The mathematics will wreck the morals will wreck a home. The politics will wreck a state. The theology will wreck a soul in a church.
The conduct will ruin a reputation.
The action is right which in the face of a lower principle follows a higher: every action is which in the presence of a principle follows a lower.

STEPHEN IS STONED, ACCUSED OF BLASPHEMY
Scripture—Acts 6:1-8:4.
NEWMAN CAMPBELL
EVERY ADVANCE in thought met with opposition. In the days of what we call "the stone age," people rebelled at the inventions that they would rob them of their work of many men, was a battery.
It has been proved that the stone age has created more and, under our system of enterprise, it has made more for more people and raised the standard of living.
Religion, always any new that seemed to conduct with prevailing beliefs and customs even more savagely opposed. How many have died because they dared contest current beliefs? Thousands were because they dared believe in their Saviour. In our today we read of the first to this holy cause.
The community of, early plans we saw in previous how they managed their relationships one with another.

MEMORY VERSE
Be ye faithful unto death, and I will give thee the crown of life.—Revelations 2:10.
shared and shared alike. Disappeared, as St. Luke tells when the Greek Christians died that their widows were getting their due.
The apostles immediately called this by appointing a committee of seven picked men to do the work. Among the men was one named Stephen, described as "a man full of faith and power, and great numbers of the disciples multiplied greatly."
Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.
It had been with Jesus, were certain men in the synagogue who differed with him, and they were bested. Then, with the Lord, they "suborned men to twist Stephen's words, so that they accused him of blasphemy."
"Suborn" means, according to the dictionary, to incite or to instigate, to commit they have slain them which showed before of the coming of the Just One, of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers."

Furious, they "gnashed on him with their teeth," they rushed upon him. They cast him out of the city—for it was unlawful to slay anyone inside the gates—and they stoned him, and "they laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul."
Near death, Stephen called upon God to receive his spirit. Kneeling, he called in a loud voice—even as his Master had done when he was dying—"Lord, lay not this sin to their charge."
And when Stephen had thus said, "he fell asleep."
This Saul, how did he feel when he saw this saintly man die and heard his prayer that the Lord forgive his enemies? Did his conscience bother him? Did he feel repentance? If he did he smothered the feeling with anger, and he proceeded to persecute the disciples unmercifully, so that many were scattered abroad.
Stephen's friends carried him to his burial and "made great lamentation over him," and Saul, as you know, shortly became a convert and one of the greatest leaders in this early church.

Nervous-Rundown?
Mrs. W. M. Reagan, Seymour, Tenn., respected mother of nine who has lived in Blount County for the last thirty years, writes: "Scalf's Indian River Medicine did wonders for me. I felt nervous and rundown, couldn't sleep right and didn't feel able to work. After many other treatments seemed to fail, Scalf's brought such grand relief I try to keep it in my home all the time. I recommend Scalf's to all who suffer like I did."
Try Scalf's today; see for yourself how promptly it will help you. The first bottle sold on a money-back guarantee.

The Church reaches far in touching the lives and hearts of men everywhere. Its arm is long. Its protection is sure.
The Church is responsible for thousands of hospitals, colleges, and other service institutions. Its missions extend into city slums and to the distant corners of the world. As an agent for the relief of suffering, promoting spiritual education, and contributing to better living, it has no equal.
Can you afford not to have a part in what the Church is doing to spread truth, promote good citizenship, stem the tide of juvenile delinquency, heal the sick, and minister to destitute peoples.
No short-range view of the Church can do it justice, for each separate congregation is one link in a vast chain of enterprises for human betterment.
It is fine to have a part in such a project. It is a duty to one's family and to God to accept a part of this responsibility.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH
The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
