Francis-Harper Wedding Held In Boyd Chapel

The marriage of Miss Audrey Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harper of Ironton, Ohio and Morgan Francis of Newport News, Virginia, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Francis of Waynesville, was solemnized in the Boyd Memorial Chapel of the First Methodist Church here on Saturday morning, June 27, at 10 o'clock.

The Rev. J. E. Yountz, pastor of the church, pronounced the vows in the presence of the families and close friends.

Floor baskets of white hydrangea and regal lilies decorated the chapel altar.

Prior to the ceremony a program of wedding music was presented by Miss Bette Hannah, pianist, and J. D. Hyatt, soloist.

The bride, who was given in marriage by Robert Miller, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, wore a light blue summer suit with navy accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Harry Alcorn of Newport News, Virginia, was matron of honor and wore a pink linen suit with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Harry Alcorn served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were John Penn, Bob Francis, and Billy J. Francis.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was given at the home of the bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, with Miss Louise Francis, sister of the bridegroom, assisting.

The residence was decorated with hydrangeas and lilies and the bride's table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

Others receiving and serving were Mrs. John Penny, Miss Bessie Sue Francis, Miss Barbara Kinsland, Miss Shirley Sheffield, and Miss Eugenia Boone.

Mrs. Francis received nurse's training at the Kanawha Hospital, Charleston, West Virginia and served as a lieutenant in the U. S. Nurses Corps in the European Theatre during World War II. She is at present connected with the Government Hospital in Newport News.

Mr. Francis holds a position with the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company.

Miss Alma Jackson is visiting her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Jackson, at their home in Wickford, R. I. Before returning home she will also visit friends in New London, Conn., and New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Francis

MR. and MRS. FRANCIS were married in the Boyd Memorial Chapel at the First Methodist Church here on June 27. Mrs. Francis is the former Miss Audrey Harper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harper of Ironton, Ohio.

Miss Sarah Jane Robeson Weds C. E. Davidson, III

Miss Sarah Jane Robeson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Norwood Robeson of Hilton Village, Virginia and Charles Edward Davidson, III, son of Mrs. William Eddy Davidson, and the late Mr. Davidson of Sandstone, were married in Grace Methodist Church, Newport News, Virginia, on Saturday, July 1, at four o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. Willard Vaughn Moore, pastor, pronounced the vows and was assisted by Dr. Paul K. Buckles, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Garland F. Robeson of Greensboro, aunt of the bride played a program of nuptial music and accompanied Fredrick Tubbs, member of "The Common Glory" choir, who sang "O Promise Me," "Through The Years," and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an heirloom satin bridal gown by Jane Novick, fashioned with off-the-shoulder neckline, filled in tulle yoke and crushed fichu with satin-rosebuds, tight bodice, tapered sleeves and full bouffant skirt with deep tulle ruffle cascading into an aisle-wide train. She wore a two-tiered finger-tip length veil of imported illusion with blush veil arranged to form a doll cap of illusion and pearls. She carried a fan of imported illusion sprinkled with valley lilies and centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Robert L. Amsler of Wilmington, Delaware, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor, and Lane Robeson, sister of the bride, was flower girl. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Nissley and Miss Jean Atkinson of Hilton Village and Miss Virginia Gall of Newport News.

The honor attendant wore a gown of mauve pink imported organdy styled with a snug bodice of embroidered pique, full skirt and matching organdy stole. She carried a bouquet of white shasta daisies and gypsophyllia.

The bridesmaids wore heavenly blue imported organdy dresses identical in style to that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets of white shasta daisies and gypsophyllia.

The flower girl wore a miniature dress of white satin and carried a white satin basket of rose petals.

Dr. James H. Davison of Durham, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and the groomsmen were Richard M. Irby, Jr. of Richmond, John Goodwyn of Newport News, William Gray Teagle of Hampton and C. Norwood Robeson, Jr., brother of the bride.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents.

Following a wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson will make their home in Sandstone. The bride is a granddaughter of the late Prof. and Mrs. E. J. Robeson of Waynesville.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding was Miss Frances Robeson, aunt of the bride, of Waynesville.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Medford

MR. and MRS. MEDFORD were married on Friday, June 30, in All Souls Episcopal Church, Baltimore. Mrs. Medford, before her marriage, was Miss Dorothea Anne Thompson, daughter of Mrs. Thelma Anderson Thompson of Asheville and Miami. Mr. Medford is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Medford of Waynesville.

Daytime Drama In Hot-Weather Styles

GUIDING LIGHT... That's the name of this summer print dress with cardigan jacket in butcher linen.

TWO TIMER... Gay plaid makes a convertible sun-or-town dress called "The Right to Happiness."
