Miss Killio

Has Progr

UDC Meet

Pryor-Queen Marriage Took Place At Milner-Revis Home of Bride's Parents Christmas

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Margaret Lois Snyder-Haynes Pryor, daughter of hir, and Mrs. William Allison Pryor of Bear Marriage Is Wallow to James Richard Queen of Asheville and Waynesville, son of Mr, and Mrs. Sam L. Queen of Waynesville, which took place on bride's parents. Only members of ent for the ceremony.

performed the ceremony. The vows pley at Lake Janaluska presented by Mrs Woody Pryor mg completed sister-in-law of the bride at the. The bride holds a position with studies. At W.C.T.C. she was a the taking of the vows. The tradi- tice tional wedding marches were played for the processional and the recessional with Schubert's "Ave wor, a dispositional of gray. We Revie it also a graduate of Maria" softly played during the wind and a sursaire of gardemas.

gown of white jersey, embroidered also of Ladouts-Clifford Ernest Brown, Jr., sister Avenue in Ashevalle sequins, similar to the bride's. They ford and Tarboro carried bouquets of white carnations tied with red ribbons.

Mr. Queen, was educated at tions tied with red ribbons.

Brevard College Duke University Meeting On 26th

brothers of the bride.

with a three tiered wedding cake. Administration

Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry W. Snyder of Christmas Day at the home of the Clyde have announced the marriage of their daughter. Miss Betty the immediate families were pres- Snyder to Van C. Haynes, son of Mr and Mrs J C Haynes, also The Rev. J. E. B. Houser, pastor of Clyde which took place at the ensemble with black accessories, of the Dellwood Methodist Church home of Rey and Mrs. J. E. Sams Per only ornament was a strand of Serving as attendan's were Miss altar banked with evergreens. The Ruby Thompson and Earl Rogers. Waynesville Township high school home was decorated throughout. The country will make their home and attended Blanton's Business with evergreens and Christian for the present with the parents of Colouge of Asheville She also at-A program of nuprial music was which is under construction is her Codege where she completed a piano. "Still as The Night." I the American Fuka Corporation member of the Woman's House Love You Truly", "Always" and and Mr Haynes is an interviewer Government and active in the Phy-"Because" were played prior to an the socal t S comployment of that concation department

The harten on a section were a tire The bride, who was given in black grope a co- inmined will i with gold thread. Her headdress. After the incorpling the religion Perriss Found was a crown of gold sequins. She left for a weather trap to Wash, Parith theater that was discharge carried a white Bible to which was angion and New York. For travel, and from the service on December Miss Jo Edna Pryor, sister of the chird corsado. I can their return (with he assumers at Bryson City bride, was maid of honor and Mrs. they will re-ric at 137 Linden.

of the bridegroom was matron of . Mrs. Queen was enablated from of the bridegroom was matron of the bridegroom was matron of the work was matron of the work was matron of the work was matron of the bridegroom was matron of th crepe, fashioned on the same path lege and for the past three years tern and wore headdresses of gold was director of perhapsion in Ox-

Sam L. Queen. Jr., brother of and was graduated from Western the bridegroom, was best man Carolina Teachers College, Ha-Ushers were Capt. David Pryor served for four years in the army the Unit Leadne was held on U. S. Army, and Woody Pryo. Air Corps, three of which were Thursday evening at the home of spent overseas. He held the rank of the president, Mrs. Rufus L. Allen, with colored lights overhead, Following the ceremony, a re- major at the time of his discharge. Christmas greens and flowers lend. Christmas trees around the side, ception was held by the bride's last year. At present he is employ- a decorative note to the living and a large. Welcome sign over the parents. The bridal table was cov- ed as a placement advisor in the dining rooms. Mrs. Aften presided stage, and table-fulls of toys and ered with a lace cloth and centered. Asheville, branch of the Veterans over the business session at which, refreshments. Clyde. Fisher was

HAYWOOD FLOOR SURFACING CO.

PLASTIC AND ASPHALT TILE Owned and Operated by

B. R. HUNDLEY

Phones 23 and 349-W

Box 134

WISHING YOU ---

A Happy and Prosperous NEW YEAR

> Leatherwood And Phillips ESSO SERVICE

Phone 9172

N. Main and Asheville Road

A Message From

The Gospel Book Room

The Gospel Book Room is a non-denominational religious book store, owned and operated by an ordained Baptist minister who, along with many other ministers and Christian workers, has for many years felt the great need of such a store in Haywood County.

The purpose and aim of the store is to supply the ever increasing demand for good books, Bibles, and Testaments, and to challenge the young people of our county to read clean and wholesome literature written by clean and wholesome

The policy of the store is to only handle the best in the way of Christian literature. By this we mean only that which is Sound and Unquestionable.

Is you are interested in this type of store please pay us a visit at your earliest convenience.

The Gospel Book Room

Phone 544-J

Over Chamber of Commerce

Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Milner, of Waynesville, have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Mildred Milner to William Marcell flevis, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Augusta, Ga. on Saturday, November the 2ml. For her marriage the the bridgeon while their bome berned Western Carolina Teachers the year course in commercial to sent the holds a position in the adver of the Dayton Rubber Mann

Has Christmas

time matters of local interest were master of ceremonies, and started

The need for rural policemen. was discussed and a motion made to ask the officials to take the problem up and see if this could not school zones was also discussed and mamerous toys were given the t was decided to ask that these youngsters present at the party. be marked for the benefit of the . After they had feasted on popmotorists and the school children, corn balls, apples and soft drinks, their support to the town officials the adults began square dancing to in their effort to enforce all traffic music played by the Carpenter laws, which it was brought out String Band, which lasted until have been abused in part. String Band, which lasted until have been abused in part.

Mrs. Leo Martel gave a report. A telegram from A, L. Freedof the activities of the Youth club lander, president of the company, and told of the aid given the group was read by James G. McKinley.

the meeds in the community gave a report of what the club had done; for the Waynesville plant, he said, tess invited the members into the cluded by wishing all the traditiondining room where coffee and al scason's greeting Christmas cakes and candies were served from an attractively arrang- one of the most enjoyable of any ed table bearing a centerpiece of O'Dayton's annual Yule parties, red flowers and Christmas greens, with other seasonal appointments. Florrie Patrick vesterday to his post at Fort Bliss, El Paso Tex. after spending the bolida's here with his wife at the home of his parents. Mr. and Mrs.

LATEST RECORDS

JOHNNY LONG Blue Skies

FRANK SINATRA Among My Souvenirs September Song

ANDREW SISTERS Coffee Song

A Rainy Night in Rio

Ob. But I De

HARRY JAMES Life Can Be So Beat liful

BING CROSBY It Could Happen To You

When You Make Love To Me

JULIS LEE Getta Givmme Whatcha Got

JONES RADIO SERVICE

Radios, Record Players and Guaranteed Repair Work

Waynesville, N. C.

Her Marriage Announced

on Saturday, October the 5th, was the former Miss Evelyn Moody daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Moody, of Waynesville. Mr. and Mrs.

Dayton Co. Families Enjoy Annual Holiday Party At Local Armory

Employes Have

Christmas Tree

arrnaged in quantities of Christ-

dies and nuts were served for the affair.

More than 600 employees and members of their families enjoyed Hospital the Christmas party given by Davton Rubber company at the Arm-

the entertainment with group singing, after which a young Knoxville veteran, Jack McKeenan, took over will a magic performance.

Tims was climaxed by the magibe remedied during the coming than producing a live Santa Claus The question of proper signs for tell playing with the children and

The members also voted to give the children were taken home and plant manager, expressing his ap-Mrs R. R. Campbell, chairman preciation to the employers for the Christmas cheer fund for their cooperation during the past as soon as material and equip-Following the meeting the hos- ment are available, and he con-

This was generally considered

Li ig J. H. Way, III, returned Entertain Scout Troop With Party

The Intermediate Girl Scout troop, of which Mrs. Harry Lee Liner, Jr., is leader, entertained with a Christmas party on Monday evening, with Florrie Patrick hostess of the affair, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C.

There was a short business session at the opening of the evening followed by the singing of Christmas carols, with Florrie Patrick serving as accompanist. A Scrambled Christmas word contest was held with Joan Ratcliff and Sally Stovall coming out as the winners, both receiving prizes.

The hostess served hot chocolate and sandwiches and each guest was presented with favors of gum and popcorn balls done up in Christmas trimmings.

Members of the troop include in addition to the hostess, Florrie Patrick, Charlotte Brown, Louise McBride, Joan Ratcliff, Sally Stovall, Aliene Parham, Linda Welch, Linda Sloan, Marcia Lance, Betty Sue Hill and Elizabeth Walker.

Betsy Lane Quinlan Red Cross Worker Here Last Week

Miss Betsy Lane Quinlan, recreational Red Cross worker who entered the service at the beginning of the war and is now stationed at the Naval hospital at Quantico, Va. spent several days here last week with her mother, Mrs. Charles E. Quinlan at Prospect Hill.

Miss Quinlan has an extensive record with the American Red Cross, having served in two theaters during the war. She spent a year with the Red Cross at a hospital in Iceland-and following a brief tour of duty in the state was sent to the Pacific theater where she also served one year, Miss Quinlan is the sister of Miss Mary Quinlan, also with the American Red Cross, who is eurrently serving in Germany in a supervisory position dealing with misplaced persons.

Moody-Rogers Marriage Is Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Moody, of Waynsville have announced the marriage of their granddaughter. Miss Evelyn Moody to Max O. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Rogers, of Clyde. The vows were solemnized in Clayton, Ga. on Oetober the 5th.

Mrs. Rogers is a graduate of the Vaynesville Township high school A. C. Lawrence Leather Company for the past three years,

Mr Rogers is a veteran of World Home Appliance Company The couple plan to make their home in Clyde.

Howard Hyatts Honor Guests Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hyatt were nosts of an informal at home on Saturday afternoon from 4:30 to 7:30 o'clock at their residence on the Balsam road in compliment to their guests. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Smith, of Baltimore. The residence was arranged in holly and Christ-

The punch table was centered with an arrangement of red tapers and holly. Assisting in serving was Mrs. Richard M. Howell, of Washington, D. C., sister of Mrs. Hyatt, who is spending a few days here.

Among those calling during the designated hours were: Mr. and Mrs. Sam H. Bushnell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Kimball Barber, Mr. and Mrs. James Harden Howell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kilpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Campbell, Jr., and Mrs. George M. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. William Ray, Miss Rosalyn Ray, The annual Christmas tree and party of the Haywood county Hos-Mrs. Harold Tingen, of Fuquay pital personnel was held at the Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. nurses Home on Monday evening Ketner, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Walof last week. The living room was ker. Mr. and Mrs. Brick Rothroth, of mas greens and other seasonal Reidsville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. At eight, o'clock presents were Buchanan, Mr. and Mrs. Lachland distributed from the lighted tree Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. David Hyatt, which bore dozens of lights and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hyatt, Mr. yards of tinsel. Following the dis- and Mrs. Robert Anton, Mr. and tribution of gifts, games were en- Mrs. Leon Killian, Jr., Mr. and joyed, and sandwiches, cakes, can- Mrs. Tom Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gibson, Jr., Mrs. Around thirty five members of David Stentz and Bill Swift, Mrs. the hospital staff were present Henry A. Whitfield, Jr., and Miss Jean Whitfield, of Chapel Hill.

Supper Party Given At Home Of Jane Kluttz

A covered dish supper party was given at the home of Miss Jane Kluttz by a group of friends on Christmas night, which was followed by dancing. The living room and dining room thrown together for the evning for dancing, was arranged in Christmas greens with a tall spruce Christmas tree light- charge of the ing one end of the living room talk on the and has held a position with the with colored lights. Mrs. Henrietta of the North F. Kluttz, mother of Miss Kluttz, the United Dan assisted in serving. Among those invited to the af- to attend War II, having served for five years | fair were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spears, in the army, three of which were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Isley, Mr. and Miss Mr. pent in duty overseas, After his Mrs. Ben T. Price. Miss Wanda Waller it discharge from the service he en- Coleman, of Canton, Bill Dover. Hyall tered business with is brother, and Miss Edith Summerrow, Miss Edna Larry 10 together they operate the Rogers | Summerrow, Miss Catherine Jones, hunt

Drs. Seaver and Lockard OPTOMETRISTS Of Asheville

WILL BE IN WAYNESVILLE FRIDAY EA

Masonic Building . . . Hours 9:00 to 5:00 Eyes Examined

H. M. Seaver, O. D. - John C. Lockard, O.

UNKLE HANKS

COLKS WHO ALWAY'S SANTA CLA THINK ABOUT NOBODY BUT THEMSELVES USUAL-LY END UP WITH ONLY

desire. The Holida affords an oppo

You'll SAVE, SAVE, AND SAVE AT

The Toggery's CLEARANCE SALE

Ladies' Winter

COATS 1-2 PRICE

Men's Wool Flannel

Plaid Shirts Were $11.95

ON SALE 7.95

Men's Sheep-Lined

COATS

Were $27.50

ON 16.95 SALE

SUITS

1-2 PRICE

Women's Lovely

HATS

1-2 PRICE

Boys' Wool

Mackinaws

Regular $10.95

7.95

Women's All-Wool

DRESSE

PRICE

Children's $3.95 DRESSE.

Sizes 3 to 11

1.98

All Children's Coats

Now Reduce

THE TOGGERY

W. HUGH MASSIE, Owner