

with students this year, a considerable percentage of the students are veterans, most of whom do not plan to teach.

"However, they get a good general education and full college credit for the work they take. And there is still room in some teachers' colleges and in the junior colleges for additional qualified veterans who have been disappointed elsewhere in the prestige schools."

Dr. Frazier lists three ways of improving the situation:

1. The development of methods whereby anticipated needs in each teaching area can be measured and used to control the number produced.
2. The development and adoption of measures whereby only the most highly superior will be encouraged (or permitted) to complete preparation for the certificate.
3. The increase in standards (both quantitative and qualitative) which will assure a uniformly high quality of instruction service.

During World War II when submarines were menacing Atlantic and Caribbean shipping lanes, 1,442,868 tons of sugar were ferried from Havana to Miami (213 miles).

Capital Letters

SHOULD BE LEGAL? — For years now, Winston-Salem has been one of the illegally wettest cities in the state. A busy reporter on one of the papers there, it seems, dug out facts a few days ago showing that around 1,800 gallons of whiskey per week are being brought into the town from Cycle in Yadkin county. Purlar in Wilkes, Swan Creek area in Yadkin, Roaring River section in Wilkes. A little while after the article appeared in the papers, a man whose name would be known to most people in northwestern North Carolina as a former big hauler of whiskey, wrote the Winston-Salem Journal that he was an ex-transporter of liquor. He said that he knew the figure on liquor hauls into the city would run nearer to 18,000 than 1,800 gallons.

He signed the letter, but his name was not run—except as "Ex-Transporter." He said he used to haul into Winston about 5,000 gallons a week and he didn't have the

Senator Umstead Warns Of Coming Depression

LEXINGTON —(AP)— Soaring prices of food and other commodities are signals of an economic recession that may come if the present inflationary spiral is not stopped, Senator William B. Umstead, North Carolina Democrat, said here today.

He told the Lexington Kiwanis club "the unselfish co-operation of industry, agriculture, labor, the public, and the government will be needed to halt the upward trend of prices and assist in the stabilization of the nation's economic structure."

Burlington Mother Gives Birth To 17-Pound Baby

BURLINGTON — Little Miss Hattie Thelma Strouth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Strouth of the Kirkpatrick Heights section, probably has broken an all-time record in Burlington. She's only a few days old, but she has a good start on "growing up big" over many another child several months older.

You see, Little Miss Strouth, on meeting her parents Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, tipped the scales at 17 and a half pounds, measured approximately 20 inches in length, and is a mighty healthy baby.

Dr. J. J. Johnson of Graham, attending physician at the birth in the home, reported today that both mother and daughter—and father—were getting along fine. The father is an employe in the machine shop at Travora Manufacturing Company.

Little Miss Hattie Thelma became the 16th child of Mr. and Mrs. Strouth, 13 of them living.

Mrs. Queen Gives Party For Welfare Staff Saturday

Mrs. Sam L. Queen entertained Saturday evening, September 20, at a dinner party honoring three members and one former member of the Haywood County Department of Public Welfare staff, Miss Hilda Brown, now Superintendent of Public Welfare in Swain County, is to be married October 5th to Norton Myers of Bryson City. Miss Pearl Hayes and Miss Mary Jane Edwards are leaving the department for nine months on educational leave—Miss Hayes to the U. N. C. School of Social Work, and Miss Edwards to the New York School of Social Work, Columbia University. New member of the staff is Mrs. Wanda J. Clark, School attendance consultant.

The four tables were arranged with colorful fall flowers, and the bride and groom motif was carried out. Miss Brown was presented with a corsage of yellow roses by the hostess and with a gift by the Welfare Staff.

In addition to the honor guests the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Queen, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown, Mr. Norton Myers, Mr. E. Myers, Miss Victoria Bell, Mrs. Annie Dudley, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Brown, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Edwards, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John M. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howell, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Howell, are leaving today for their home in Providence, R. I. They will be accompanied by Mrs. Chas. Ray, who will be their guest for two weeks.

Miss Eloise Martin has returned to New York where she is a student at the School of American Ballet. Miss Martin attended the school last year and received an unusual number of promotions. She was one of three girls in a group of 35 who was put in a professional class for the summer courses and will continue with the professional ballet classes for the fall term.

The Rev. and Mrs. Malcolm R. Williamson are spending a few days in Atlanta and Griffin, Ga., visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. William Medford and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prevost spent several days last week in Chapel Hill and Raleigh. They attended the Young Democrats Convention in Raleigh on Friday and Saturday.

Among those attending the Young Democrats Convention in Raleigh last week end were: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Campbell, Miss Mary Elmore, Mrs. Edith Alley, and Jerry Rogers.

Wallace Described As Big Spender

WASHINGTON —(AP)— Henry Morgenthau, Jr., former Secretary of the Treasury, today described Henry A. Wallace as the New Deal's most gigantic spender of Federal funds and said his theory of spending to curtail farm production was "nonsense".

He said he once protested that Wallace was "getting away with murder."

Morgenthau wrote this in the first of six articles in Collier's describing his nearly 12 years in the Treasury, particularly his unsuccessful efforts to balance the budget.

The former Secretary said Wallace's Agriculture department and related activities were the costliest arm of government, even counting Harry L. Hopkins' relief outfit and Harold L. Ickes' public works outlays.

Sentinels of Health

Don't Neglect Them! Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out. Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Keep an Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

N. Canton P.-T. A. Hears Mrs. Luther

CANTON — The North Canton Parent-Teacher association, in its initial meeting of the year at the school Wednesday afternoon, received a message from District Director Mrs. T. Allen Luther, of Asheville, heard progress reports on association activities and completed its committee organization for the current year.

A survey of room attendance at the meeting resulted in a tie between the rooms of Mrs. J. E. Hair and Miss Moore.

Principal W. P. Barbee reported on various improvements in the buildings, including painting of some rooms. He announced also that plans had been laid for grading the school grounds and providing additional playground space.

They Go To Chair Still Fighting Dentist

SAN FRANCISCO —(AP)— Children here are counter-attacking in the battle of the dental chair.

Word leaks out from dental offices that moppets are stalking in for their appointments with their mouths tightly closed.

They nod curtly when the dentist says "Climb into the chair." When he says "Now open wide" they give him the works—a big bubble of gum that bursts in his face.
