Mr. and Mrs. Roy Paxton

MR. AND MRS. PAXTON were married on Friday evening, August 20, at the home of the bride. Mrs. Paxton is the former Miss Lillie Mae Blankenship, daughter of Mrs. Z. D. Blankenship and the late Mr. Blankenship. Mr. Paxton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Paxton of Canton.

Miss Chagney Is Bride Of Francis Smith

Miss Lawrence Ellen Chaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence E. Chaney of Lake Junaluska, was married to Francis Benton Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Smith of Canton, on August 22 at 4 p.m. at the Lake Junaluska Methodist church. The Rev. Paul H. Duckwall, pastor of the bride, officiated, using the single ring ceremony.

The vows were taken beneath an ivy entwined arch in front of a background of native greenery interspersed with baskets of white gladiolus and seven-branched candelabra.

Miss Anna Glosser, organist, and Miss Mary Jane Edwards and Lowry Ferguson, Jr., vocalists, presented a musical program. Miss Edwards and Mr. Ferguson sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" as a duet. Miss Edwards sang "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me". During the ceremony the Bach-Gounod "Ave Maria" was played softly on the organ. The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress previously worn by her sister at her wedding. The gown of white zipper satin was fashioned with a lace bodice, extending in a panel down the front of the skirt, sweetheart neckline, and long sleeves, and in points over the wrist. The full skirt ended in a long train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a halo of matching lace. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid showered with satin streamers.

Mrs. John E. Bramlett, only sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a dress of mint green silk with a lace bertha and fitted bodice. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of mixed flowers in pastel shades with a band of matching flowers in her hair.

Russell Buckner of Canton was best man. Ushers were Oral Yates of Lake Junaluska and Ray Ellis of Waynesville.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. For members of the wedding party and the immediate families. The bridal table was covered with a lace cloth with a center arrangement of white flowers and lighted tapers in crystal holders. The wedding cake with a miniature bride and bridegroom was at one end of the table and the punch bowl at the other.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue crepe dress with a corsage of pink rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom wore a lavender crepe dress. Her corsage was also of pink rosebuds.

Immediately following the reception the couple left for a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, S. C. For traveling the bride changed to a gray linen suit with black and white accessories and the orchid detached from her bridal bouquet. Upon their return the couple will make their home in Canton.

Merel Stamey Is Wed To Perry Plemmons

Miss Merel Stamey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stamey of Waynesville, and Perry W. Plemmons, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jones Plemmons of Luck, were married at the First Baptist Church on Thursday afternoon at five o'clock.

The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows using the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with floor standards of white gladiolus and hydrangea against a background of palms and ferns. Six branched candelabra holding lighted white tapers were at a side.

Prior to the ceremony Mr. Douglas Moore, organist, played "O Promise Me" and "Beata". The traditional wedding marches were used as processional and recessional and during the taking of the vows Mrs. Moore softly played "To A Wild Rose".

The bride and groom were in attendance and entered the church together. The bride wore an antique wool suit with grey accessories and her corsage was of white roses and gypsophylla.

Mrs. Stamey, mother of the bride, wore a dress of black Irish linen with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. Mrs. Plemmons, mother of the groom, was attired in a blue crepe dress with black accessories and her corsage was also of red roses.

Immediately after the wedding the bride and groom left for a short trip and upon their return will reside in Waynesville.

Mrs. Plemmons is a graduate of Spring Creek High School and Western Carolina Teachers College. She taught last year in the Spring Creek School and this year will be on the faculty of the Bethel School.

Mr. Plemmons is also a graduate of Spring Creek High School and attended Western Carolina Teachers College. During World War II, he served three years in the Army Air Corps and attained the rank of flight officer. He will also be a member of the faculty of the Bethel School for the coming year.
