SALE OF VITAMIN PILLS BARRED TO GROCERS

ST PAUL (UP)—District Judge Albin S. Pearson ruled that grocery stores in Minnesota can't legally sell vitamin pills.

Pearson made the ruling in a judgment against a grocer who had sided the state board of pharmacy for saying only druggists could sell the tablets.

Pearson said vitamin tablets are "not common household preparations or drugs sold for use for non-medicinal purposes."

Deaths

WALTER W. SETZER

Walter William Setzer, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Setzer, Waynesville, RFD 2, died at the Haywood County Hospital early Tuesday morning after an illness of four months.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Peachtree Baptist Church on Black Camp Gap Road.

The Rev. John Finger officiated and burial was in Lowe Cemetery at Maggie.

Surviving besides the parents are the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jake Setzer of Maggie; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sutton of Waynesville, RFD 2.

Pallbearers were T. A. Sutton, Houston Sutton, John Sutton, Willard Setzer, Francis Fie and Hilliard Sutton.

Walter was a fourth grade student of the Maggie Elementary School and attended Sunday School at the Peachtree Baptist Church.

Garrett Funeral Home was in charge.

10-Year Group Of Champion To Stage Outing 24th

A colorful, and impressive Flag Day program was staged here Wednesday evening by the Elks Lodge of Waynesville.

Following a parade down Main Street, which was led by the high school band, and participated in by the National Guard, Elks, American Legion, Boy Scouts, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and others, the formal ceremonies were held in the main court room.

Alvin T. Ward, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Lodge presided. The program traced the history, purpose and place of the flag, with music by the Band under the direction of Charles Isley, and Mrs. Troy Wyche at the piano.

Joe Casabella served as narrator, tracing the history of the American flag, and the six designs used prior to the present stars and stripes. As he described each design, a Boy Scout would march in the court room and display that particular flag.

After the presentation of the stars and stripes, Dr. Hugh A. Daniel gave the response, pointing out historical events in which the flag had played a prominent part.

Other members of the Lodge participating in the program included: Herbert Singletary, M. E. "Tony" Davis, Robert Corte, and William Dover.

A fast-moving recreation program featuring everything from guessing contests to archery will highlight Champion's 10-year continuous service group party at Camp Hope, on Saturday, June 24.

Detailed plans have been completed for the annual affair which promises to attract more than 300 of the 403 eligible Champion employees.

Reuben B. Robertson, president of the Champion Paper and Fibre Company, will be host for the occasion and will address the group during the after-dinner program.

Reuben B. Robertson Jr., executive vice president of the company, and Dwight J. Thomson, vice president in charge of industrial and public relations are also scheduled to attend.

Barbecued beef will feature the early evening menu which is scheduled to follow one of the most extensive recreational programs ever offered at a Champion employees' party.

Plans for the event are being supervised by J. Bruce Morford, Canton division manager of Industrial and community relations, assisted by staff members. H. A. Helder, Canton division manager, will give the address of welcome to the 59 incoming club members who during the past year completed 10 years of unbroken Champion service.

Library Notes

MARGARET JOHNSTON COUNTY LIBRARIAN

Life stories of 370 persons who figured in the news of 1949 appear in Current Biography 1949, just added to the reference collection of the Haywood County Public Library, Miss Margaret Johnston, Librarian, announced today.

Among the heads of state and political leaders abroad included are Bao Dai, Chief of Government of Viet Nam; Theodore Heuss, President of the Federal Republic of Germany; and Mohammed Hatta, Premier of the United States of Indonesia. International figures, such as Willem A. Visser 't Hoff, General Secretary of the World Council of Churches, appear in this handbook.

Other fields are represented by Eero Saarinen, architect; Claude Rains, Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Ronald Reagan, actors; Ruth St. Denis and Ted Shawn, dancers; Jane Pickens, singer; S. N. Hilton, recent purchaser of New York's Waldorf-Astoria Hotel; David Bradley, author of No Place to Hide, and Frederick Libby, Executive Secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, workers for peace; Judge Harold Medina; Senator Paul Douglas of Illinois, and James V. Bennett, Director of the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

In some instances those whose life stories were in Current Biography 1940 and 1941 (both now out of print) but whose added prominence warrants new sketches — for instance, Eleanor Roosevelt, Dean Acheson, Alben Barkley, Philip Murray, Walter Reuther — are presented again in Current Biography 1949.

Like its predecessors of the past nine years, this yearbook is a one-alphabet cumulation of articles and obituaries that have appeared in the monthly issues during the year. Each sketch includes a photograph and references to additional material. Considerable research makes possible impartial and accurate information, while an informal style adds readability.

A ten-year index includes the names of all whose stories have been told in Current Biography from its beginning in 1940 through December 1949.
