The sponsorship of Beta Sigma Phi, which is headed by Mrs. Herbert Braren, the sorority's president. On Saturday night, the same place will be the scene of Sam Queen's Square Dance.

The proceeds from both these events will go to the March of Dimes treasury.

To stimulate competition, Fontana Village is offering a one-week expense-paid (except for transportation) vacation at its mountain resort to the team of two people which raises the largest contributions in the Haywood county polio campaign.

Station WHCC of Waynesville is cooperating in the contest.

The contestants are to report their totals to Mr. Stovall or Mr. Hyatt in Waynesville or to Beekman Huger or Edwin Haynes in Canton.

The contest is open to any private individual not officially assigned to definite duties or territories in the drive.

Though collections have been picking up since the middle of last week, campaign officials reminded the residents of the area that it's still a long way to the area's quota of $7,500.

Meanwhile, an iron lung was placed on display in the window of Massie's Furniture Store here in connection with the campaign.

seek covering 10,000 of these acres in Ladino clover in 1950 is a small ration," he said.

"Most of the leaders in the beef cattle, dairying, poultry and swine fields of Haywood today have some Ladino pastures, but we need many more acres. The cost is small, as it takes only two pounds of Ladino to the acre, when mixed with orchard grass or fescue. The market price is about $2.25 per pound, and the AAA payments is $1.40, which means the net cost to the farmer is very small.

Mr. Corpening pointed out that the farmers should plan planting Ladino late February or early March.

Consider Little Children, Oh Ye of Little Faith

OMAHA, Neb. (UP)—Two starry-eyed youngsters prepared to climb up on Santa's knee in a department store.

After standing in line impatiently, the two little brothers, finally were next to let Saint Nick know what they wanted for Christmas.

Just then a lunch-time substitute took the original Santa's place, right in front of the boys.

Unruffled, they climbed on the second Santa's knee, told him what they wanted, and asked no questions.

WHAT HAPPENS TO BUDGET DOLLAR

Where it comes from

Where it will go

THIS CHART shows the income and outgo of America's budget dollar. In his annual budget message to Congress, President Truman asked for $42,500,000,000 for the coming 1951 fiscal year. The Chief Executive, in his message, forecast a five-billion dollar deficit. (International)

Fines Creek Precinct To Meet February 7

The Fines Creek precinct meeting originally scheduled for next Saturday has been postponed until February 7.

This was announced today by Wingate Hannah of the Haywood County Young Democratic Club organization.

The season will be held at 8 P. M. on the new date at the Fines Creek School, with Jack Messer scheduled to address the audience.

Mr. Hannah said the Club was working to obtain speakers for all the precinct meetings, which will continue through the next few weeks.

Fundamentally, he added, the speakers will stress the importance of all qualified voters in each precinct turning out on the election days to cast their ballots.

Frank Ferguson, aynesville attorney, is scheduled to address the meeting of the Crabtree and Iron Duff precincts February 4 at 8 p. m. at Crabtree-Iron Duff School.

Former District Solicitor John Queen of Waynesville is listed as the principal speaker for the 8 p. m. meeting of February 11 at Bethel School.

This session is for the Cruso, East Fork and Cecil precincts.

On February 14, the Jonathan Creek, Maggie, Cataloochee and Mt. Sterling precincts will meet at the same hour at Jonathan Creek School.

The final meeting will be held also at 8 p. m. on February 16 at Clyde.

Mr. Hannah said arrangements are being made to obtain speakers for these two sessions.

The final meeting will come two days before the County Young Democratic banquet rally which will be held February 18 at the County Court House.

This event will launch the annual Young Democratic Club membership drive, and plans for it are being pushed to completion.

The name of the principal speaker and the other details will be announced later.

WORKTIME SCHOOLS URGED

LONDON (AP)—A government committee urged British employers to give their employees a chance where possible to go to school during working hours when studying for special qualifications.

"When employees are enabled to pursue part at least of their study in working hours the result is far better than that obtained by evening study after the day's work," the committee said.

Polio Contest Winner To Get Free Vacation

Want to have a week's vacation at Fontana Village for free?

All you have to do is find somebody else, then raise more money than other teams for the Haywood County March of Dimes campaign.

The resort is offering the expense-paid vacation to the team of two that gets the top total. The winners will have to take care of their own transportation to Fontana. But from there on the Village will foot the bill.

Anyone is eligible for the contest except members of the Waynesville Rotary Club and those assigned definite territories to cover for the campaign. In other words, those assigned specific tasks officially won't be able to compete.

Cooperating in the contest is Waynesville Radio Station WHCC. The competition opened officially last night and will continue through February 3—a week from tomorrow.

Those competing are to report their results to Felix Stovall or David Hyatt in Waynesville, or to Beekman Huger or Edwin Haynes in Canton.

Mr. Stovall is Waynesville area campaign director for the polio drive, and Mr. Hyatt is Waynesville area chairman for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mr. Huger heads the Canton area for the National Foundation, while Mr. Haynes is campaign director of the March of Dimes for that area.

Iron Lung To Be Placed In Haywood Hospital

That iron lung now on display in the window of Massie's Furniture Store here will become part of Haywood County Hospital's equipment next week.

It was purchased about three years ago through the aid of the Waynesville Rotary Club, sponsor of the Waynesville area March of Dimes campaign, and agencies and citizens throughout Haywood county.

It has been used on a loan basis much of the time by the Asheville Orthopedic Home for treating patients acutely stricken with polio.

Lee Davis, Haywood County Hospital administrator, said today the "lung" will be put in the hospital here next Monday.

The current display is to help promote the March of Dimes campaign in this area.

the North Carolina National Guard and the American Legion.

Mr. Green was overcome by accidental gas poisoning while asleep in his hotel room. His roommate, Van Buren Owenby, who was also overcome by the gas, was revived by firemen and treated in a hospital.

Owenby's life was saved by the occupant of an adjacent hotel room, Hans Kline, who smelled the gas. Kline notified the hotel manager and he entered the room and turned off a gas plate in the oven of the stove.

Later at the hospital Owenby told police that Green retired shortly after 10 o'clock and apparently had lit the oven burner to heat the room, but the flame went out.

Green was the son of Herman Green and the late Mrs. Mollie McCracken Green of the Fines Creek section of Haywood county.

An employee of the Columbia Lumber Company in Seattle, he had been residing in the State of Washington since 1939 with the exception of service with the Army during World War II. He entered the army in November, 1942, and was discharged in 1945, after serving with the 797th Engineers Company in the China-Burma-India Theatre.

Surviving in addition to the father, is one sister, Miss Helen Green of Clearwater, Florida.

The body is expected to arrive here Friday morning and will remain at Garrett Funeral Home until the hour of the service.

Other members of the overall committee, besides Mr. Corpening, are Transylvania County Agent J. A. Glazener of Brevard, Burke County Agent S. L. Homewood of Marlon, Miss Mary Cornwell, Haywood county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Mamie Sue Evans, Buncombe county home demonstration agent; Mrs. Frances C. Wagoner, Allegheny county home demonstration agent; R. W. Schoffner, western district farm agent; Neil Kennett, district home demonstration agent; R. L. Harrill, state 4-H leader; W. B. Collins, district supervisor from Asheville; and Howard R. Clapp, director of the Mountain Test Farm.

Duke Alumni To Hold '50 Dinner In Canton Monday

Duke University alumni of Haywood County will mix business with pleasure when they hold their annual banquet next Monday night at the Hotel Canton in Canton.

The event is scheduled to open at 7 p.m. with Tom Reeves of Canton, Haywood County Alumni Association president, welcoming the guests.

They will elect their Association officers for 1950, see movies of at least one of Duke's football games of last season, and hear an address by either Duke Athletic Director Eddie Cameron or Assistant Football Coach Horace (Horse) Hendrickson.

Aiding in the arrangements are Miss Debrayda Fisher and Carleton E. Weatherby, both of Waynesville.

FAMILY POSTOFFICE

BAR HARBOR, Me. (AP)—A grandfather, father and son, all named Tobias Roberts, have been postmasters at this famed summer resort community.

The first, appointed by President Martin Van Buren, served from 1838 to 1853 and from 1858 to 1861. The second served from 1870 to 1871. The incumbent took over in 1936.

their appointments, if something unforeseen arises in the course of the day.

The Lions started their hunt two weeks ago. Each got two registration forms with instructions to get names, addresses, phone numbers, and specific time assignments on each.

Most of the 65 members of the club simplified the search by filling in their own names on one of the forms.

The plea for volunteers was underlined by the fact that the county has been receiving more blood for its hospital patients than it has been giving.

Mrs. Charles E. Ray and Mrs. Felix Stovall will be in charge of the registration of donors and other arrangements being handled by the Waynesville area Gray Ladies.

Accompanying the Bloodmobile here will be Homer H. Kidd, administrative director of the Asheville Regional Blood Center, with the physicians, medical technicians and nurses who will take care of the medical phase of the program.

To facilitate the signal systems on British railways, tests are being carried on with fixed radio stations as well as with transportable sets on vehicles and by ground staffs.

Big Attendance Marks Fruit Growers' School

A two-day Horticulture school here which discussed 11 problems which confront growers closed yesterday after a successful session.

County Agent Wayne King estimated that an average of 200 fruit growers, most of them from Haywood county, attended each of the lectures.

The specialists discussed them every major problem: the use and development of insecticides and fungicides, orchard management and the orchard products.

The school, whose classes held in the Haywood County House, was conducted by the State College Extension, in cooperation with the N. C. Cultural Experiment Station, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.
