

BLACKSMITH LEAVES $81,402 ESTATE

EMPORIA, Kan. (UP) — Some of Emory Davis' friends had expressed anxiety over whether the Emporia blacksmith had means to sustain him in his old age when he retired. Their fears proved groundless.

The man whose trade has dwindled in numbers in the motor age left an estate of $84,402. Furthermore, $51,526.15 of it was in cash. Davis, who got his start in business by sharpening plow-shares at 20 cents each, led a frugal life. There were no outward signs of wealth.

HUNTERS GET BREAK

COLUMBUS, O.—Ohio's rabbit and pheasant hunting season opens Nov. 15. That was the date members of Fighter Squadron 244, Marine Corps Reserve, were scheduled to report for active duty. The men, wanting a final crack at small game hunting, spoke to Brig. Gen. W. O. Brice. The general changed the date the men were to report for active service to Nov. 16.

FINGERNAIL TEST ADVISED

KENT, O.—Householders should use the "fingernail test" to distinguish between various kinds of fire wood, advises Martin L. Davey, Jr., tree expert. The highest heat value is reflected when the wood cannot be dented with the fingernail, meaning it is hard and heavy. Moderate heat is predictable when wood can be lightly dented. Light and soft wood, not particularly good in last heat value, dents easily.

NORWAY SENDS HOMES TO ISRAEL

A GIFT OF 50 HOUSES from the Norwegian Labor Movement is gratefully acknowledged by Joseph Berg at ceremonies held in Yanof, Israel (top). This is a village dedicated to the memory of 27 displaced children and three nurses who died in a plane crash near Oslo a year ago. At bottom, members of the Allal family, whose son Yitzhak, 13, was the sole survivor, are shown in front of one of the homes. (International Soundphoto)
