

Delights
Of The News

Picture

Afternoon when the 4-H up from Iowa arrived, their Haywood hosts, and them stood on the court steps for a picture. Jonathy, who had greeted the guests that all of them in order to get a smile on his face. As he was demonstrating, a photographer turned from the group on the steps to Mr. Woody's face, just as he was smiling. An appropriate caption would be, "The Happiest in the South"—and no doubt he was, because few have taken more interest in the boys and girls than he.

Can Happen

The community's better housewives dressed for a party in four minutes flat.
They could use her name—and her picture for having attained this record, except for the aftermath.

Many of your friends to tell you, but it was she who told.

When I just knew it. Everything in a big hurry sometimes just happens—never knows just how late first. From now on, I'll take all the time I need to get things done. I won't be laughing at the town," she firmly vow-

Good

ing out of the Strand Theater on other night, a small girl cried to her mother:
"Does Red Ryder miss?
I don't know, but I don't miss him either."

ng

in confidence to a friend that he was able to save about 30 cents a week on his grocery bills.
"How do you do it?" asked his neighbor.
"I," he replied, "Coffee only costs 40 cents a pound. Used to cost a pound a week. But I've found out that I'm drinking only half as much coffee. My wife and I are saving a dollar a week more. So I just buy coffee at any price, so that saves at least a dollar a week more."
"He named a few other items and went on in price, explaining how he cut the cost simply by not buying them at all any more, using a lot less."
The recital ended, his neighbor was silent and thoughtful for a moment.
"He beamed and stuck out his tongue," he said, "I don't know what it was, but I don't know what it was."
"I don't know what it was,"
asked his startled neighbor.
"I don't know what it was,"
said the man who was not buying a new car."

n To Advertise

erty For Taxes
The town of Waynesville will be preparing property on Monday for delinquent 1949 taxes. The property being prepared and will be listed in this newspaper on Monday.

The

ather
CLOUDY
Thursday, August 10—Thursday cloudy and warm with occasional showers. Friday party and continued warm.
Special Waynesville Temperature recorded by the staff of the Test Farm:

	Max.	Min.	Precep.
7	79	43
8	81	46
9	79	50

THE WAYNESVILLE MOUNTAINEER

Published Twice-A-Week In The County Seat of Haywood County At The Eastern Entrance Of The Great Smoky Mountains National Park

65th YEAR NO. 64 20 PAGES Associated Press and United Press News WAYNESVILLE, N. C., THURSDAY AFTERNOON, AUGUST 10, 1950 $3.00 In Advance In Haywood and Jackson Counties

TODAY'S SMILE
He: "Have your fiancée's folks accepted you as one of the family?"
Roommate: "Yep, they bawled me out yesterday because I used the guest towel."

It's All Smiles When West Meets Mountaineers

Everyone was happy—Haywood representatives had just met the Iowans as they arrived here Monday when this picture was made on the steps of the court house. From left to right is Wayne Corpene, Haywood county agent; Gus Alsip, Washington county (Iowa), county agent; Miss Ruth Foster, home demonstration agent of Washington county; Miss Jean Childers, assistant home demonstration agent of Haywood; Virginia Griggs, of Iowa, and her Haywood host, Jeanette Leopold; kneeling, Harry Duenning and his Haywood host, David Noland. Harry was all set to turn the odds on The Mountaineer photographer and swap pictures, but was in too big a hurry to get to the Noland farm in Ratcliffe Cove. (Staff Photo.)

180 Leaving Monday For Out-Of-State Farm Tour

Iron Duff To Hold Homecoming Day August 20

August 20 will be Homecoming Day for current and past residents of Iron Duff.
The day-long program will start with the Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock at the Antioch Baptist Church.
The Rev. J. E. Sampley of Lake Junaluska, a retired minister, will preach the sermon.
A picnic lunch will be held following the services.
During the afternoon, there will be a Memorial Service for Iron Duff residents who died during the past year.
Other features of the program will be brief talks and singing by visiting quartets.
Charles Isley will be in charge of the music for the Memorial Service.
All present and former residents of the community are invited to come with picnic baskets.

Labor Day Plans Moving Forward Down At Canton

General Chairman C. C. Poindexter announces that plans are moving forward for staging Canton's 44th Annual Labor Day and Fall Festival Celebration. Committees are busy working on the various phases of the program and invite suggestions from anyone.
Activities will get under way (See Labor Day—Page 6)

Junaluska Queen

MISS FRANCES HARRIETT COBB, 21-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cobb of Largo, Florida, was elected 1950 Queen of Lake Junaluska, Tuesday.

4-H Group Having Big Time Here

Approximately 180 Haywood County farmers, farm wives, and farm boys and girls will leave here at 6:30 a.m. Monday on their eighth annual "Out-Of-State Farm Tour."
This was the latest highlight in a week of highlights that started for the 4-H Clubbers from Washington County, Iowa, when they first arrived here shortly after 4 p.m. Monday for a week's visit.
In spite of their long trip from home, most of the boys and girls, apparently blessed with an inexhaustible supply of enthusiasm, were ready for more action Monday evening.
Some spent a quiet evening getting acquainted at the homes of their hosts in the different sections of the county.
Others spent a quiet evening getting acquainted with their hosts at informal picnics at scenic spots.
Tuesday, they participated in events in the communities in which they are staying.
Yesterday, they were taken on a tour of the Biltmore Estate and farm as guests of the Waynesville Lions Club.
Then, after a picnic on Mount Pisgah, they returned to Waynesville for a swimming party at the 4-H Club Camp.
For dinner, they were guests of Jonathan Woody at a barbecue at his home.
After the beef cattle tour today, they will be luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Galloway at their Graceland Farms.
This afternoon, they will tour The Champion Paper and Fibre Company's plant at Canton as guests of the company.
Following a swimming party at the 4-H Camp, they'll be dinner guests of the Waynesville Secre- (See Iowa—Page 6)

Miss Cobb Chosen Queen Of Junaluska

Miss Frances Harriett Cobb, a rising senior and sociology major at Wesleyan College in Macon, Ga., defeated three other candidates to win the election for 1950 Queen of Lake Junaluska, Tuesday.
At Wesleyan College she is a member of the YWCA Cabinet, and President of the Sociology Club for the coming year.
She is also a member of the Tennis Club at the college and is Supervisor of the Ivey Playground at the Lake.
Miss Barbara Caruthers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Caruthers of Tallahassee, Fla., was runner-up and will be maid of honor.
The other candidates were: Miss Betty Anne Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robinson of Hickory; and Miss Claudia Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Vincent of Dillon, S. C.
Miss Cobb was sponsored by the Lake Junaluska Soda Shop, and will be crowned August 19.

Judge J. Will Pless Signs Restraining Order Halt Beer Election

Large Crowd Witness 85 Shoot Old Time Rifles

E. L. Horton of Democrat is the new grand champion of the Cataloochee Ranch's annual Hog Rifle Shoot.
He topped a field of 85 sharpshooters that included two former grand champions during the day-long event at the ranch on 5,000-foot Fire Top Mountain.
The contestants came from six different states.
Goler Green of Purchase Mountain, the 1949 grand champion, and Frank Rich of Maggie, the 1948 tillist, couldn't quite place in the close race for honors in the four age groups.
Mr. Horton at the same time upheld the "oldsters' dominance of the top prize. He was competing in the group for marksmen 60 years old and older when he won the grand championship.
Approximately 400 people, making up the largest crowd of spectators to see a match since the 1948 event, watched the marksmen take their three shots with their muzzle-loaders at the diamond-shaped bull's eyes on the charred-wood targets.
The shooting began at approximately 9:30 A. M. and continued through the afternoon.
Judging the event were R. L. Prevost, Sr., of Hazelwood, chairman of the tribunal; Carl Ray of Silver Springs, Fla., and Horace W. Woody of Covington, W. Va.
W. A. Bradley and Jonathan Woody served as master of ceremonies.
The Cataloochee String Band provided the musical background.
At noon, the contestants and spectators retired to the ranch house for a light lunch and refreshments.
Represented in the competing field, besides North Carolina, were South Carolina, Tennessee, (See Hog Rifle—Page 6)

Sunday Speaker

ADMIRAL W. N. THOMAS will be the featured speaker at the 20th Cataloochee Reunion to be held Sunday at Palmers Chapel, on Cataloochee. The address will be at the eleven o'clock service, followed by the usual picnic dinner at noon. Mack Caldwell is president, and an attendance of about 1,000 people are expected to attend.

Hannah Is Named YDC President

Wingate Hannah of Waynesville was elected president of the Haywood Young Democrat Club last night at the group's annual election meeting in the Haywood County Court House.
He succeeds Vanar Haynes, Clyde mayor who resigned last winter to run for the Democratic nomination for county tax collector.
The county Young Democrats also elected Mrs. Raymond Caldwell of Iron Duff, vice-president; Mrs. D. D. Alley, Waynesville, second vice-president; Bill Plot of Jonathan Creek, secretary; and re-elected Jerry Rogers of Hazelwood, treasurer.
The 1950-51 officers were installed immediately after the election.

Indian Land Bill Okayed By Interior Dept. Group

The Cherokee Indians this week advanced another step in their efforts to bring more business to their Reservation.
The Associated Press reported a U. S. Interior Department subcommittee okayed a House-approved bill which would authorize the leasing of part of the Reservation for 40 years for business purposes.
The lease on a small tract of Indian land would be granted to the Farmers Federation Cooperative of North Carolina.
Federal law restricts the maximum lease on Indian lands to ten years. This has been the major obstacle in efforts to establish new business on the Reservation.
Senators McFarland of Arizona and Lehman of New York, who attended the sub-committee session couldn't get together on the exact form of the bill and said they would submit it to the full committee.
James McClure, president of the North Carolina Farmers Federation Cooperative, said his organization planned to install refrigeration facilities, dairy machinery, and other equipment to make farming more profitable for the Indians.
The Swain County Merchants Association expressed opposition to a section of the measure restricting to the cooperative the right to lease the Indian land (See Cherokees—Page 6)

New Set Of Petitions Needed For Election

Judge J. Will Pless, of Marion, signed a restraining order Wednesday afternoon, halting the wine and beer election scheduled for September 2nd here in Haywood.
Judge Pless held that the former board of elections did not conform with the technical points of the law and advertise within 30 days after calling the election last February. The board originally set August 12th as the date for the election.
Judge Pless, in direct answer to a question by Rev. D. D. Gross, of Clyde, said that in his opinion, new petitions would have to be signed in order to legally call the election. By this action, Judge Pless ruled that the second set of petitions, upon which the board called the election, were now null and void.
Rev. Mr. Gross answered, by explaining, "we have secured two petitions previously to this asking for an election on the question of abolishing the legal sale of wine and beer in Haywood, so I presume we can get a third set, if necessary."

Cove Creek Boy Heads State FFA

Kenneth Perry, Fines Creek High School student from Cove Creek, is the new state president of the Future Farmers of America. He was elected to the organization's highest state office yesterday during the organization's 22nd annual convention at Raleigh.
Kenneth was the only Western North Carolina boy named to any of the top state offices.
The elections were held during the closing session of the state convention.

Annual Duke Day Program To Be Held Saturday

Arrangements are being completed for the annual Duke Day observance at Lake Junaluska Saturday.
Dr. A. Hollis Edens, president of Duke University, will make the featured address at the annual dinner.
The evening program will open with the prayer offered by the Rev. George B. Ehlhardt, president of Breward College.
Special music will be played by the Junaluska Quartet, then Charles A. Dukes, director of alumni affairs for the University, will report word from the "old grads".
Don S. Elias, president of the Asheville Citizen-Times Company and graduate of the Duke class of 1908, will introduce Dr. Edens.
A complete recreation program has been lined up for the alumni and their guests.
At noon, Dr. and Mrs. Edens, with other University officials will be guests at a luncheon at the Waynesville Country Club.
Among those attending will be Edwin Jones, executive of the J. A. Jones Construction Company of Charlotte and a member of the University's Board of Governors; Mr. Dukes, and Heber Smith, Mr. Dukes' assistant, and their wives.
The day's program also calls for (See Duke Day—Page 6)

46 Young People From Iowa Met By Haywood 4-H Club Members

In this picture on the court house steps are the 46 members of the Washington county, Iowa 4-H Club, and their hosts, members of Haywood 4-H Clubs, as they met Monday afternoon. Soon after this picture was made the groups went to homes throughout the county for a week's stay here. They have had a busy schedule, which will end with a party-dance Saturday night. The Iowans will begin their trip home on Sunday. (Staff Photo.)

Highway Record For 1950
In Haywood
(To Date)
Injured . . . 21
Killed . . . 5

(This information compiled from Records of State Highway Patrol)