MRS. W. T. RAINER

Mrs. Glenn Boyd was hostess to the Home Demonstration Club meeting on last Friday afternoon. Mrs. Alma Nelson, president, presided.

The following project leaders gave reports: Health, Mrs. Tom Rainer; Poultry, Mrs. F. R. Kennedy; Crafts, Miss Belle McCracken; Home Management, Mrs. R. W. Howell; Food Preservation, Mrs. Medford Leatherwood, and Gardens, Mrs. C. O. Newell.

A donation was given to the Cancer Fund. Miss Smith's demonstration "How We Rate as Parents" was very interesting. After the meeting Mrs. Boyd served her guests with delicious refreshments.

The Shady Grove Missionary Society met with members of the Mount Zion Crabtree, Davis Chapel, and Fincher's Chapel, for an all day mission study on last Thursday at Davis Chapel.

Mrs. Newell had charge of the program and conducted the devootional. The study was "Alcohol". Those taking part on the program were Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Newell, Mrs. R. W. Howell, Mrs. Marion Leatherwood, Mrs. Millard Ferguson, Mrs. Fannie Davis, Mrs. Tom Rainer, Mrs. Lowery Owen, and others.

A duet was sung by Mrs. Newell and Mrs. Lowery Owen.

The noonday meal was from covered dishes brought by the members.

There will be a "Family Night" supper at the Rock Hill School house on Friday night, May 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

No charge will be made for the supper but a collection will be taken afterwards toward the support of a minister in Europe. Everybody is invited to attend. There will be a program and lots of fun.

The Jr. Methodist Youth Fellowship Club meets every Sunday afternoon at the parsonage from 5 to 6 o'clock. Rev. C. O. Newell has charge of the programs. All children as well as adults are urged to come.

Miss Margaret Boyd is home from Bethel where she has taught the past year.

$6 Million Lunchroom Aid Signed By Truman

Deficiency Bill Allows Payments To Veterans, Social Security

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman signed last week a supplementary deficiency bill which includes $1,800,000,000 for the Veterans administration. The agency promptly announced that brief-delayed educational and subsistence checks to veterans will start rolling out.

Also included in the $2,835,161,509 measure is $135 million for the social security program of aid to the aged, children and blind. The Utah welfare commissioner had said that checks under this program had to await enactment of the measure.

The total is to round out funds for a score of agencies in the fiscal year ending June 30. It also includes $6 million for the school lunch program and $300 million for Army relief in occupied countries.

The Veterans administration said it had to withhold payments to a majority of the $2,780,000 veterans because of a lack of funds. A spokesman said the checks, after a one-day delay, started out Saturday and should be in the hands of veterans all over the country by Monday.

Mars Hill College Gets Surplus Cafeteria Okay

WASHINGTON—Four schools in the Carolinas today obtained approval by the Federal Works administrator of applications for surplus government-owned equipment made necessary by the enrollment of veterans under the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Senator William B. Umstead was advised that Mars Hill college, Mars Hill, N. C. is to obtain cafeteria and general kitchen equipment, subject to its availability from surplus, to accommodate 1,075 students, of whom 375 are expected to be veterans. This compares with a present enrollment of 893, including 343 veterans, and pre war peak of 821.

Farm Questions and Answers

Question: Is it wise to cull beef herds now?

Answer: Leland I. Case, in charge of Animal Husbandry Extension at State College, says a recent outlook report from the Department of Agriculture shows that top grade cattle prices will probably be lower soon, but prices of the lower grade will hold up probably until next fall. The smart cattle man will cull his herd of poor individuals and poor producing cows while prices are good. These cull animals will bring a good price on the market at this time if they are carrying a fair degree of flesh. If they are not they should be put in the feed lot for a short while until they will grade medium to low good before they are marketed.

Question: Can hawks be killed by feeding nix vomica to chickens?

Answer: Prof. Roy S. Dearstyne, head of the Poultry department at State College says reports from the U.S.D.A. indicate that there is little to be gained by this method of approach and apparently the poultryman who is losing chickens to hawks will have to rely on the old "shot gun" method of control.

The average farm in the United States was 200 acres in 1945, an increase of 20 acres over the 1940 average and 50 acres over 1920.

In urns for shipment home. Under this system, the names of many missing men were included among the dead.

Common names complicated the problem. In the Tokyo office there are more than 500 urns bearing only the name Minoru Tanaka, and 475 with the name Kiyoshi Dato.

"Dead" Japs Find Shrines At Home

AP Newsfeatures

TOKYO—Day after day former Japanese soldiers trudge into a dingy Tokyo office and hand over little white urns.

"I am not dead," they invariably say. "These ashes are those of someone else."

The urns had been delivered to their families with official notification of death during the war, but thus far more than 3,000 of these "living war dead" have returned home.

They find family shrines dedicated to their memory, and many have found that their "widows" remarried long ago. Numerous mistakes are attributed to the fact that under the Jap-
