MRS. HAZEL McCracken WILLIAMS

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon in the First Baptist church for Mrs. Hazel McCracken Williams, who died of a heart attack on Thursday about 11 o'clock.

The Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the church, officiated and interment was in Green Hill Cemetery.

Active pallbearers were the following nephews: Tom McCracken, Jr., Earl McCracken, Louis McCracken, Donald McCracken, Billy McCrary and Luke Terrell.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the American Legion Auxiliary and the Gold Star Parents. Mrs. Williams, a native and lifelong resident of Haywood county, was the daughter of the late Manson J. and Lorena Welch McCracken. She was a member of the First Baptist church and, as a member of the Lake Junaluska Home Demonstration Club, she was active in home demonstration work in the county.

She was also a member of the Haywood County Post No. 47, American Legion Auxiliary and the Gold Star Parents.

Mrs. Williams had been named a census enumerator and was attending a training course for workers at the time she was stricken. Surviving are the husband, Frank R. Williams; one daughter, Miss Frances Williams, a student at Meredith College, Raleigh; two sons, John Julius of Asheville and Larry of Philadelphia, Pa.; one brother, Jack McCracken of Bethel. Also three sisters, Mrs. Glenn Terrell of Waynesville, RFD 2; Mrs. Charles B. McCrary of Clyde, RFD 1; and Mrs. Orville Noland of Waynesville; four half-sisters, Mrs. Kathleen Allison and Mrs. Beatrice Swayngim of Charlotte, Mrs. Clyde Calhoun of Newport News, Va. and Mrs. Drake Edens of Columbia, S. C.; and one half-brother, Moses McCracken of Newport News, Va. Garrett Funeral Home was in charge.

MRS. DORA YOUNG STANLEY

Funeral services for Mrs. Dora Young Stanley, 34, of West Asheville, wife of J. D. Stanley, who died Friday at the home following a long illness, were conducted Sunday afternoon in the Abernathy Methodist Church, West Asheville.

The Rev. T. A. Groce, pastor, officiated and burial was in Green Hill Cemetery here.

Pallbearers were John May, Homer Smith, Lewis Joyner, Ralph Pittillo, Jarman Steedley, and M. M. Andrews.

Surviving in addition to the husband are the mother, Mrs. Sam Freeman of Waynesville; the father, E. M. Young of Seattle, Washington; two brothers, Paul Young

Best Girl Sports In Their Section

Mrs. C. O. Newell, of Crabtree, chairman of the Haywood County Community Development Program, presents the Waynesville section sportsmanship trophy to Mrs. Carl McCracken, Jr., for the Saunook girls' basketball team. The Saunook sextet was awarded the prize at the end of the championship games of the Haywood Community Development basketball tournament at the Waynesville High School gym. They lost the title match to Center Pigeon—but figured getting this prize was at least as good as getting the championship trophy. Standing with Mrs. McCracken, Saunook's high-scoring forward, in the back row are, left to right: Juanita Hill, Arthurine Mehaffey, Bobbie Sparks, and Doris Queen. Front row, left to right: Doris Burgess, Betty Jean Smathers, Ima Jean Hooper, Dorothy Clark, Ruth Phillips, and Doris Phillips. Francis Cove won the sportsmanship trophy for boys in the Waynesville section. The other sportsmanship prizes of the tournament went to the Lower Crabtree girls and the Upper Crabtree boys in the Fines Creek section; and to the Cruso girls and the Thickety boys in the Canton section. ## CLASS D BALL SUITS

PHIL ROOKIE FINE

CLEARWATER, Fla.—(AP)—While visiting here with his aunt, Oliver Reese, just turned 18, told her he'd like nothing better than a tryout with a big league team.

His aunt contacted Philadelphia coach, Cy Perkins, a former catcher. Cy obliged by taking the lad under his wing during a workout.

When the workout was over, Oliver said:

"Mr. Perkins, where are your Class D ball clubs?"

BUCKY AT HOME?

TO KNOW BY JULY

AP Newsfeatures

ORLANDO, Fla.—Bucky Harris says he should know by July whether he feels at home in a Washington uniform.

"You look at home in that suit," offered Franklin W. Yeutter of the Philadelphia Bulletin.

"I'll tell you better about July fourth," said Harris.

Harris led the Senators to American League flags his first two years as a manager back in 1924 and 1925. He beat John McGraw's Giants in the '24 Series. This is his third crack as Nat pilot. His first lasted five years, his second carried through eight seasons. He has also led the Phillies, Tigers and Red Sox.

This is Harris' 22nd season as a big league pilot and only 87-year-old Connie Mack and 62-year-old Joe McCarthy have it on him in seniority. Harris is 53. Mack is in his 33rd season as a manager and McCarthy is beginning his 24th campaign.
