

GO TO CHURCH SOMEWHERE EVERY SUNDAY

The Holy Week Story:—

The Lord Is Risen

AP Newsfeatures

NOW UPON the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments: And they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spake unto you when He was in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered His words. And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things unto the eleven, and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, which told these things unto the apostles. Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves. And they returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon. And as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said unto them, Peace be unto you. Condensed from Luke 24: 1-36

He Is Risen—Easter Lesson

ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—1 Corinthians 15; Luke 24:1-12

On the first day of the week, very early in the morning, women came to the sepulchre bringing spices which they had prepared, and they found the stone rolled away from the opening.

The women found the body of Jesus gone, and as they stood, much perplexed, two men in shining garments stood near them. The women prostrated themselves and heard the men say, "He is risen."

The women ran to tell the apostles, but they refused to believe them, their story seeming "as idle tales." Peter ran quickly to the tomb, however, found Jesus gone, and went away wondering.

Writing to the Corinthians, Paul reveals that he was not one who saw Christ in person after His resurrection, but he, too, saw Him—on the road to Damascus. MEMORY VERSE—1 Corinthians 15:57.

MAGGIE CHURCH

Sunday School at 10 a. m. Supt. Mrs. C. L. White.

Preaching at 7:30 by the pastor. His subject, "Resurrection Assurance," Text, II. Cor. 5:1. "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

We are now in an earthly house; we have another in the heavens. We are now in a tabernacle; we will then be in a building of God. We are now in one that will be dissolved; we will then be in one that is eternal. This one marks our temporary stopping place but that one will mark our eternal home. Think of it in terms of three words: "Out of into."

Out of the body into the presence of the Lord.
Out of earth into heaven.
Out of pollution into purity.
Out of sin into righteousness.
Out of hope into reality.
Out of bondage into freedom.
Out of burdens into rest.
Out of sorrow into joy.
Out of darkness into day.
Out of promise into realization.
Out of faith into fact.
Out of temptations into triumphs.
Out of this tabernacle into our heavenly home.
Out of here into hereafter.
