Iowa 4-H Club Group In High Praise Of Haywood

Larry Campbell—"I have been impressed by the pretty girls, the hospitality, and resourcefulness of the people. I shall always remember Haywood County."

John Spencer—"I think it is a fine place to go for a while, but I would not want to stay all the time."

Dick Brinning—"I think the friendly hospitality is top. Sorry I can't stay longer."

Miss Ruth Foster, one of the leaders—"As an extension worker, I've noticed the friendly cooperative spirit of the people, the interest they all take in farm home and community improvement. They have many fine leaders, and Haywood county will continue to be a leader in North Carolina."

Bob Klure—"Haywood county left its best impression on me by the friendliness of the people, their ambition to get ahead. It beats any place I've ever seen. The way the people took us in their homes and made us feel as if we had known them for ever. I wish I could have stayed longer."

Nancy Bales—"The mountains are very pretty. I've been in one of the best homes in Haywood county, and I've enjoyed the scenery. The trip home came too soon."

Lola Ruth Faris—"We must think of the whole county, and not just a few people, because everyone has cooperated to make our impression I got of Haywood county was that the people are much more friendlier than the ones from Washington county, and the people take the best of care of what they have instead of abusing them."

Janice Booth—"It is really beautiful although I feel a little closed in! I'm going to feel like I'm really out in the open when I get home. This trip has really been an educational trip and I think it should be continued so that more could realize the wonderful South."

Mary Twinam—"I enjoyed the nice Southern hospitality, and the home I stayed in. I liked the beautiful mountains, and the scenic places."

Ralph Knotek—"Friendliness and cooperation makes Haywood county a wonderful place to live. The people welcome you so heartily and kindly and give so greatly to a meal. Everyone is generous in worthwhile donations to make our visit an interesting, educational, and friendly one. I think this is a wonderful exchange for everyone concerned, and I hope this place may be extended in the future."

Belle Day—"The thing I liked trip pleasant."

Donald Mayer—"I thought the people very friendly, and helpful. They did everything possible to make our trip a success."

Joellen Olinger—"I think Haywood county is a wonderful place. I had a fine time on my visit here, but the time has been too short. It has been an educational trip, and we saw so many points of interest. The people of Haywood are very friendly, and make you feel at home. I think this exchange of visits should be continued."

Bill Rowe—"I have enjoyed everything so much it is impossible to single out just one thing. I shall always remember the friendliness of the people. I would like to return to Haywood county again in the near future."

Donna Cave—"The scenery is beautiful and the Southern hospitality is truly what it is said to be. The people are very friendly and have made us feel very much at home."

LuElla Sojka—"I was impressed by the reception we received. The police escort and cars waiting at the county line made us feel that everyone in the county knew we were coming and were really looking forward to seeing us. I think most of the Washington county kids had never had a chance to travel far and were impressed by the mountains, tobacco, and the Southern hospitality. It really doesn't seem like we are so far from home. I thought both tours were nice."

Virginia Griggs—"The thing in Haywood county that impressed me the most was the true friendliness of the people. Although I was here for less than a week the people made me feel as if I had lived here all of my life. The mountains more or less fascinated me, but the way I was treated will be what I remember the longest."

Dorothy Schoeffer—"I truly enjoyed every activity and had lots of fun. The mountains were very beautiful and interesting. I had wonderful hospitality and everyone everywhere we went was very nice. We all wish to extend our thanks and gratitude to all who helped to plan our fun."

Cliff Corpman—"The way the people tend to the soil and mingle with each other in the community impressed me more than anything else."

Dorothy Stanffer—"I am impressed with the mountains, also the small farms. I like to hear the people talk. The scenery all around is very becoming."

Virginia Dare—"The impression I got of Haywood County, North Carolina is a very good impression. All of the people are very friendly and they make you feel at home. The county is beautiful. I love the mountains, but there will never be a better sight to see when we get back home than a great big field of hogs."

Harry Duensing—"Beautiful country, but I'd hate to farm the rougher mounds here; otherwise I'd like to live here."

Isabelle Combs Booth—"I've especially enjoyed the people. Southern hospitality couldn't be expressed any more deeply in the deepest South than it has during our stay here. The scenery is beyond words of expression. I love Haywood county, its people and its agriculture."

Merna Robison—"I think Haywood County represents a great amount of energy put forth in home and ground improvements. I was particularly impressed by the no Union, no strike, Champion Fibre Company. The people are the most friendly, gracious people I can imagine. The scenery certainly cannot be surpassed."

Charles Baetholon, Jr.—"The

most about the Haywood people was their hospitality. The scenery is very beautiful. I have had such a wonderful time. I hate to go home."

Peggy McDowell—"Every time I go to Haywood county I hope it would be the same wonderful—even ham sandwiches. I have enjoyed it so much."

Burtwin Day—"I think it has been a wonderful experience for people of my age and the exchange should be continued."

LaVerne Shelman—"The friendliness of the people and the beautiful mountains very impressed me most of all."

Joyce Kleese—"I was impressed by the mountains and Southern hospitality. I could take home the ability to chicken the way they do."
