Library Notes

MARGARET JOHNSTON
COUNTY LIBRARIAN

BORROWED

Practically every day we have requests for books we do not have in our collection. With the last few weeks the following books have been borrowed from other libraries to meet special needs for our borrowers:

Ballet-Lovers Pocket Book; Borzoi Book of Ballet; Chicago Confidential; Standard Construction Methods; Steel Construction Methods; Chief Contemporary Dramatists; Man With the Golden Arm; Taxidermy; It Was Like This; Jungle Trails; Winter Bouquets With Color; Thunder in the Mountain; Hawk, The White Indian; Summer at Yellow Singers; New Ways in Discipline; South of Yesterday; Painting as a Pastime;

In Quest of Lost Worlds; Waters of Silo; Seeds of Treason; American Freedom and Catholic Power; Art of Flower Arrangement; American Flower Arrangement; I Was There; Irreverent Mr. Menchen; John C. Calhoun;

Critique of Pure Reason; Palestine Old and New; Immortal Lovers; Life of the People in Bible Times; Manual of Egyptian Archaeology; Rosevelt in Retrospect; Diary from Dixie; Childbirth Without Fear;

One Two Three . . . Infinity; Russian Journal; Tennyson's Cowboys and Indians; When Children Ask; No Other White Man; Wigwam Evenings; Indians in White Camp; Every Man Looks Forward; Great Crusade and After; Painting and Decorating Craftsman's Manual.

There have been many more requests which we were unable to fill because other libraries were using their copies.

Have You Seen?

The Bulletin Board with pictures from some of our Activities this Summer is of interest to various ages. It shows some of the Activities planned for adults and quite a number depict the story of the work with children.

In the Adult group you will find pictures of the Flower Show, the Indian Crafts exhibit and the Wood carvings of G. B. Chilbosky. There are book lists on Summer Reading. The Cherokees, Fishing is Fun and Better Gardens With Books That Tell You How. Now we wish we had taken pictures at our Book Talks made by Sara Jenkins, Colonel Kermit Hunter and John Parke.

In the Children's group there are many scenes from the Cherokee Indian Reading Club from both white and colored children. The Powwows included a visit from fifteen Indian children from Cherokee, Mr. and Mrs. Corydon Bell from Sapphire and Chief Standingdeer, a favorite of our boys and girls. There are pictures too of Gary Evans and Johnny Sloan who were presented tickets to the drama, "Unto These Hills," for their essays and another of all the children with Chief Standingdeer.

You will want to see too the chalk drawings Corydon Bell made of Pawnee and Mountain Boy and the original drawing he presented to the Library. One look at these pictures will certainly show you just how busy our summer has been.

Elderly Folks To Be Honored September 10

A homecoming program will be held in the Shoal Creek community September 10 honoring the elderly people of that section of Jackson County.

The event will be held at the Shoal Creek Baptist Church, on Highway 107.

The Rev. O. J. Beck, the pastor, said in his announcement today that all former pastors, members, and singers are cordially invited to attend.

In fact, everyone is invited to come and bring a basket lunch.

Kill Garden Worms

Use five per cent chlordane dust to kill wire-worms and grubs in the garden soil. Put 20 ounces of the dust on each 1000 square feet of soil just before disking or spading and work well into the top few inches.
