Robinson-Moore Wedding Held In Monroeville

Miss Doris M. Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac S. Moore of Monroeville, N. J., and Floyd Robinson, of Millville, were married at the Monroeville Methodist Church on the afternoon of June 12 at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Charles Arthur Francis of Nashville, N. C., cousin of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was decorated with peonies and roses against a background of palms and ferns.

Before the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Algita Moore, sister of the bride, pianist, and Irvin Robinson, brother of the bridegroom, vocalist.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father wore a gown of white slipper satin, designed and made by her maternal grandmother. The gown was fashioned with sweetheart neckline with sequin trim and long sleeves which were pointed at the wrists. The full skirt extended in a flowing train and the fingertip veil fell from a crown headpiece. The bride carried a white Bible topped with an orchid and arranged with streamers of baby's breath.

Miss Myra Bennett of Monroeville was maid of honor. She wore a dress of yellow satin with full net skirt and carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Charles Haley of Millville served as best man and ushers were Carlyle Surran of Millville, brother-in-law of the bride, and Isaac Moore, Jr., brother of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in a street length dress of printed silk with white accessories and wore a corsage of red rose buds.

Immediately after the ceremony the parents of the bride were hosts of a reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Robinson left during the afternoon for a wedding trip, after which they will make their home with the bride's parents.

The bride is a graduate of Woodstown High School and Goldie College in Wilmington, Del. She is at present employed with the Airwork Corporation in Millville.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Millville High School and is currently employed as an apprentice mechanic with the Airwork Corporation.

High School Class Of 1905 Has Reunion

Ten members of the graduating class of 1905 of Waynesville high school held a class reunion with a luncheon at the Towne House Saturday honoring their former teacher and superintendent, Prof. W. C. Allen. The reunion plans had been made by Mrs. Josie Hyatt Burwell of Asheville.

Miss Amelia MacFayden of Waynesville presided at the meeting. Mrs. Bess Sloan Atkins of Waynesville gave a welcome to the out-of-town members, to which Mrs. Burwell responded and at the same time the latter read a number of messages from absent members who were unable to attend.

Mr. Allen called the class roll and the members gave a brief sketch of their lives since 1905. Hiram Kirkpatrick, valedictorian of the class, gave a talk recalling many instances of interest during high school days. Mrs. Nettie Davis Burt of Asheville, historian, recalled what she remembered of the class activity. Mrs. Jessie Moody Jolly, class prophet, gave bits of the prophecy.

The highlight of the program was a talk by Mr. Allen, well-known educator and historian, who recalled his experiences as superintendent of the Waynesville school, a post he held for more than 20 years.

Attending the luncheon in addition to Mr. Allen were Mrs. Burwell and her husband, W. M. Burwell, Mrs. Nettie Davis Burt and her husband, Clinton Burt, all of Asheville; Mrs. Sadie Miller Niles and her husband, George A. Niles of Griffin, Ga.; Charles Adams of Tryon; Hiram Kirkpatrick of Fayetteville; Mrs. Clarine Lee Dickey of Sweet Water, Tenn.; and Mrs. Lillie Satherthwaite Withers, Mrs. Jessie Moody Jolly, Mrs. Bess Sloan Atkins, and Miss Amelia MacFayden all of Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Doggett and children of High Point, have arrived to spend the summer at their home on the Country Club Drive.
