

Large Attendance Expected at Ramp Convention Sunday

Event Held At Camp Gap

Pr. 1. First Section

This Ramp Conventioneer believed in getting an early start in life as far as knowing the ramp is concerned. The child was one of the "delegates" to an earlier event.

Officers Elected At Rally

Miss Anne Bischoff was elected President of the Haywood County Methodist Youth Fellowship Sub-District at the Youth Rally, held at Camp Hope last Sunday.

Other officers elected were: Vice President, Albert McCracken of Lake Junaluska; Secretary Janice Corzine of Clyde; Treasurer, Hugh K. Terrell of Bethel; and Corresponding Secretary, Rose Ann Duckett of Canton.

Commission Leaders appointed were: Worship and Evangelism, Jerry Alexander of Canton; Community Service, Connie Holland of Canton; World Friendship, Jewel Williamson of Rockwood; Recreation, Ann Platt of Maggie, Patsy Rhodome of Piney Grove, and Geraldine Keenum of Hazelwood, Publicity, Linda Wood of Canton, and Nancy Medford of Elizabeth Chapel.

Mrs. W. T. Medlin of Clyde was appointed as Adult Councilor for the group.

Miss Bischoff is from the First Methodist Church in Waynesville.

Charlotte Pastor To Speak At Clyde Services

The Rev. Reid Wall, Superintendent and Minister of the Methodist Home in Charlotte, will be the guest minister at the 11:00 worship service at the Clyde Methodist Church Sunday, according to an announcement made today by Rev. W. T. Medlin, Jr., Clyde pastor. Mr. Wall will be one of the teachers in the Haywood County Training School which will begin at 7:30 in the Clyde Church.

sugar for it, and, of course, the ramps, will be given free of charge, as usual.

Among the delegates to the Convention will be a number of state officials. State Treasurer Brandon Hodges, State Agriculture Commissioner L. Y. Ballentine, Assistant State Attorney-General Wade Bruton, and Richard Overton and Bruce Billings, attorneys for the State Employment Security Commission, all have indicated they plan to attend.

Others also are expected. As at previous conventions, there will be the quartets, soloists, duets, and string ensembles playing and singing the old favorites that have always helped provide the air of informality which has marked this annual event.

For fundamentally this is simply a good old-fashioned picnic. "The main purpose of these Conventions," explained Mr. Medford, "is, after all, to bring people together."

to plan their functions for a much larger scale.

The sheriff's department helped by donating a 150-gallon still taken by deputies and police in a raid on the county's liquor manufacturing industry.

Visitors will find it serving, in its remodelled, streamlined form, a more meritorious service next Sunday—making the coffee to go with their ramps.

The food committee, one of the new ones added to the expanding Ramp organization, also will see that those who forget to bring their own lunch will not go hungry.

The members will supply at cost country ham and eggs to supplement the ramps.

The coffee, and the cream and

M. Williamson Wins Lenoir-Rhyne Contest

Malcolm Williamson, Jr., winner of the Knights of Pythias Contest in Haywood County, won the Lenoir-Rhyne College Speaking Contest, held in Hickory last Friday.

He received a gold medal and a scholarship to Lenoir-Rhyne College.

He entered the Extemporaneous contest, and the subject he drew was, "The Future of Germany". He talked on this subject for five minutes.

He will also enter the State speaking contest, held in Raleigh in May.

Danny McClure, winner of this year's DAR Contest, entered the Declamation division at the college, but failed to classify.

L. P. Palmer Heads WTHS Council

Linton Palmer was elected President of the Student Council of Waynesville High School, last Tuesday.

Other officers elected were: Danny McClure, Vice-President; Ann Coman Crawford, Secretary; and Tommy Cogdill, Treasurer.

These officers will serve for the 1950-51 school term. Jimmy Whitman, retiring President, made the announcement of the election returns in school assembly, Wednesday morning.

The campaign manager for the officers, were: President, Jimmy Kuykendall; Vice-President, Carolyn Sayer; Secretary, Sally Howell; and Treasurer, "Spud" Furtado.

Local Baptists To Be On Regional BTU Program

A number of Haywood Baptists will participate in the regional Training Union Convention to be held at Spruce Pine on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Rev. L. G. Elliott, pastor of the First Baptist church here has charge of the worship program on Saturday morning, and also the hymn festival later in the program.

Mrs. Sam Knight, of Hazelwood, is in charge of the speakers tournament on Friday night. Mrs. Knight is regional Young People's Leader.

The first session is Friday afternoon, with other sessions Friday evening and Saturday morning.

Miss Elizabeth Elliott will sing a solo on Saturday morning, and Capers Green will appear in the Friday afternoon tournament of adult Bible readers.

A number from here are expected to attend the convention.

This convention official is sorting a batch of freshly-gathered ramps in preparation for a Convention held earlier. This scene will be repeated shortly before the first visitors arrive at Black Camp Gap Sunday morning for the 20th annual Convention.

HALL RESIGNS LENOIR-RHYNE POST

Lenoir-Rhyne College was looking for a new basketball coach and backfield coach early this week. Brice Hall resigned both jobs effective June 1. Hall had started work at the North State Conference school last fall.

A TRIBUTE TO THE MEMORY OF BILL VALENTINE

We knew the tie of real Friendship, his life was spent in kindness and thoughtfulness of others. His unselfish life endeared him to all who knew him. All the good he has done will never be known until the books are opened over on the other side of life. A true husband and father in his every thought of his family as he continually mentioned them in his daily work and pleasure to every passing friend. So we bid good-bye for a little while to a Wonderful Friend.

We knew the tie of Friendship We shared our cup of Joy And memory is one gift of God That death cannot Destroy. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Wrigley, Jr. of Miami, Fla. Summer home, Lake Junaluska.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during the death of our husband and father, and for the beautiful flowers sent us. Mrs. W. B. Greene and children
