

Exchange Club Is Formed This Week By Canton Group

Another new club has been added to Canton's civic groups with the organization of the National Exchange club Tuesday night.

The new club, with 25 charter members, will be directed by J. W. "Pinkie" Stone as president, Underwood Smathers was elected vice president, C. R. Craig, secretary, and Manly Curtis, treasurer.

The board of control is composed of Bill Carter, Joyce Warren, A. H. Jones, Dr. R. C. Rhea, Troy Bradley and Charles Worley. Meeting dates for the club have been set for Wednesday evenings at 7:30 at the town hall.

The Exchange club is similar to other civic clubs. Its purpose is to educate, improve or develop the capabilities of the members; and to aid in community, state and national affairs.

The Canton club is sponsored by the Hendersonville Exchange club, whose members were present for the organization meeting.

Capt. A. C. Barclay of Toledo, Ohio assistant director of extension for the national Exchange clubs, was in charge of the organizational meeting.

Canton Musical Entertainers

THE CHAMPION QUARTET will be featured over the programs of Radio Station WHCC each Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. The quartet, composed of Canton people, includes, Claude Broyles, Vinson Worley, Mark Swain and Sam Reece. Mrs. Jay Broyles at the piano, is the accompanist.

Palmer Furniture Observing First Anniversary

W. R. "Bill" Palmer is this week observing the beginning of the second anniversary of Palmer Furniture company, in Canton.

Mr. Palmer, a native of Haywood, and son of Mrs. W. A. Palmer and the late Sheriff Palmer, opened the large furniture store in Canton last year, and has met with unusual success. He has had to utilize several warehouse spaces for his merchandise during the year in addition to his large retail floor space at 55 Main street.

Mr. Palmer entered the furniture business after spending 12 years with the North Carolina Department of Revenue. "I always wanted to come back to Haywood and took advantage of the first opportunity afforded me," he said.

Mr. Palmer is active in civic affairs, being a member of the Lions Club, Merchant Association and Chamber of Commerce.

"I am interested in the growth of the new radio station in Haywood—WHCC. I think it is a distinct asset to the county and surrounding territory and I feel every business house should support the station. I have a 30-minute program by Mae West and her 'Smile-Awhile' quartette every Sunday from 1 to 1:30 and I invite everyone to listen to these talented musicians."
