Jesus---the Mighty Worker

Jesus and His disciples were in a ship on the Sea of Galilee. Jesus slept, but the disciples woke Him because a storm arose and they were afraid. "Peace be still," said the Lord, and the waves quieted.

Jesus cast out an evil spirit from a man, and the devils, whose name was legion, instead of being destroyed, were driven into a herd of swine which ran down a steep place and drowned in the sea of Galilee.

On His way to heal the daughter of Jairus, ruler of the synagogue, Jesus was surrounded by the crowd. A sick woman could only touch the hem of His garment but was healed, because she had faith.

Brought to the house of Jairus, Jesus found the whole household weeping and wailing because his little daughter had died. Jesus asked why they grieved, saying, "She is not dead, but sleepeth." MEMORY VERSE—Mark 5:36.

Pastors Of 76 Methodist Churches Plan Meetings

(Contributed)
 The Methodist Church, concerned for the spiritual health of America, is a cooperating member of the National Council of Churches in her stress on evangelism this year. She believes the chief business of the Church is to proclaim the good news of Christ, challenging all persons with a witness of His message.

Bishop Costen Harrell, presiding bishop of the Western North Carolina Conference, The Methodist Church, is urging each of the ten Districts in the Conference to make evangelism the chief objective this year. The Waynesville District, with 76 local Methodist Churches, has planned a Minister's Evangelism Spiritual Retreat to be in the Clyde and Lake Junaluska Churches, February 5-7 with this objective to consider.

The program, under the direction of District Superintendent Jack Huneycutt, is of interest chiefly for the ministers during the morning and afternoon sessions. Among the leaders for these sessions are: the Reverend H. G. Allen, Superintendent of Lake Junaluska Assembly, discussing "The Religious Community Survey"; Reverend Julian Holmes, pastor of Brevard Methodist Church, "Program of Visitation Evangelism"; Reverend Paul Duckwall, "Statistics in Evangelism"; Reverend W. T. Medlin and Reverend Horace McSwain, "Evangelism in the Church School and among the Youth".

Former District Superintendent C. N. Clark will speak on "Pulpit Evangelism," and Reverend Ernest Yountz will discuss "The Class for Church Membership." The Reverend Ralph Taylor, President of the Board of Evangelism of the Conference, and Reverend Lon Hayes will present the evangelistic program in the Conference and in Foreign Missions.

The opening services are to be inspirational, planned for laymen as well as ministers. These services, to be held in the Clyde Church, will have the Reverend Arthur Kale, pastor of Wesley Memorial Church, High Point, as speaker. Many laymen, especially from Haywood County, will be present for these evening services.

On Wednesday morning, these planning meetings will adjourn with a consecration service led by the Reverend C. W. Kirky, secretary of Evangelism for the Waynesville District. A deepened realization of the urgency of the Christian gospel and a greater effectiveness for the task by the local Church are the prayerful expectations of the meetings.

How Aunt Sallie Clifton Helped Her Neighbors

Among the happy users of Scalf's Indian River Medicine is Mrs. Sallie Clifton, 17 South Front Street, Rockwood, Tenn. Mrs. Clifton writes her heartfelt thanks for what Scalf's has done for her. Her friends call her "Aunt Sallie" and respect her as they would a mother. Aunt Sallie has lived in Rockwood for around 30 years and has belonged to the Missionary Baptist Church for over 50 years.

MRS. SALLIE CLIFTON

Tells Of Case
 Aunt Sallie writes: "Several years ago I wrote a letter of praise for Scalf's Indian River Medicine and I am still a great booster for it. I had suffered for four years from awful spells of smothering gas pains which upset my nerves till I couldn't sleep or rest. I had no appetite and as a result lost weight, strength and energy."
A Great Change Takes Place
 "I weighed only 96 pounds when I started on Scalf's Indian River Medicine. When I had taken only four bottles of this good herbal medicine I weighed 103 pounds. I could eat heartily and the aggravating gas pains were relieved. I have told my neighbors about Scalf's Indian River Medicine and many of them have been helped by it. I trust my letter will help others suffering as I did to find the blessed relief I have found in Scalf's Indian River Medicine."
Make This Test Free
 Get a bottle of Scalf's Indian River Medicine from your nearest drug dealer and take it according

"Smothering Gas Pressure So Bad That My Nerves Seemed All Disturbed And My Sleep All Broken Up. My Appetite Failed Me And I lost Weight, Strength And Energy. I Feel Like New On Scalf's Indian River Medicine." Declares Mrs. Clifton.
 to directions. If you're not perfectly satisfied, ask your druggist for your money back, but be sure it's genuine Scalf's Indian River Medicine you try. Don't accept a substitute—Aunt Sallie didn't. Scalf's Indian River Medicine is on sale at all good drug stores.
