

CONTUSION EXPLAINED
 PHILADELPHIA (UP)—The director of a police boys' club was baffled by several of his basketball players, who sometimes tossed the ball to players on opposing teams. Tests showed the errors were due, not to carelessness, but to color blindness. The erring players couldn't distinguish one colored jersey from another.

Candidate For Supreme Court Haywood Visitor

Judge Oscar O. Efrid, Winston-Salem attorney, was a Waynesville visitor Wednesday in behalf of his campaign for Supreme Court Judge.

Judge Efrid, a former professor at Carolina, remembered having W. Roy Francis in his law classes. Judge Efrid is opposing Judge Emory B. Denny, a present member of the court. Judge Efrid has three college degrees, and for 14 years was judge of the Forsyth county court. He is now practicing law in Winston-Salem.

Dean Bird To Speak At Fines Creek Graduation

Dr. W. E. Bird, dean of Western Carolina Teachers' College, will make the principal address at the Fines Creek High School Commencement next week.

This was announced today by Principal William Bird. Three graduating honor students were named also this week to deliver featured speeches at the annual program.

The principal today announced the valedictorian will be Thomas McCracken.

The salutatory addresses, he added, will be given by Cenle Ferguson and Betty Jo Russell—both, incidentally, stars of last season's girl's basketball teams as well as scholastically top-ranking students. The annual Commencement will be held at 8 P. M. Wednesday at the high school auditorium.

Two Through Bus Routes Will Come By Waynesville

Four new Trailways buses which will be used on the new service of Raleigh-to-Memphis; and Raleigh-to-Birmingham routes, passed here briefly Tuesday afternoon. The new service enables travelers to make the trip between the two cities without a change of coaches.

The buses are equipped with the latest type all-weather temperature control which includes air-conditioning for summer, and special heating system for winter.

A large quantity of national advertising is being used in promoting the establishment of the two new through bus schedules. One of the principal features of the advertising is the fact that the routes go through the Smokies.

All the through buses will make Waynesville a regular stop. The new service gets underway June first. A fleet of 11 buses will be used on the runs.

Livestock Field Day Set For 25th

Arrangements are being made to accommodate between 400 and 500 people at the Livestock Field-Day at the State Test Farm on Thursday, May 25. Howard Clapp, director in charge, said that specialists of Raleigh would be on hand to carry out a program featuring dairy and beef cattle, stressing pastures, dairy research, irrigation systems and milking demonstrations.

The State Test Farm, as well as Extension workers are cooperating in staging the event. The program will begin at ten and be over at about three, Mr. Clapp said.

THE ART OF CUSSING

RICHMOND, Va. (UP)—Dr. Edward C. Echols, a University of Alabama professor, used some strong language when he addressed the Classical Association of the South and Middle West meeting here, but it was all in the interest of learning. Echols read a paper prepared for the meeting entitled: "The Art of Swearing in Latin."
