MOVING DAY AS BUILDING IS RAZED

CHAIRS AND TABLES hurtle through the air as a condemned four-story Chicago building is demolished. Excavation work on an adjoining bus terminal made the structure so unsafe that it was destroyed before furniture stored in it could be removed. (International Soundphoto)

Cherokee Drama
Being Rehearsed
'Round The Clock

Around the clock rehearsals were ordered the second day by Harry Davis, director of the Cherokee Drama, "Unto These Hills", which went into production at Cherokee Mountaintop Theatre June 5 for a summer run opening July 1 with nine successive performances.

A minimum cast of 75, including three Cherokee Indians in major roles, from eight states (North Carolina, Virginia, Tennessee, South Carolina, Texas, New York, Massachusetts, and Pennsylvania) this week were assigned 132 roles calling for 220 costumes. At week's end two of 14 scenes, covering 250 years in the action of the two-act saga-drama, the coming of Desoto and the rejection of war-invitation from Tecumseh, were pronounced rough-finished.

Workers utilized rehearsal lights at night to place seats on the stone tiers of the 3,000-seat Theatre and state highway crews commenced black-topping entry roads and the 800-car parking area.

A steady stream of reservation orders by mail was augmented at week's end by dial system telephones, the first installed in the Great Smoky area, at the theatre and in the general offices in Cherokee, Courtesy Hut on NC 107 at the Theatre entry road intersection.

BUS KIDNAPS AUTO

BOSTON (UP)—A bus "stole" an automobile here. During a snowstorm, William Orphanos parked his new car in the street. When he returned a half hour later it was gone. A bus had locked bumpers with the automobile and carried it several blocks, where the car was found, undamaged.
