

False PMA Claims Bring Indictment To Tenn. Man

(Special to The Mountaineer)

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn.—Robert H. Nicks, merchant-farmer, of Station, Tenn., is free on $500 bond today following his indictment and arrest on charge of presenting false claims in connection with the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Bond was posted before U. S. Commissioner James C. Cunningham.

A two-count criminal indictment returned against Nicks in U. S. District Court in Nashville early this month charged misrepresentation in obtaining federal assistance payments for certain fertilizer, lime, and cover crop seed obtained under the Agricultural Conservation Program.

The case is based on evidence uncovered by agents working under the direction of H. S. Patterson, of Atlanta, compliance officer for the Production and Marketing Administration in the Southeast.

Missionary Society Of Free Methodist Meets

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Free Methodist Church held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Margaret Lilly in Hazelwood, Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with Mrs. Jess Moore, presiding.

The meeting was opened with the song, "Let The Lower Lights Be Burning." Charlotte Bishop read the scripture lesson from the second Psalm. Mrs. Ed Ammonds led in prayer.

Those present were: Mrs. B. C. Fugate, Mrs. Jack Fugate, Mrs. W. E. Patton, Mrs. Margaret Lilly, Mrs. Clay Garland, Charlotte Bishop, Mrs. Jess Moore, Mrs. David Underwood, Mrs. Glenn Painter, Ruth Bruber and Mary Gladys Tubb.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The various officers made their reports. Mrs. David Underwood made a very interesting talk on the experiences of Jacob DeShazer, Free Methodist missionary to Japan.

Ruth Gruber read an article on Stewardship. Pictures of our missionaries were given to each member for prayer partners. After the business meeting, our hostess, Mrs. Lilly, served delightful refreshments, in buffet style.

When you want to make Lemon Butter to serve over broiled fish fillets, use a tablespoon of butter or margarine and a teaspoon of lemon juice, creamed together, for each serving; season well with salt and pepper. A teaspoon of finely minced parsley may be added if desired.

Indian Logic

A TOURIST noticed a lazy Indian chief loitering at the door of his wigwam.

"Chief," remonstrated the tourist, "why don't you get a job in a factory?"

"Why?" grunted the chief. "Well, you could earn a lot of money. Maybe 30 or 40 dollars a week."

"Why?" insisted the chief. "Oh, if you worked hard and saved your money, you'd soon have a bank account. Wouldn't you like that?"

"Why?" again asked the chief. "For heaven's sake!" shouted the exasperated tourist. "With a big bank account you could retire, and then you wouldn't have to work any more."

"Not working now," pointed out the chief.

A MYSTERY

Upon being offered some roast chicken, Sam accepted a drumstick.

"Now, Sam, would you like some of this nice stuffing?" asked his mother.

"No, thank you," he replied. And after a thoughtful moment added, "And I don't see why the chickens eat it either."

WORLD WISE

An old farmer was talking to his hired man.

"I don't hold with all this new-fangled stuff they're teaching the kids in school, nowadays," he said. "My kid came home the other day and said they taught him that the world was round."

"But the world is round," said the hired hand. "See there!" said the old farmer. "They've even got you believing it."

CIGAR SHORTAGE

First tramp: "This is the first cigar I've had in three weeks."

Second tramp: "What's been the trouble?"

First: "Had lumbago and couldn't bend over."

Modest Wish

A man, frantic to locate a place to live, asked a naturalist if he knew where he could find a house.

The naturalist replied: "House? Boy, you're getting soft. Why don't you live out in the open air, let old Mother Nature cover you with a blanket of stars, and have the blue firmament above as a roof?"

"Frankly," said the man, "I had in mind something a bit smaller."

They Serve a Purpose

"Tell me," said an old gentleman, drawing little Johnny out with good-natured teasing, "what are little boys good for, anyhow?"

Johnny considered the question thoughtfully, then sagely replied, "Well, we're good to make men out of."

A Bit Slim

A disreputable-looking character waylaid a member of a swanky club as he stepped into his car.

"Just giving a penny, mister," he whined. "I'm starving."

The member of the club obliged, but could not help remarking: "I'm afraid you won't be able to buy much food for a penny these days."

"It's not for food," said the tramp. "I ain't had a bite now for six days, and I want to weigh myself!"

A small basket is attractive for hot rolls, hot biscuits, and corn bread. Line the basket with a napkin before putting in the rolls and then draw the napkin up over the bread to keep it warm.

Mt. McKinley's Timberline

Tickling the clouds above 20,000 feet, the far-north Alaskan giant, Mt. McKinley, has a low timber line at only 3,000 feet above its base. By contrast, Ecuador's Chimborazo—with an altitude only slightly higher than McKinley's, but a location close to the Equator—has a timber line between 15,000 and 16,000 feet up its slopes.

East Pigeon And Francis Cove In Spelling Match

By Mrs. Dennis Singleton
(Mountaineer Correspondent)

The East Pigeon Community held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday night at the Bethel school auditorium, with a large crowd present.

Van Wells, chairman of the organization, presided.

A feature of the program was a spelling match with a team from Francis Cove. Each team had seven persons, with Tommie Wells of East Pigeon being the only one to spell every word correctly, and won for his team.

The East Pigeon team was composed of Ben Pitts, Mrs. Will Kuykendall, Mrs. Raymond Duckett, Emma Sue Huskey, Mrs. Jim Clark, Tommie Wells and Martha Metcalf.

The Pigeon team was made up of Esther Davis, Hazel Hollingsworth, Edna Hollingsworth, Betty Franklin, Mrs. R. C. Rickman, Mrs. Henry Francis, and Joe Rickman. Mrs. Rickman was the last to miss a word on her team.

Jack Sloan, a member of the Bethel faculty, conducted the spelling bee.

The meeting closed with the singing of several hymns, and the devotional was led by Mrs. Will Kuykendall.

Build up Litter
When the pullets are in the laying house is a good time to start the use of building. Poultry specialists explain that this layer of litter is spread on the floor and as it breaks up a layer is added about every week.

TWIN-CITY BUS LINES

Did You Know---

All Our Trips

Are Not For A Profit ---
— a great many are for Community Service

TWO UNSOLICITED LETTERS

Mr. Tom Lee,
Waynesville, N. C.

Dear Mr. Lee:

The members of the Allens Creek Baptist Church and others that often attend our services wish to thank you for the splendid spirit of co-operation you have extended the church and its services by permitting your buses to haul free any passengers that were attending our services on Sunday. Moreover, we are very grateful to you for putting at our disposal one of your buses several months ago to use exclusively to haul passengers to our church services on Sunday. We used that bus several months and you made no charges for the use of the bus. We paid the gas bill and furnished the driver on Sunday. Words will not convey the thanks we feel in our hearts to you for these gracious favors.

Sincerely yours,
THOMAS ERWIN, Pastor
Allens Creek Baptist Church.

Mr. Tom Lee,
Waynesville, N. C.

Dear Sir,

The Allens Creek School Children want to take this opportunity to thank you for your generosity in the use of your buses. For five years your drivers have stopped each afternoon and picked up all children going up the highway. The bus is always on time and the drivers very patient. If the children have not been dismissed he blows his horn and waits until they are loaded.

We know you have done this because you wanted to be of service to the community, since the children have never paid one penny for your services. Again we wish to thank you.

THE ALLENS CREEK SCHOOL CHILDREN.

For the past six years we have been striving to maintain unexcelled service, and give our patrons the best of safe transportation.

We look forward to extending our lines into the Plat Creek and Hyatt Creek areas in the near future.

We have enjoyed your patronage, and in return have on many, many occasions, tried to be of benefit, and render without charge, some services to worthy causes. This has been done in the spirit of helping build a better community.

Other Services
We Have Rendered
Without Charge

We have furnished without charge, as many as five buses for members to attend a CIO meeting.

We have carried Boy Scouts to their camp above Lake Logan on numerous trips. One time we had a bus damaged by high waters, but with no charges.

Time and time again we have transported members of the High School Band for concerts and parades.

CONVENIENCE
Of The Reader!

Richard H. Edwards, Jr., vice-president of Jordan Marsh Company, the world's largest retail user of advertising space, had this to say recently:

"The newspaper is the one great advertising medium that awaits the convenience of the reader. A newspaper advertisement lives for many hours... and sometimes for days. It is not received in a fleeting moment, it does not have to register within a brief period of time or be lost forever, but it enters the home and is available to every member of the family at a time of his or her choosing"
