Younger Set

They were greeted by members of the Haywood County 4-H Club, who then took them to their homes for the weeks stay.

On Wednesday morning the group journeyed to Asheville to tour the Biltmore Estate, and returned around 2 o'clock. Then they went out to the 4-H Camp for a swimming party.

Wednesday night they were invited to Jonathan Woody's for a barbecue supper.

Today they are going to tour the farms of Haywood County and tonight they plan to go to Cherokee to see the Drama, "Unto These Hills."

Some of the townies had never seen a mountain until they got to Kentucky, and now they talk about them almost everytime you see them.

They're a swell bunch of folk, and we just wish they could stay longer than a week.

Next time you have pastry dough leftover, cut it into two-inch squares and fill with a little brated cheese; draw up corners of squares over filling turnover-style.
