totaled Mrs. Zeb Curtis, mother of the bride-elect, was found to hold the top score and Miss Catherine Jones was the winner of the low score prize. Miss Curtis was presented a piece of silver in her chosen pattern.

Those making up the three tables in play in addition to the honor guest and the hostesses were: Mrs. L. M. Richeson, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. William Hannah, Mrs. Paul McElroy, Mrs. L. M. Killian, Jr., Miss Betty Burgin, Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, and Miss Catherine Jones.

Rev. Walter B. West will preach at Hazelwood Sunday evening at 7:30.

Five Dead In Frankfort In Black Market Clash

FRANKFORT ON THE MAIN, Germany—Five persons died, one of a heart attack, during a noon gun battle today between police and black marketeers in the crowded market only a mile from Gen. Joseph T. McNarney's headquarters.

Two policemen, a bystander and one black marketeer were shot and killed in the fray. Another bystander dropped dead of a heart attack and a third policeman was wounded. The black marketeer shot and killed himself when police closed in on him.

The dead gunman, believed by police to be a Pole, was found to be carrying three pistols, half a dozen sets of identity papers, twenty-six rings, five watches and other pieces of jewelry. A companion, who was captured, said the pair had come from the British zone to trade jewelry for clothing.

Blankenship-Rodgers Vows Are Solemnized

Miss Kathaleen Blankenship, daughter of Mrs. Z. D. Blankenship and the late Mr. Blankenship became the bride of William Aiken Rodgers, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Gilbert Reeves on Monday morning, October 14th, at 10:30 o'clock. The vows were spoken at the parsonage of the First Methodist church with the Rev. Paul Townsend, pastor, officiating.

The bride wore a light blue wool suit with black accessories and her corsage was of white roses. She received her education in the Bryson City high school and the Waynesville Township high school. She holds a position with Massie's Department Store.

The mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom both wore navy blue tailored suits with corsages of talisman roses.

The bridegroom is a veteran of World War II, having served in the U. S. Navy. He entered the service in December, 1942, and took his boot training at Bambridge and from there was transferred to Richmond, Va., where he attended a Diesel school. He served for three years in the Pacific theater and was discharged in February of this year with the rating of MOM, first class.

Following the marriage the couple left for a wedding trip after which they will be at home at 1114 Richland street.

Japs Told To Avoid Worship Of General

TOKYO—The newspaper Jiji has admonished its readers against substituting Gen Douglas MacArthur for Emperor Hirohito as an object of reverence.

The liberal newspaper declared in an editorial that General MacArthur must be regarded as a representative and a symbol of democracy, not as a god.

Jiji's editorial took cognizance of the increasing adoration of General MacArthur by Japan's millions. "The Life of General MacArthur" is the leading best seller, sales topping 800,000 copies.

HERE'S WHY MOST MOTHERS DO THIS

When Children Catch Cold

Warming, soothing relief from distress of colds starts in a hurry when you rub on Vicks VapoRub at bedtime. Because VapoRub penetrates to upper bronchial tubes with its special medicinal vapors... and stimulates skin surfaces like a warming poultice. Then it works for hours to bring relief while the child sleeps! Try it tonight!

AT BEDTIME rub throat, chest and back with Vicks VapoRub. Its relief-bringing action starts instantly to relieve distress...

WORKS WHILE CHILD SLEEPS to bring relief during the night. Often by morning most misery of the cold is gone!
