A Christmas Compact Is a Girl's Best Friend

By BETTY CLARKE

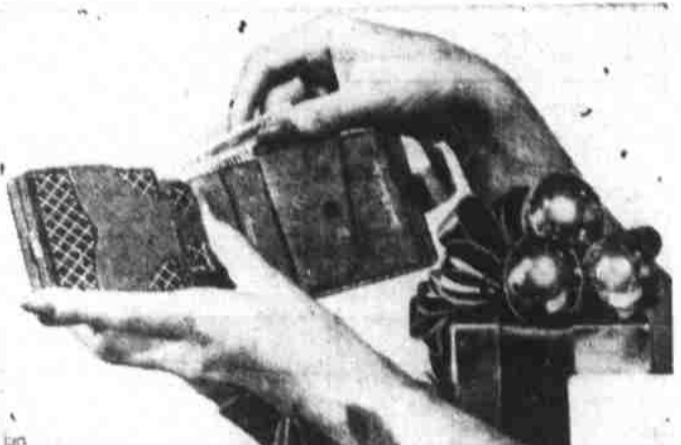

AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor You can't go wrong by giving her a compact. A fastidious girl who likes to be sure her compact always is available earmarks one for each handbag. But whether she is a one-compact woman or makes a collection of them, Christmas is the ideal time to break in a new compact.

The variety of compacts available offers great possibilities to the shopper. There is a wide selection, from pigskin compacts for the sportswoman to elegant jeweled compacts for the playgirl, all within the budget.

You'll find compacts encased in wallets accompanied by lipstick, a compact with mirror which does a complete somersault and swings around to the inside when the cover is lifted, a tiny but deep compact with lipstick and perfume in one easy-to-find unit, a sparkling compact and lipstick covered with pear-shaped brilliants encased in a satin holder.

DIAMOND DEW . . . Pearshape brilliants dot a compact by Paul Flato.

BEAUTY WALLET . . . Cowhide or pigskin in red, green or black. It contains a golden plaid compact and lipstick, billfold, extra pockets. By Ayer.

SMALL WONDER . . . Gold-tooled leather with lipstick, perfume. By Majestic.

YULE SURPRISE . . . Compact has turnabout mirror for quick flip. By Volupte.

Mrs. Lindsley Observes 90th Birthday Today

Miss Sue Willard Lindsley entertained informally this afternoon in her home on Pigeon Street in honor of her mother, Mrs. Halsey C. Lindsley, who is ninety years old today.

The residence was decorated throughout in the holiday motif and the tea table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a snow scene, flanked by white candles.

Assisting in receiving were Miss Alice Quinlan, Mrs. Frieda Knopf, and Miss Nannette Jones.

During the first hour Mrs. L. M. Richeson presided at the tea table and Mrs. Henry Foy and Mrs. E. B. Campbell aided in serving. Mrs. Jack Elwood poured during the second hour and Mrs. William I. Lee and Miss Lois Harold served.

Mrs. Lindsley, the former Miss Julia S. Telford, was born near Atlanta on December 14, 1860. Her father, a Presbyterian minister, took his family down the Suwanee River to Florida at the time of General Sherman's famous march to the sea, because their home was on the direct route of the northern army.

The family later moved to Sanford, Florida where Mrs. Lindsley resided until her marriage on March 2, 1887.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsley moved to Waynesville in 1900 and the former was for many years the principal owner of the Waynesville Book Store. They celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary in March, 1937—eight years before Mr. Lindsley's death in September, 1945.

Mrs. Lindsley has, until the past two years, remained active in the affairs of the Presbyterian church and was a member of the Civic League during its years of existence. She has also been an active member of the Waynesville Woman's Club.

For the past year she has confined her activities to her home but remains interested in her church and in the daily news.

Mrs. C. E. Rothrock and two young sons of Reidsville will arrive Sunday to spend Christmas with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Silet. They will be joined later next week by Mr. Rothrock.

McClure Assigned To Patrol Duty In Randolph

W. R. McClure of Waynesville, commissioned last week-end as a State Highway Patrolman, was assigned this week to duty in Liberty.

Liberty is in Randolph county, approximately 22 miles from Greensboro, headquarters of the young officer's troop.

He and 33 other men who graduated from Patrol School at Chapel Hill last Friday were sworn in as officers today at Raleigh.

Fourteen of the rookie officers have been assigned to Troop D in the Asheville area.

First Grades Give Program At Central PTA

A Christmas program was presented by the two first grades of the Central Elementary School at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Troy Boyd's grade gave the first part of the program which included songs by a robed choir and the recitation of Bible verses.

This was followed by a play, "Christmas Books," presented by Miss Irma Patterson's grade. The children represented characters in books they would like to have for Christmas.

Following the program a short business meeting was held with Joe Jack Atkins presiding.

The first grades won the award for the largest percentage of parents present.
