Models Shown At Fashion Show To Be Varied

Clothing of all types will be shown in the Fashion Show to be held next Tuesday when the Haywood County Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs meets at the First Methodist Church. Models will be representatives of the twenty-three clubs in the county and will show garments of their own making. Awards and ribbons will be presented winners in five classes, ranging from cotton house dresses to evening dresses. Judging will be based on the general appearance of the garments—choice of material, color, pattern, and suitability for the occasion—and constructive details as related to general appearance.

Training School At Clyde Church Is Successful

Carl King, executive secretary of the Board of Education of the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church, termed the Training School for Christian Workers held in the Clyde church this week, "the best training school ever held in my sixteen years experience." More than two hundred and twenty-five persons were enrolled in the school and one hundred and seventy-eight of this number received credit for the training—having attended each session and completed additional requirements. The training school, sponsored jointly by all Methodist Churches of Haywood County, was held four consecutive evenings, beginning Sunday. Three courses were conducted as follows: Friendship and Marriage, taught by the Rev. J. Claud Evans of the South Carolina Conference; The Teachings of Jesus, taught by Prof. C. E. Ray of Brevard College; and Teaching Children, taught by Mrs. W. R. Reed of Salisbury. Refreshments were served by the women of the hostess church between classes on the last evening.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Held By Fines Creek Group

The Mother-Daughter Banquet was held at the Fines Creek High School May 4 at 7:30. Seventy daughters and mothers attended. The men teachers along with Carl Greene, Tom Brummitt, Furman Noland, Steve Veracko, Cauley Rogers and "Scottie" Oliphant were the waiters and dish washers. Everyone was pleased with the new kitchen built by the county with the assistance of the Home Economics girls, their teacher, Mrs. T. D. Brummitt and T. D. Brummitt, who generously gave his help to the carpenter work and laying of the asphalt tile. A program entitled, "In The Garden," was given, with the following taking part: Miss Frances Orr, Betty Jo Russel, Cenle Ferguson, Mrs. Mark Ferguson, Mrs. Jeanette Chase, Mrs. T. D. Brummitt, Major Cecil Brown, Muriel Ferguson, and Mrs. June Ferguson. The glee club also gave a special number during the program period.

Iron Duff Churches To Observe 4-H Day

Sunday, May 14, has been set aside throughout the United States as 4-H Day. A program by members of the 4-H Club will be given in both the Iron Duff Churches on that day. Every 4-H member is urged to attend the Sunday service. Methods of preserving cattle-hides and making them into leather soles were first described by Homer in the Iliad almost 2,900 years ago. Television tubes now range in size from 3 inches to 30 inches in diameter. Engineers say they can even be made larger.
