Sunday School Lesson

PAUL, WORLD EVANGELIST

International Sunday School Lesson for September 24, 1950 MEMORY SELECTION: "I decided to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ and him crucified."—I Corinthians 2:2

The scriptural background for this lesson for this week is taken from Paul's defense of himself made before King Agrippa, at Caesarea, (not the Caesarea Philippi so familiar to students of the Gospels) but Caesarea located on the coast of the Mediterranean Sea, just north of Joppa.
It might be well to point out that Paul, at this time, was not on trial. He had been brought into the presence of King Agrippa in order to satisfy the curiosities of the man who had heard so much of Paul, who was charged with causing so much trouble in the country among the Jews.
The Jews had requested that Paul be sent to Jerusalem for trial but Paul well knew how dangerous such a procedure would be for him.
Taking advantage of the fact of his Roman citizenship, he appealed to Festus that he might be sent to Rome for trial. Festus, glad of the opportunity to be rid of such a strange prisoner, agrees. When Agrippa arrives for a visit with Festus, he is curious to see a prisoner as smart as this one was in defeating the Jews and so, he asks for Paul to be brought before him.
The defense of Paul before Agrippa is a wonderful discourse.
It begins at the very beginning and traces his life to its present day. Very logically and graphically does he go into each phase, never excusing himself, never blaming for what he had done, having been brought up a Pharisee — one of the strictest sects of the orthodox Jews — he was an almost fanatical defender of the "faith" of his fathers. It was natural for him, when he found a few followers of this "Christ" springing from within and threatening to destroy this strict Jewish legalism and Phariseism, which meant so much to him, to turn on them and do everything in his power to destroy them.
Not content with wreaking his revenge on those believers in Jerusalem, he obtained permission from the high priest to go everywhere to try to stamp out this new faith. It was while he

THE ROAD THAT LEADS NOWHERE

The road pictured below bears the time-worn marks of many travellers. Apparently it leads to some distant village or serves perhaps as a link between more vital thoroughfares.
But in reality this road does neither. Once, no doubt, it had a destination, but today it fades away into the woods a few miles beyond—a "dead end."
How many lives are like this road? They have promis- ing beginnings, but instead of continuing to worthwhile goals, they wander aimlessly to final dead ends.
The Church teaches us to build useful lives and guides us toward noble achievements and ambitions. Regular attendance at church services gives greater assurance that our pathway of life will not lead us astray. On the con- trary, it leads straight to the house of the peaceful mind and the contented heart.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
