THAT SUBWAY series appears to be in the bag due to Brooklyn winning two of the three games last week at St. Louis. Of course if the Brooks break downhill sharply and the Cardinals knock off two-thirds or better of the remaining games—very unlikely, however—it would give last year's world champions another pennant and a chance at the Yankees.

IN THURSDAY night's game both teams put out their blue chips, and the eighth inning deadlock was broken when Harry Lavagetto pinched hit a single off Harry (The Cat) Breechen with the bases loaded to set up a 4-3 win.

BIG LEAGUE moguls got together last week and decided that the World Series will start September 30 if between the Yankees and Brooklyn, or on October 1 if the Red Birds win out in the National. With the Bums still banging strong in the home stretch, it appears that all those pre-season predictions about a repeat series between Boston and St. Louis were slightly off the beam. Brooklyn is sure enough of its place to announce they will accept orders for series tickets.

IN LATE YEARS the American has had the reputation as the hitters' league, but the National has taken over this season with a bang, boasting 18 swingers now hitting over .300 to .10 in the junior loop; Harry Walker of the Phillies is topping them all with .357; Pittsburgh's Kiner and the Giants' Mize making names for themselves with home run swats.

HIGH POINT'S Panthers warmed up for Saturday night's grid encounter with Western Carolina by holding the Duke junior varsity to a scoreless tie last week-end. Don't sell Tom Young's Catamounts short, however. And if you want a ticket for the game (at the Lee H. Edwards Memorial Stadium in Asheville) see "Bud" Stringfield at the Waynesville Pharmacy, who has a limited number of reserved seats to offer.

Zeno Wall Takes Enka Tennis Cup

Bob Scharff of Chapel Hill Drops Finals Sunday In Straight Sets

Zeno Wall, Jr. of Waynesville defeated Bob Scharff of Chapel Hill in three straight matches, 6-1, 6-2, and 6-4 in the final round of the Enka Invitational tennis tournament Sunday afternoon on the Enka Lake clay courts.

This was Wall's third consecutive year to win the trophy, giving him permanent possession of the Enka Cup.

As defending champion he drew a bye in the first round, defeated Joe Peltry of Owensboro, Ky., 6-1, 6-1 in the quarterfinals, and won 6-2, 6-4 over Stan Karansky of Asheville in the semifinals.

This year Wall fell claim to the cup without the loss of a set, and only 13 games through three matches. Scharff pushed him hard in the final set, the sun wearing down both players, but Wall showed enough to beat him and win the trophy.

N. C. State Grid Team Quarantined

Polio Quarantine Placed By County Health Officer Until September 26

By United Press

RALEIGH, Sept. 15.—The entire North Carolina State football squad has been quarantined for two weeks because of an outbreak of infantile paralysis. The quarantine will last until one day before the Wolfpack's opening game with Duke on September 27.

County Health Officer Dr. A. C. Billie ordered the quarantine after 20-year-old Don McCormack, freshman footballer from Greensboro was sent to a Raleigh hospital with polio.

However, the ban is not expected to prevent the team from limited practice and Billie says he does not think it will be necessary to quarantine Head Coach Beattie Featherston and members of his staff.

SPORTS LAUGHS

All baseball men agree that the late Walter Johnson had a fast ball that was more than just hard to hit. To some players it was actually frightening.

A story is told of a rookie who got a good look at Johnson's fast

one. The first pitch was inside and too close for comfort. It was a ball. The next one zipped across the heart of the plate before the young player could even get set.

Johnson followed it up with another fast one right over the inside corner. The ump bellowed "strike two" and the rookie turned on his heel and walked off.

The ump shouted, "hey, come back here, that's just strike two." And the rookie answered: "You take the third one."

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvellous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—a constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Look for Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Yankee Fans Cheer Bums, Hope For Subway Series

NEW YORK Learning the incredible, the New York Yankees are in.

The only worry left to Bucky Harris' men is whether the World Series will be a five game one—or a $324 junket. The Yankees probably prefer the former. Facing the Brooklyn Dodgers should make the Yankees odds-on favorites to take home the junior league's 27th victory in the post-season classic. The St. Louis Cardinals won't be so easy.

There are several good reasons why the Redbirds will be more formidable in a World Series than the Dodgers. The Card pitching is better over the short haul. Stoppers and great money players like Harry Breechen and George Mauer will be hard to beat when the blue chips are down.

Breechen won three games against the Red Sox last year. If Eddie Dyer, Card manager, chooses to open with "The Cat" can repeat that performance. Mauer is a great stuff pitcher, ideal for the type of pitching called for in a series.

In addition the Cards have blazing fast rookie Jim Hearn, and they could coax a win from the arm of Murry Dickson or Howie Pollet.

The Dodger mound corps, on the other hand, is a motley crew. Only Ralph Branca has been consistent throughout the year. The Dodgers have been able to come up with a well-pitched game at crucial periods, but the staff has none of the depth of the Cards.

Joe Hatten, for example, beat the Chicago Cubs six times in his first ten victories. He has been much less than a ball of fire against the league's other six clubs.

Brooklyn hitting is consistent, with six regulars around the 300 mark. But the Bums have no really long ball hitters, no sluggers who can take charge and wreck a ball game.

Only Dixie Walker and Peeewe Reese, of the starting Dodgers even have tasted World Series competition. The rest are newcomers to the classic, and two

Gold Medal Cage Meet Dates Set

Boys' Tournament To Be Played Feb. 23-28; Girls During March 8-13

Dates for the 13th Western North Carolina Invitational Gold Medal basketball tournament for high school teams, sponsored annually by Canton high school, was announced last week by Coach C. C. Poindexter.

The boys' tournament will be played the week of February 23-28, and the girls' tournament is slated for the week of March 8-13. The dates are being announced this far in advance so that W. N. C. coaches who plan to participate can avoid conflicts when making up their schedules. Invitations are being mailed out now.

Bethel last season won both the boys' and girls' championship in the two events, which drew more entries than any other cage tournament in this section. It is anticipated that even more teams will compete this winter.

Green River Edges Sayles 4-3 For 3rd Place In Loop

Green River edged out Sayles 4 to 3 to win third place in W.N.C. industrial league standings Saturday afternoon at the Eusta field.

E. Hammett, the first of three Green River hurlers, was given credit for the win, while Bidix was charged with the loss.

In an earlier game last week Enka fell to the Tuxedo team 6-0. The games were run to decide which of the teams would take part in the Shaughnessy playoff this coming week-end against Hazelwood, the champion, and Beacon Mills, the runner up.

Ralph Kiner Swats 49th Homer To Set 2-Game Record

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Ralph Kiner continued his sensational home-run hitting as the Pirates slugged Boston 4-3 Friday night. Kiner clubbed two homers—his 48 and 49th—to take the major league lead from Johnny Mize, who has 47.

Kiner's brace of four baggers also gave him a new major league record of eight homers in four games. Tony Lazzeri of the Yankees had set the old mark of seven in 1936.
