Bride-Elect Is Honored At Dessert Bridge

Mrs. Phil Medford and Miss Bebe Medford were hostesses of a dessert bridge given Saturday afternoon at the home of the latter in honor of Miss Betty Jane Bradley, bride-elect of June. Mrs. N. M. Medford, mother of Miss Medford, assisted in receiving.

A motif of pink and white was carried out and spring flowers were used in decorating. Tees were in the shape of slippers.

Following the games Mrs. Paul McElroy was awarded high score prize and Mrs. Boyd Medford received the low score prize. The honoree was presented pieces of china in her pattern.

Making up the tables were Miss Bradley, Mrs. McElroy, Mrs. Medford, Mrs. Harry McCracken, Mrs. John Schell, Mrs. Howard Hyatt, Mrs. L. K. Barber, Mrs. Thomas L. Campbell, Jr., Mrs. Joe Massie, Miss Mary Lu Elwood, Miss Alice Fischer, and Mrs. Bill Alexander of Canton.

Mrs. W. A. Bradley, mother of the bride-elect, joined the group for dessert.

Mrs. Harrod Is Honored At Farewell Shower

A handkerchief shower was given last Friday night by the V.F.W. Auxiliary as a farewell courtesy to Mrs. John Harrod, a member of the group who is leaving today for her new home near Savannah, Georgia. The party was given at the home of Mrs. Roy Campbell which was decorated with spring flowers.

The gifts were presented to the honoree by little Miss Sara Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas.

Those present for the occasion were Mrs. Harrod, Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. Charles McDarris, Miss Edna McCracken, Mrs. J. C. Rose, Miss Frances Rose, Miss Clara Dotson and Mrs. Sebe Bryson.

A short business session of the auxiliary was held prior to the party with Mrs. Thomas, president, presiding.

Plans were made for the district V.F.W. meeting in Hendersonville on Sunday and for the sale of Buddy Poppies on National V.F.W. Buddy Poppy Day, May 20.

WTHS Seniors Have Banquet At Mount Valley

The Waynesville Township High School Senior Banquet was held Friday night at Mount Valley Inn on the Soco Gap Road.

A Mardi Gras theme was carried out and the walls were decorated with large masques, paper hats, and horns. Vari-colored paper streamers were also used and place cards were miniature masques.

The class mascots, Danny Leatherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Leatherwood, and Vicky Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Russell, were dressed as clowns.

Charles Womack, president of the class, was master of ceremonies, and the program was in charge of Gene Yarborough.

Prior to the program the group sang, "Happy Birthday," to Donny Leatherwood, Jimmy Galloway and Mary Dorcas Howell, who observed birthdays during the week-end. Carleton Weatherby, school principal, gave the invocation and June Hundley gave a toast to the faculty to which M. H. Bowles, school superintendent, responded.

The King and Queen of Mardi Gras, selected by secret ballot, as the seniors assembled for the banquet, were introduced by Bobby Owen. Kathryn Hyatt was chosen as queen and Donny Leatherwood reigned as king.

A humorous reading, "June Night," was given by Vivian Watkins and Miss Alma Jackson sang, "If I Had My Way," accompanied by Jimmy Galloway.

Mrs. J. M. Kellett, a former member of the school faculty, spoke briefly and the class prophesy was given by Nancy Floyd and Elaine Francis.

The Last Will and Testament was given by Mildred Medford and other numbers included a piano solo by Jimmy Galloway, and a vocal solo, "Through the Years," by Kathleen Calhoun. "Star Dust" was given as a solo by Frank Jaynes.

Nancy and Susie Stamey announced the selection of the class superlatives as follows: prettiest, Kathryn Hyatt; most handsome, Donny Leatherwood; cutest, Patsy Green; best all round, Bob Davis; most popular girl, Vivian Watkins; most popular boy, Charlie Womack; sweetest, Joan Morris; best personality, Bobby Owen; most talented boy, Jimmy Galloway; most talented girl, Kathryn Hyatt; best dancers, Kathleen Calhoun and Sammy Jones.
