Garden Club To Make Decorations Tomorrow

The Richland Garden Club will meet tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock in the home of Mrs. John Smathers, Jr., for the purpose of making Christmas decorations for the rooms at the Haywood County Hospital.

Orders are being taken for wreaths to be made at the same time.

Stanford Massie Is Host For C.A.R. Meeting

Stanford Massie was host of a meeting of the Joseph Howell Society of the Children of the American Revolution in his home at East Waynesville last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. J. H. Howell, senior president, was in charge and Linda Sloan, junior president, presided.

Following the advance of the flags by Carey Howell, Betty Owen, and Mary Barber, the opening ritual was led by Stanford Massie and Nancy Francis. The former also read the Christmas Story from Luke.

The program was presented by Harriet Gibson, who read a poem, "Christmas Wishes," and an article from the C. A. R. Magazine, "What Liberties Mean to Me."

A piano solo, "Polonaise Militaire," by Chopin was played by Nancy Francis.

During the business hour announcement was made that a box had been sent to Crossnore and books and magazines sent to the Indian School at Cherokee.

Refreshments were served during the social hour and the host was assisted by his mother, Mrs. Francis Massie.

Featured In College Calendar

MISS JEAN BRADLEY of Waynesville is featured in the Brenau College calendar for 1951, depicting the month of May as graduation. Miss Bradley, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bradley, is a senior at Brenau, at Gainesville, Ga., and a member of Phi Mu social sorority. The calendar is a creation of the Brenau photo-journalism department.

Sorority Dance Will Highlight Social Events

One of the most outstanding social events of the Christmas Season will be the annual dance sponsored by the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority to be held Saturday night, December 23, in the Waynesville Armory.

This is the third Christmas dance held by the sorority and each year the event has drawn a large crowd from Haywood and nearby counties. Music for this year's dance will be by Chic Burroughs and his orchestra.

Dancing will be from 9 until 1 o'clock.

Miss Edna Summerrow, president of the sorority is general chairman of arrangements and all members are serving on committees.

Miss Anna Mae Crum of Florida is spending this week with Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Laymon in their home at Ceel.

VFW Auxiliary Has Christmas Entertainment

Members of the Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars held a Christmas party in the office of the Selective Service Board Monday night.

Bingo and other games were featured and recordings of Christmas carols were played.

Mrs. James R. Thomas, president of the Auxiliary, received and the entertainment was in charge of Miss Alma Jackson, Mrs. Charles Whitman, and Mrs. Jess Crouser, Jr.

Around thirty members and guests attended the affair.

Miss Ramona Pressley, who has been ill at her home in Ceel, is described as much improved.

Kurt L. Well, who has a position with the Standard Oil Company in Aruba, West Indies, is here to spend Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Well.

Miss Joan Morris, member of the freshman class at Brenau College, arrived yesterday for a three-week Christmas holiday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert and young son of Ceel, arrived yesterday for a week for Kennibunk, Mass. side.

Mr. and Mrs. Pleasant of Darrington, Washington, arrived yesterday for the holidays.
