

Accessories Give Your Easter Suit Nine Lives MODES of the MOMENT

GYCAT BOW . . . Treatment No. 1 for that spring tailor—size how of crisp taffeta beneath your chin. Use a hoop ear to hold bow together.

STO-CHANGE! A smart girl can make one suit do the work of two in her wardrobe if she has an adequate scarf repertoire and knows how to use it. Here are some new tricks in scarf wearing, illustrating how one simple tailored suit can be changed by a simple turn of the wrist. All scarfs pictured by Glentex.

MIRACLE-COLLAR . . . This versatile collar of striped taffeta can be worn half a dozen ways—gives a clean-lined look to that useful classic tailored suit.

SEMAPHORE SCARF . . . Three silk "signal flags" in contrasting colors are fastened together at the corners to make this unusual scarf.

HAT TIES . . . A bunch of ties forms the motif for these hats, one used as a gay hat-tie.

LAVALLIERE SCARF . . . A jeweled orchid dangles from a scarf of pleated nylon for new neck note.

FRENCH STRIPES . . . One big 36-inch square in two tones makes a turtle-neck gilet for an Easter suit.

MINIKIN . . . Popular 18-inch silk shantung square with fish print makes gay bow tie for a suit accent.

HANDKERCHIEF JABOT . . . Handsome 24-inch square with striped border makes another suit camouflage.
