Miss Jane E. Klutz, Bride Of Lester Burgin, Jr.

The wedding of Miss Jane Elizabeth Klutz, daughter of Mrs. James Edward Klutz of Waynesville and the late Mr. Klutz, and Robert Lester Burgin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lester Burgin, also of Waynesville, was solemnized on Sunday afternoon at four o'clock at The First Methodist Church.

The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was decorated with floor baskets of white chrysanthemums, white gladioli and woodwardia fern against a background of palms. Seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral candles were also used and the vows were spoken before an arch entwined with ivy and flanked by vases of white chrysanthemums. Single candles were placed in each window.

Miss Betie Hannah, organist, and Charles Foley and Aaron Hyatt, soloists, presented a program of wedding music. Prior to the ceremony Miss Hannah played "Ich Liebe Dich" by Grieg, "Clair de Lune" by Debussy and "Liedes Traum" by Liszt. Mr. Foley sang "At Dawning" by Calhoun and Mr. Hyatt sang "Because" by Handel.

The bride who was given in marriage by her uncle, Homer West, wore a gown of white Chantilly lace over satin-lined bodice, marquisette yoke outlined with embroidered lace, and fitted sleeves ending in points over the hands. The full circular skirt extended into a cathedral train and she wore a finger-tip veil of French tulle attached to a coronet of tiny seed pearls. She carried a heart-shaped bouquet of tuberoses centered with a white orchid and showered with white satin streamers and tulle roses.

Miss Mary Jean West, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and Culbrenth.

Bethel Club, Mrs. Charles Terrell, Mrs. Horace Peck, Mrs. Welch Singletary and Mrs. Harris Senoie.

wore a dress of heavenly blue satin with off-the-shoulder neckline, fitted bodice, and long full skirt. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink chrysanthemums and better-time roses and wore a wine satin ribbon and tulle and wore a coronet of matching tulle.

Bridesmaids were Miss Noima Jane Burgin, sister of the groom, Miss Alice Fincher, cousin of the bride, Miss Barbara Ann Boyd, and Miss Edith Summerrow. They wore dresses identical to that of the maid of honor and carried cascade bouquets in contrasting colors. Their coronets matched the streamers of their bouquets.

Edwin Burgin, brother of the groom, served as best man and ushers were Bill Burgin and Charles Hurst Burgin, cousins of the groom, Hugh Watts of Taylorsville, and Richard Bradley.

Mrs. Klutz, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of mauve crepe with rhinestone trim and a corsage of gardenias. Her accessories were black.

Mrs. Burgin, mother of the groom, wore an afternoon dress of blue crepe with matching hat and black accessories. Her corsage was also of gardenias.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was given by the bride's mother at her home on Hazel Street.

Guests were greeted at the entrance by Mrs. Ben Sloan and were introduced to the receiving line, which was composed of the mother of the bride, the parents of the groom, and members of the bridal party.

Mrs. William Cobb received in the hall and Mrs. Charles E. Frazier presided in the gift room. Miss Edna Summerrow was in charge of the guest register.

Mrs. J. P. Dieus received in the dining room and Mrs. Edwin Fincher, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl. Assisted in serving were Mrs. Charlie Woodard, Mrs. Harry Lee Limer, Jr., Mrs. William Dover, Mrs. Douglas Moore, Miss Elizabeth McCracken, Miss Lorraine Martel, Miss Elaine Francis, Miss Alice Marie Burgin, Miss Carolyn Bischoff, and Miss Catherine Hyatt.

Others assisting were Mrs. G. C. Platt, Mrs. Homer Platt, Miss Marie Platt, Mrs. Carl Boutwell, Mrs.

Mrs. Robert Lester Burgin, Jr.

MRS. BURGIN is the former Miss Jane Elizabeth Klutz, daughter of Mrs. James Edward Klutz, and the late Mr. Klutz. Her wedding took place on Sunday afternoon at the First Methodist Church.

Wedding Breakfast Honors Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lester Burgin, Sr., were hosts of a wedding breakfast at their home Sunday morning in honor of Miss Jane Klutz and their son, Lester Burgin, Jr., whose marriage took place later in the afternoon.

Vases of white chrysanthemums were used throughout the residence in decoration and the bridal motif was noted in all appointments. The dining table was centered with an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, white carnations and tuberoses, on either side of which were white candles in crystal holders. Smaller tables were centered with yellow flowers forming wedding rings.

The guests, including members of the two families, and out-of-town guests were Miss Klutz, Mr. Burgin, Mrs. James E. Klutz, mother of the bride; Miss Norma Jane Burgin, sister of the groom; Erwin Burgin, brother of the groom; Mrs. F. A. Burgin of Asheville, grandmother of the groom; Mrs. A. W. McLaughlin, grandmother of the groom; Miss Barbara Ann Boyd; Mrs. C. E. Jackson, Mrs. Edith Finckann, Miss Flora Sivers, Miss Laura Scott, and Hugh Watts, all of Winston-Salem; and Mrs. J. J. Elder of Albermarle.

Lucy Ellen Platt Of Canton Is Engaged

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Lucy Ellen Platt, daughter of James H. Platt and the late Mrs. Flora Kinsland Platt of Canton to Paul A. Swofford of Asheville and Cowpens, S. C.

The wedding will take place on November 23.

C. F. Rhinehart, Jr., Mrs. Hurst Burgin, Miss Carmen Platt, and Mrs. Harry Whisenant, The University of North Carolina

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. F. A. Burgin, Misses Lillian and Margaret Burgin, Mr. and Mrs. McLean Rogers, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spears, all of Asheville; Mr. and Mrs. James A. Crisp, and Ray Burgin and daughter, Judy, of Brevard; Mrs. C. I. Jackson, Mrs. Edith Finckann, Miss Flora Sivers, Miss Laura Scott, and Hugh Watts, all of Winston-Salem; and Mrs. J. J. Elder of Albermarle.

The bride's table was covered with a Maderia cloth and centered with a crystal bowl of white chrysanthemums, white carnations, and tube roses, flanked by lighted white tapers in crystal holders. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom, was placed at one end of the table.

Later the couple left for a wedding trip to points in Florida and upon their return will be at home on Cherry Street.

For traveling the bride wore a suit of wine wool with grey top coat and grey accessories and the orchid detached from her wedding bouquet.

Mrs. Burgin is a graduate of Richard J. Reynolds High School and attended Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. For the past three years she has been a member of the staff of The Waynesville Mountaineer.

Mr. Burgin is a graduate of Waynesville Township High School and Mars Hill College. He served with the United States Marine Corps during World War II and is now employed by the Pure Oil Distributors, Waynesville.
