Miss Nancy C. Furtado Is Bride Of Harry Jaynes

Miss Nancy Charlotte Furtado, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Furtado of Waynesville, formerly of Fall River, Mass., became the bride of Harry Jaynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Hugh Jaynes of Lake Junaluska in a ceremony at St. John's Church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock.

The Rev. C. S. Hill pronounced the vows.

Arrangements of clematis and floor baskets of white gladioli and white dahlias decorated the altar.

Prior to the wedding a program of music was presented by Miss Bette Hannah, organist. The numbers included "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring," by Bach; "Panis Angelicus" by Franck; "Andante" by Mendelssohn; "Nocturne" by Mendelssohn; and "Claire de Lune," by Debussy.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of white organdy over white moire taffeta, fashioned with pointed basque bodice, long sleeves ending in points at the wrists, and a sweetheart neckline with Victorian collar. Her fingertip veil of French illusion fell from a coronet of valley lilies and she carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and showered with satin streamers and valley lilies.

Miss Grace E. Furtado was maid of honor and her sister's only attendant. She wore a dress of white organdy over pale blue taffeta and carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Bruce Jaynes, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Wingate Hannah, Charles Shackleton, Raymond Phillips, and Joseph Turner.

Mrs. Furtado, mother of the bride, wore an afternoon dress of metal gray with black accessories and a corsage of red roses.

Mrs. Jaynes, mother of the bridegroom, was attired in a navy blue dress with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at The Lodge.

The bride's table was covered with an Italian lace cloth and was decorated with clematis and white gladioli. A three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom centered the table.

Assisting in receiving were Mrs. Bruce Jaynes, Miss Iris Jaynes, Miss Bette Hannah, Miss Ann Mormino, Mrs. Hallett Ward, Mrs. Leo Martel, Miss Lorraine Martel, and Mrs. Jamie Love Taliaferro.

After the reception the couple left for a short wedding trip. For traveling the bride wore a navy blue butcher linen suit with white collar and cuffs, white accessories, and the orchid from her prayer book.

Mrs. Jaynes was graduated from St. John's High School and attended the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Until the time of her marriage she was a student nurse at Rex Hospital School of Nursing, Raleigh.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Western Carolina Teachers College and at present holds a position as head coach at Monroe High School. The couple will reside at Monroe.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were Miss Lorraine Martel and Robert Pratcher of Oak Ridge, Tenn.; Charles C. Shackleton, uncle of the bride of Raleigh, Miss Betty Maud Russey, Miss Grace Furtado, and Fowler Morrison, all of Raleigh.

Mrs. Medford Is Hostess Of Junaluska Club

The Junaluska Home Demonstration Club held an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Will Medford on Friday.

The morning hours were devoted to business which included the following reports of project leaders: gardens, Miss Elizabeth Glosser and Mrs. Ceph Clark; family life, Mrs. L. G. Dotson; food preservation, Mrs. Carol McCracken; home beautification, Mrs. Will Medford; and clothing, Mrs. A. J. McCracken and Mrs. Dock Boyd.

Mrs. Coyd Noland gave an account of the Dress Revue at Cullowhee.

During the afternoon Miss Mary Cornwell, home agent, gave a demonstration on furniture refinishing. Mrs. A. J. McCracken, president, presided.

Dolores Phillips Is Married To W. A. Booth

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Phillips of Waynesville and Norfolk, Virginia have announced the marriage of their daughter, Miss Phyllis Dolores Phillips, to Wynn Alton Booth, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Booth of Norfolk.

The ceremony took place in the home of the Rev. Clyde Collins, pastor of the Bethel Methodist Church on Friday evening, August 18, at seven o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Collins pronounced the vows in the presence of a few close relatives and friends.

White flowers formed an altar in the living room and the couple entered together. The bride wore a suit of navy gabardine with matching accessories and a corsage of white rose buds.

Mrs. William L. Black, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor and William L. Black served as best man.

Mrs. Booth was educated in the Norview High School at Norfolk. Mr. Booth is a graduate of Maury High School at Norfolk and now holds a position at Dayton Rubber Company.

The couple is residing in the Bethel Community.

MRS. RAY VISITING THE GUY MASSIES

Mrs. Bette Hannah, who was a patient at the Haywood County Hospital last week, is convalescing at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Massie.

Lamp Workshop Is Held By Maggie Club

Members of the Maggie Home Demonstration Club held a lamp workshop at an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Dave Platt on Thursday.

The workshop, directed by Miss Mary Cornwell, was on the making of lamps from pottery bases.

Special guests for the meeting were Clyde Westbrook, farm agent from Florida, and Mrs. Westbrook. Mr. Westbrook spoke briefly on his work.

Mrs. Herbert Platt, president was in charge of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Robertson and children, Michael and Patricia, of Baltimore are guests of Mrs. Robertson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Medford.
