

Martel Mills Hands Local Nine First Loss Of Season

Costly Errors Nullify Heavy Hitting Power

Martel Mills' ball players dropped their first-place Western Carolina Industrial League title Saturday afternoon, bowing to Hazelwood, 9-5, at Martel.

Headcoach Gene Grogan kept his ten hits well scattered, but costly errors nullified his hitting power. The eighth-inning disaster was the difference that meant the difference between a perfect Hazelwood double play and two Martel errors.

Ammons limited the Martels to a single hit in the two remaining frames he worked after Grogan.

Hazelwood's matched the Martel hit for hit, collecting 11 runs. Bob Pitts and Bill Milner led the losers' offensive, each hitting two for four, with Milner a hamper with none aboard, and the locals' first loss in league starts.

The team will meet Beacon Mills at 3 p.m. Saturday in their first home game since their opener.
