Jesus Carries Cross

AND AS THEY led Him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, porject; Club President Jimmy Mc- See Our Want Ads For Bargains that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed Him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and lamented Him. But Jesus turning unto them said. Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for Me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. For, behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry? Condensed from Luke

The Better Business Bureau participated in a national campaign to curb activities of salesmen pretending to be taking surveys in order to gain entry into homes. Officials point out the campaign was successful but warn that some salesmen or bill collectors may begin using the word "census" to gain entry during the 1950 census.

Francis Cove 4-H Club Sets Up Lord's Acre Plan

By HAZEL HOLLINGSWORTH

Francis Cove 4-H Club last Thursday night heard a discussion of the Lord's Acre movement and its possibilities as a club project.

Later, Robert Boone, chairman of the Francis Cove Community Development Program, offered the club half an acre of land which the members will plant in onions for the project.

Club Vice - President Shirley Sheffield led the discussion of the Lord's Acre plan.

During the meeting, held at the home of Mrs. R. Rickman, local 4-H leader, the members also made plans for raising money for the 4-H

On the lighter side, they gave
