SEMINARY APPROVED FOR WAKE FOREST

Approval was given officially by the Southern Baptist Convention last week to plans for the establishment of a Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary at Wake Forest. The action was taken during an assembly at Chicago. The 10,000 delegates also drew up a petition asking President Truman to terminate immediately the office of U. S. representative and the embassy to the Vatican.

Haywood Library To Sponsor Essay Contest

The Haywood County Public Library is sponsoring an Essay Contest on the Cherokees. The contest is open to students in the county or town schools and entries will be accepted from anyone in the fourth grade up. There are no restrictions as to the length and essays will be judged according to age and grade. Method of treatment, length, and subject approach are up to the student and any phase of the Cherokee is acceptable, whether it be history, legends, present life, arts and crafts or games. The deadline for all entries is July 15th.

Prizes of tickets to "Unto these Hills," donated by Carl Sink, publicity director, will be awarded the five highest winners with the First Prize as 5 tickets; Second Prize four tickets; and so on down to fifth place.

Miss Ida Penny, chairman of the Literature Committee of the Waynesville Woman's Club, in cooperation with several other members, will act as judges. The Contest is being sponsored by the librarians of Western North Carolina and comes as the outgrowth of several meetings held recently to discuss ways of promoting regional interest in the drama. A special exhibit of books and pamphlets pertaining to the Cherokees is being planned at the County Library and may be used for background reading.

Following is a list of rules for Haywood County: 1. The essay may be written on any subject pertaining to the Cherokees. 2. Entries will be accepted from anyone in the 4th grade up. 3. The Essay must be typed or written in ink. 4. The essay must bear the name, age, grade and address. 5. All essays must be turned in to one of the following people by July 15, 1950: Miss Margaret Johnston, County Librarian. Mrs. James Atkins, Jr., Waynesville Library. Robert Russell, Bookmobile. Mrs. M. P. Haynes, Clyde Town Hall. Mrs. J. R. Stevens, Sr., Canton Public Library. 6. Prizes will be tickets to the drama, "Unto these Hills". 1st prize—5 tickets; 2nd prize—4 tickets, 3rd prize—3 tickets; 4th prize—2 tickets, 5th prize—1 ticket.

Mickey Rooney Stars In "Quicksand" At Strand

Mickey Rooney, the one-time child star and later film musical comedy headliner, turns into a tough, rough law-breaker for the first time in his new motion picture, "Quicksand," which comes to the Strand Theater on Wed.-Thurs. through United Artists release.

In this second picture he's made for producer Samuel H. Stiefel, Mr. Rooney plays the part of a young garage mechanic who steals $20, intending to repay it only to find himself caught in a chain of events leading to larceny and murder. Two beautiful stars, Barbara Bates and Jeanne Cagney are the loves in the young man's life—Miss Bates playing the girl who is faithful and Miss Cagney the girl who has no faith.

Featured with them is that favorite menace, Peter Lorre, who pours his soft-spoken, oily villainy into the role of a night-spot owner with a blackmailing heart. Taylor Holmes and Al Smith, two Broadway and Hollywood veterans, round out the highly-talented cast.

A fast-moving action drama, "Quicksand" is an original story written for the screen by Robert Smith. The picture was directed by film veteran Irving Pichel and produced by Mort Briskin.
